There will be a 2nd Collection, October 17-18, for World Mission Sunday.

The World Mission Sunday collection grants funds to mission dioceses, which help to underwrite the basic physical footprint that keeps missionary life going: where priests & sisters live, where children are catechized, and where Holy Mass can be celebrated. Part of the funds are used to help missionary dioceses run and survive, while the rest of the funds are used to build churches, seminaries, convents, and pastoral centers. In an average year, WMS helps to fund over 900 infrastructure-related projects for the Church!

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Today’s Gospel comes from the latter chapters of Matthew, in which Jesus repeatedly speaks about our readiness for the end times and the coming judgment. This parable concludes with the striking image of a man being thrown out of the king’s feast because he was not dressed in a proper wedding garment. While Tradition has often used this passage to communicate the importance of being properly disposed when approaching holy Communion, we ought not forget its other sense. To find a place at both the earthly and the heavenly wedding feast of the Lamb, we must strive to clothe ourselves with righteous deeds (see Rev. 19:7-9), cooperating with the grace the Lord has given us in baptism.

GO EVANGELIZE | PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Our readings today reveal God’s astonishing invitation to all humanity. Isaiah tells us that God “will provide for all peoples a feast of rich food and choice wines.” The king in Jesus’ parable announces this same divine invitation: “Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast.” In his letter Desiderio desideravi, Pope Francis wrote: “The world still does not know it, but everyone is invited to the supper of the wedding of the Lamb (Re: 19:9).” (5) As disciples of Jesus, our task is to be like the servants of the king in today’s Gospel. So, too, the Lord sends us out to bring whomever we find to the feast. And, as Pope Francis said, “We must not allow ourselves even a moment of rest, knowing that still not everyone has received an invitation to this Supper or knowing that others have forgotten or have got lost along the way.”

PRAY

Immediately following baptism, infants, children, and adults are clothed in a white garment as an outward sign of the grace just received in the sacrament. In the prayer that accompanies this part of the baptismal rite, the celebrant exhorts the newly baptized to bring this garment unstained before the judgment seat of Christ. Take a moment this day to pray for all the newly baptized in your community, and indeed, for all the baptized – that together, we may strive for the holiness that is fitting for those who have “put on Christ” (Gal 3:27) and so come to share in his heavenly feast.

FLORAL ARRANGEMENTS - This weekend's floral arrangements are celebrating the October birthdays in the Jarzombek, Angell, and Hill families. May Jesus bless each and every one of you with His abundant graces.

ROSES FOR MARY AND JOSEPH - RosaLee and Casper are sponsoring this weekend's red roses for Our Blessed Mother and St. Joseph. Red roses represent Mary's love, compassion, and her suffering as she stood at the foot of the cross. St. Joseph is honored as Mary's Most Chaste Spouse and the Protector of the Holy Family.

Climb the mountain. Bring Jesus along.
Growing in Faith

Time in prayer is not a luxury or secondary to service, mission, or productivity. Nothing we do all day is more important than spending time with Jesus. Prayer gives life to our mission, and mission draws us back to prayer. We need both. Climb the mountain: People may rightly say, “My work is my prayer.” Yet spouses would struggle to stay close if they only met to divide the chores. In the same way, we need time with God apart from our work. Following Christ requires knowing Him. We sit at His feet and let Him teach us. In His presence, we learn to see as He sees, value what He values, and love as He loves.
Return to the plains: We aren’t meant to stay on the mountain. Jesus sends us back into ordinary life carrying what we received in prayer: a peaceful presence, a new insight, a kind word at the right moment. Some even begin the day by asking God to place in their path the people He wants them to encounter. The Christian life moves between the mountain and the plain: drawing close to Jesus in prayer, then carrying His presence into the world. And in both places, He remains at our side.

All Souls Day Envelopes are at the entrance of the church. Please return no later than Mon. Oct 26th so the list of names can be prepared.
