Sunday Church Support $3,360.

There will be a 2nd Collection October 11th-12th for Hope for the Future-Tuition Assistance.
Established in 2006, Hope for the Future is an agency of the Archdiocese of San Antonio dedicated to making Catholic education accessible. Since its founding, Hope has awarded over $25 million in tuition assistance, supporting tens of thousands of children and families across every Catholic school in the archdiocese.

Each October, the Church invites us to rediscover our missionary vocation. This year, Pope Leo XIV, following the inspiration of Pope Francis, calls us to become "Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples," inspired by St. Paul's words: "Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit" (Rom 5:5). Let us begin this month with open hearts, ready to respond to the Church's call to support the 1,124 mission territories where the Church is young, growing, and often persecuted. Together, may we be bearers of hope where it is needed most.

 All Souls' Day Envelopes are at the entrance. Please return by Friday. Oct 24th

No Masses this week Monday-Wednesday.

GROW

AS A DISCIPLE

| PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples: "When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.'" I think what Jesus is drawing us to see is the humility we need as his disciples. It's easy to get puffed up, thinking, "Well, I've done this" or "I've done that" in service of God. We can even start to feel that God owes us. But we are called to love God for God's own sake, not for the accolades or even the reward that comes from faithfully serving him. St. Ignatius of Loyola penned a beautiful prayer called the Prayer for Generosity that expresses the sentiment that I feel is at the heart of our Scriptures today: "Eternal Word, only begotten Son of God, teach me true generosity. Teach me to serve you as you deserve. To give without counting the cost . . . to sacrifice myself without thought of any reward save the knowledge that I have done your will." Let's ask God to help us to serve him with generous hearts.

GO

EVANGELIZE

PRAYER. INVITATION. WITNESS. ACCOMPANIMENT In his second letter to Timothy, Paul calls us to "bear [our] share of the hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God." Serving the Lord requires that we rely on the gift of the Spirit within us who empowers us to serve courageously and generously. The good news, Paul tells us, is that "God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." In our efforts to serve God and to share our faith with others, let's remember that it is God's grace that is at work within us, equipping us and strengthening us. Let's remember Jesus' promise that even if we only have faith the size of a tiny mustard seed, we can still do great things for God. Indeed, through the gift of faith and the gift of his Holy Spirit, God has truly given us immense spiritual power.

PRAY _Take a moment to examine your own heart. Is your discipleship fueled more by a hope of reward (heaven), or, by pure love of God? Take some time to pray with St. Ignatius of Loyola's Prayer for Generosity (the full text can be found online), asking the Lord to increase your generosity in serving him

Experience the Peace of Christ

This Jubilee Year 2025 is a time of grace and healing. And this year's Assembly, held at Jubilee Pilgrimage Sites across the archdiocese on Saturday, Oct 25, is your opportunity to receive that healing through the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Archbishop Gustavo García-Siller, MSPS, has proclaimed Assembly 2025 as an Archdiocesan Day of Prayer, Fasting, and Reconciliation. This is a sacred day to let go of guilt, pain, and regret, and to begin again. If it's been a while since your last confession, don't be afraid. Christ is already waiting for you in love. Encounter Christ. Receive His mercy. Walk forward in freedom and peace. Assembly is your time to slow down, return to Jesus, and be made new. Participation is Free!
