19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This is enough, O Lord! Take my life. (1 Kings 19:4)
Elijah is fed up. Fleeing for his life into the desert, he finds his way to a broom tree, where he collapses in despair. Alone and exhausted, he prays for death: “This is enough, O Lord! Take my life” (1 Kings 19:4). But God doesn’t answer his prayer. Instead, he sends an angel to care for Elijah’s needs. “Get up and eat,” the angel commands the disillusioned prophet, lest “the journey will be too long for you” (1 Kings 19:7). Elijah awakes and discovers that God has miraculously provided him with bread and water to strengthen him. Elijah had given up hope in the Lord, but the Lord had not given up on Elijah. At some point, we may feel we have come to the end of our rope. Trials or grief, sickness or disappointment can rob us of our hope. Like Elijah, we might tell the Lord, “Enough!” In those moments, our God is close to us, even if we can’t feel it. Just as the Lord saw Elijah under that solitary broom tree, he sees us. He sees you. And just as he provided for Elijah, he will provide you with bread as well so that your journey won’t be too much. But it won’t be ordinary bread; it will be the “living bread that came down from heaven” (John 6:51). It will be nothing less than Jesus’ own flesh and blood, the Eucharistic bread that gives us eternal life. Today as you go to Mass, come to Jesus with an open, sincere heart. Don’t be afraid to be honest with him; tell him about your needs and your burdens. Then, as you receive his Body and Blood, receive his strength and hope. Even if you can’t receive Jesus sacramentally today, he is still with you. He is filling you with the grace you need to continue on. He will answer your cry for help. He will never give up on you! “Thank you, Lord, for sustaining me. Jesus, I trust in you!”

Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary - All generations will call me blessed. (Luke 1:48)
Did you know that letters and historical records from the first century AD all testify that Mary’s tomb contains no body? Or that no relics of her exist apart from her shroud? That’s some pretty strong evidence backing up the ancient tradition that Our Lady was assumed body and soul into heaven! Think about Mary’s life for a moment. She didn’t preach to multitudes or perform mighty miracles like the apostles did. She didn’t write any great epistles, found any churches, or travel to the ends of the earth. So, we shouldn’t assume that Mary’s assumption was some kind of reward she “earned” by doing all sorts of wondrous deeds. Quite the opposite, in fact. Rather than launch her into a life of miracles and missionary greatness, Mary’s yes to the angel introduced her to a different adventure: a pregnancy surrounded by scandal. Giving birth in a stable. Fleeing to Egypt as a refugee. Watching her son perform miracle after miracle even as he endured opposition. She stood by helpless as he suffered a horrible death on a cross, but then rejoiced in his resurrection and eagerly welcomed the gift of the Spirit at Pentecost. Then, at the end of a life lived in faithful humility, she received the ultimate gift of the assumption. Today’s feast is both an enduring sign of God’s deep love for Mary and a prophetic sign of what awaits us as we follow in her footsteps of humble discipleship. Mary’s assumption tells us that God sees each of us. He sees our sacrifices. He sees our faithfulness. He sees our attempts—both successful and unsuccessful—to love as he loves. He sees it all and he honors it all, and he longs for the day when he will bring us, body and soul, into his heavenly courts. So let Mary’s example comfort you today. Let it encourage you to say yes to God in ways that may be uncomfortable. Remember that Mary, your mother, understands the cost of discipleship—and the rewards. And she is praying for you every day! “Blessed Mary, full of grace, thank you for blazing the trail of discipleship for all of us!”
