GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

There have been many times when I have experienced "imposter syndrome" in my work, where I doubt my own ability. In these times, I often looked to others to try to determine if I was doing enough. But instead of giving me the validation and encouragement I was seeking, this act of comparison frequently led to dissatisfaction. I began to wish I was more like others — more outgoing, more disciplined, more organized. But who I am and the gifts that I have to offer are exactly what I am being called to give in my vocation. Saint Paul reminds us in his First Letter to the Corinthians that we were not called because we possess a specific talent or personality; we have been called to bear witness to the work Christ is doing in us. And this witness comes from living our vocation authentically, with the gifts we naturally possess. When we not only accept but love and value our unique qualities, we give glory to the One who so lovingly and perfectly created us.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER. INVITATION. WITNESS. ACCOMPANIMENT

In proclaiming the beatitudes, Christ reveals that those who will experience the rewards of heaven aren't those we might consider "blessed" by human standards. What our culture values as markers of success and happiness are not always what is valued in the kingdom of God. Indeed, the joys of life in the kingdom are deeper than those here on earth; we were created for fulfillment greater than what this world can offer. Therefore, we must live confidently in the hope of Christ's promises instead of comparing ourselves to others who might appear more successful. And as we live our vocation, we are called to live out the countercultural message of the beatitudes — a radical trust in the eternal promises of God in spite of earthly poverty, grief, or persecution. In doing so, we invite others to see and experience the joy of the abundant life that Christ proclaims.

REFLECT As we go through life, there can be times when we feel unprepared for the vocation God has called us to. Consider how these feelings of inadequacy may be an invitation for us to rely more fully on Christ working within us. Bring this to prayer and ask the Lord to reveal how he may be using this particular circumstance to draw us closer to him.

TABERNACLE FLOWERS: This week's floral arrangements are in memory of Arnold & Mary (Kapitza) Sturm and August (Gus) & Lillian (Hahn) Kotara. The flowers have been donated by Danny & Lynette Sturm.

Steering Committee for Sister's Convent Renovation

Dear Parishioners, At the last Pastoral Council meeting it was decided to form a steering committee to discuss renovation plans, costs, timelines, and other pertinent information. The committee will ensure the renovation meets the needs of our youth, parish ministries, and other parish/community activities.

We are seeking parishioners and CCD teachers to serve on the Steering Committee. Meetings will be scheduled either Saturday mornings or Sunday evenings. If you are interested in serving, we invite you to prayerfully consider this opportunity and text or call Karissa Jarzombek at 830-534-8299 by Monday, February 2. - "Unless the LORD builds the house, those who build it labor in vain." Psalm 127:1 - Thank you and God bless.

The JCDA Court St. Genevieve #917 will have their drive-thru Chicken Noodle Soup dinner at the Diner on February 8, 2026. Tickets are $12 for a quart plus crackers and are available from any JCDA member or at Falls City Milling. There will be a large bake sale as well. Proceeds will support the court's community projects and future scholarships.

Thank you! We thank Alphie Kowalik for volunteering to blow the leaves off of the BBQ/Diner Pavilion during Feb, March & April twice a month or as needed. We appreciate you giving of your time!

POINSETTIAS which are no longer suitable for church may be picked up from the candle room this weekend. Once the temperatures are above freezing, the flowers will be moved to the screened porch of the convent. First come first serve. Enjoy planting them in your yard and hopefully watching them bloom next season.
