13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They were utterly astounded. (Mark 5:42)

Of course they were astounded! The disciples and the parents of this young girl had just seen Jesus raise her from the dead. Now she was walking around as if she had never been ill. And just a few minutes earlier, a woman suffering from a hemorrhage for twelve long years had been instantly cured just by touching Jesus' cloak (Mark 5:27-29). Both were amazing displays of power, and both demonstrated that Jesus was no ordinary rabbi.

We don't know if the young girl's father or the afflicted woman really understood that Jesus was the Messiah when they reached out to him. But they must have sensed that he came from God, given what they had already heard about him. Clearly, they believed in his power enough to approach him for healing. Perhaps they didn't know how their encounter with him would end, but they put their hope in him and stepped out in faith.

We do know that Jesus is the Son of God, and yet sometimes we can find ourselves doubting his power. Can he really heal me? Can he really forgive my most shameful sins? Will he one day raise me to new life? And yet the kinds of stories like the ones in today's Gospel reading didn't just happen in the past. Jesus still acts powerfully in our own time and place. Conversions, healings, answers to prayer—these continue to abound.

So believe in Jesus' power, as Jairus and this woman did. Step out in faith and ask for what you need. Keep asking even if you don't see immediate results. Even if it seems as if you're not getting what you're asking for, don't give up hope! Believe that Jesus, Lord of heaven and earth, has the power—and the desire—to heal you and give you new life. This is why he came to earth, and he will do it, in his own perfect time and way!

"Jesus, I am reaching out to touch your cloak today. Heal me and pour your life into me!"

On Wednesday, the Feast St. Thomas, Apostle, we recall that "even though Thomas had been walking with Jesus for some time and had witnessed him performing countless miracles, the trauma of Jesus' passion and death was just too much to process. As a result, he remained "parked" in a state of unbelief when the other apostles told him, "We have seen the Lord" (John 20:25). But then came the next Sunday: Jesus appeared again, this time with Thomas present. Treating this doubting disciple with great mercy, he invited Thomas to touch and see for himself that he truly had risen from the dead. Jesus entered into Thomas' gloom and issued one command that broke through all his inertia: "Believe!" (John 20:27). At that moment, a fresh new horizon opened up, and Thomas couldn't help but exclaim in awe and recognition, "My Lord and my God!" (20:28). This Jesus whom Thomas met that day is the same Jesus who comes to you today. He comes to speak words of hope and encouragement. He comes to send you into the world ready to share his love and presence. He comes to urge you, "Believe!" So still your heart and listen for his voice. Trust that he has all the grace you need to shift out of "park"! "Jesus, you are my Lord and my God! I trust you to direct my path."
