ALTAR SOCIETY MONTHLY ROSARY RESUMES SUNDAY, OCTOBER 4TH, 5PM, IN OUR CHURCH. Please join us in praying for the sick of our parish, family, and friends. Matthew 18:20 "For wherever two or three are gathered in my name, there am I, in their midst."

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I enjoy thinking about what it would have been like to hear Jesus’ teachings as a first-century Jew. When Jesus calls out the current tenants of the vineyard as being unfaithful, disobedient servants, however, it may have left the crowd feeling a bit anxious. And really, Jesus could say this to each of us at times because, like the wild grapes in the vineyard, when left to our own devices we also have a tendency to fall into sin and produce unsavory fruit. But we also know that Jesus is the Prince of Peace, and he wants our lives in his vineyard to be characterized by that peace. Christ is not condemning, but he is the Son sent to call the tenants back into communion with the Father. He does the same with us too. In acts of great mercy, Christ continues to call us again and again – even after we reject him and turn away from him. Through the Church, the sacraments, the intercession of the saints, and the holy men and women who proclaim the Gospel today, God continues to seek us out so we might know the peace of fruitful service in his vineyard.

GO EVANGELIZE | PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Christ longs to give us peace that surpasses all of our fears and anxieties, and he does so by inviting us to be good stewards of his created world and the community of believers. He invites us to work in the vineyard – to offer our gifts and talents to bring forth the fruits of love and joy that overflow from the work of the Holy Spirit within us. We do so with the assurance that salvation is not dependent on us. Our Father has sown the seeds and has prepared the vineyard; we are simply called to reap and preserve what he has brought into being. And so we trust in the overwhelming mercy of God and humbly accept the love and communion that we do not deserve.

REFLECT

Just as the landowner sent messengers to the tenants of the vineyard, God sends people to us to proclaim the Gospel. Who are those people in your life who are calling you to a deeper relationship with God? How can you open your heart to hear the message of love and peace that they are proclaiming?

FLORAL ARRANGEMENTS

- This weekend's flowers are donated in memory of Clem Swierc, Jr. May he rest peacefully in the arms of our Lord and Savior. The arrangements are donated by Mike & Mary Stulting.

No Mass

There will be no Mass celebrated on October 5th – 7th at St. Boniface and Holy Trinity as priests are attending Presbyteral Convocation. Let us pray for the clergy serving in the Archdiocese of San Antonio and especially for Fr. Andrzej.

During October we will have a Mass attendance count required by the Vatican. Father will give instructions during the Mass.

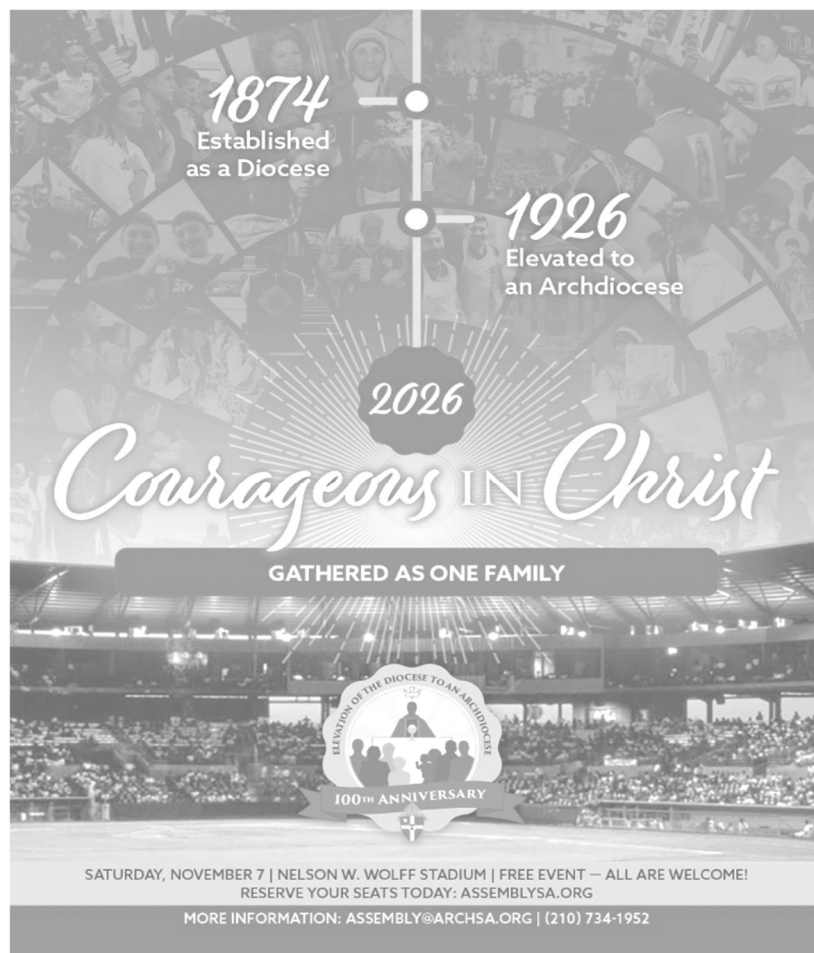

Office Phone is out of service. Please email the church at holytrinityfc@sbcglobal.net

Today's readings sing of a vineyard planted with care and expected to bear fruit (Is 5:1-7; Mt 21:33-43). For more than 100 years, the Archdiocese of San Antonio has been that vineyard: planted by missionaries, tended by generations of faithful families, and fruitful today in parishes, schools, hospitals, and institutions across 19 counties. St. Paul's counsel fits the season: "Have no anxiety at all" (Phil 4:6). The harvest is not ours to worry over; it is ours to gather and give thanks for.

Centennial Mass with Archbishop Gustavo: Saturday, November 7

Nelson W. Wolff Stadium. Gates 3 p.m., Mass 4 p.m. Free. RSVP at AssemblySA.org.

There will be no vigil Mass celebrated on Saturday Nov. 7th in the parish.

Established as a diocese in 1874. Elevated to an archdiocese in 1926. Gathered as one family in 2026. Every generation between those dates wrote its chapter with courage: through war, depression, persecution, and pandemic, the faith never left this land. Archbishop Gustavo reminds us why: "Today, we stand on the shoulders of those who have gone before us, whose good works have built up this Church." Now the pen passes to us. What we write begins on November 7, at one altar, in one stadium. Add your name to the chapter at AssemblySA.org
