The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph

Written by the Faithful Disciple

In his Angelus address on the Feast of the Holy Family in 2001, St. John Paul II shared this with those gathered: "If we aspire to a deeper understanding of Jesus' life and mission, we must draw close to the mystery of the Holy Family of Nazareth to observe and listen." Following in the footsteps of the Holy Family in today's Scripture, we find ourselves in quiet Bethlehem, just after the departure of the Magi. The angel of the Lord appears to Joseph in a dream, this time with a warning: "Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you. Herod is going to search for the child to destroy him." They trust in God and their response is immediate. It is easy for us to imagine the Holy Family as different from ourselves – holier and more spiritual. Certainly, that's true. They were holy but they were also fully human, which means that what they attained is possible for each of us. Let us try to imitate them in this holiness.

It's easy to glamorize the life of Joseph, Mary, and Jesus, but in reality, the cross was with them long before the crucifixion. From the moment of the Annunciation, there would be trials, temptations, and sufferings. But each time, they respond with immediate obedience and deep trust. In doing so, they give us all a perfect example of what the Christian life should look like: a life motivated by love and always listening for the voice of God, ready to respond in an instant. As we accompany others on this journey of faith, we also must listen deeply to them in order to help them in discerning the Spirit's movement in their lives. As we hone the spiritual muscle of attentive listening, we grow in our ability to respond to God and to God's action in our lives, and to help others do the same.

Most of us will never hear from an angel in the middle of the night telling us to walk hundreds of miles with our baby in tow. But every single one of us will be – has been – called. Let us pray to the Holy Family for an increase in the virtues of obedience and trust, so that we can respond to God's call in our lives

Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23, Obedience is trust in action

exhausting. When they finally arrived, they found no suitable place to stay and settled among animals. Soon after, they faced the threat against Jesus' life and fled to Egypt, living for years in a foreign land without the support of relatives or friends. Through every hardship, Joseph relied on God to protect his family.

The Holy Family was perfect in love, yet not spared from difficulty. Mary and Joseph met each challenge with faith and allowed God's Word to guide them. We can follow the same path.

Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God    God sent his Son, born of a woman. (Galatians 4:4)

How fitting that we conclude the Octave of Christmas and begin a new year by celebrating Mary as Mother of God! She who gave birth to the Prince of Peace is now honored in her own right. Mary's title, Theotokos, "God-Bearer" or Mother of God, was established at the Council of Ephesus in AD 431. The Council Fathers officially confirmed what had already been established in the hearts of the faithful: Mary should be venerated as the Mother of God because by the power of the Holy Spirit she gave birth to he who is both God and man.

As Jesus' mother, Mary was entrusted with raising him according to the ways of God's people. Every day, she humbly did what was before her, whether it was caring for her cousin Elizabeth, accompanying Joseph to Bethlehem, or tending to her beloved son. Along with Joseph, she cared for Jesus and helped shape him in his humanity. She fed him, changed him, and nurtured him. Mary also modeled what saying yes to God looks like through her daily example of humility, compassion, and faith. She helped lead the weekly Shabbat dinners in their home and taught Jesus to love God's word. She likely spoke about her encounter with the angel Gabriel and the miraculous conception of Jesus' cousin John the Baptist. In all things and in all ways, she lived as the Mother of God. As you begin a new year, take Mary as your mother. She prays for you, she loves you, and she cares for you. Let her teach you how to say yes to God. Your yes might seem like nothing extraordinary: someone to care for, someone to encourage, or faithfulness to prayer in the midst of a busy day. But Mary knows that they all add up to an extraordinary life in God's eyes, and the rewards of a faithful life. "Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for me."
