12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey? (Mark 4:41)

It wasn't an unreasonable question for the disciples to ask. They had been with Jesus and seen him perform healings, teach crowds of people, even dispute with religious leaders. But they had never seen anything like this! Sure, as fishermen they knew how to survive violent squalls on the Sea of Galilee. But never had anyone done it by calming the wind and the waves with a command!

The disciples' question is a good one for you to ask as well. Scriptural answers can help you not only recognize but also proclaim the power and goodness of the Lord.

Who is this? He is the Word of God, who was at the Father's side from the beginning, the One through whom all things came to be (John 1:2-3). He was an active participant when the Father created everything. He is just as involved in your life.

Who is this? He is the same God as the One who "shut within doors the sea" and "set limits for it" (Job 38:8, 10). Since he created all things, he has authority over those created things. Nothing is beyond his control, not even the greatest challenge you may be facing today.

Who is this? He is the One who, today's responsorial psalm tells us, "hushed the storm to a gentle breeze" (107:29). He can bring peace to the turmoil in nature, and he can do the same for the turmoil in your own heart.

Who is this? He is the One whose word goes forth and accomplishes his purposes and plans in this world (Isaiah 55:11). He spoke, and all things came into being. His word has the same power in your life, the power to bring the healing, forgiveness, and peace that he proclaims.

Who is this? This is Jesus, eternal Son of the Father, who creates and sustains all things (Colossians 1:16-17). He holds all of creation together. And he holds you and your loved ones as well.

"Jesus, I praise you, for through your word, you show me who you are—the all-powerful God!"

On Monday, the Feast of the birth of John the Baptist, we remember that God led him to the desert to prepare him for his mission. Wearing uncomfortable camel's hair and living on "locusts and wild honey" (Matthew 3:4), he made a deliberate choice to turn away from the comforts of the material world to experience God's provision in the spiritual.

Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles Solemnity is Saturday July 29th. God Our Father, today you give us the joy of celebrating the feast of the apostles Peter and Paul. Through them your Church first received the faith. Keep us true to their teaching. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

This week's floral arrangements are in memory of Arnold & Mary (Kapitza) Sturm and August (Gus) & Lillian (Hahn) Kotara. The flowers have been donated by Danny & Lynette Sturm.
