Welcome Back Please welcome Father Andrzej back! We are glad to see you!

Floral Arrangements - This weekend's flowers are in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary donated by Gerald & Lillian Sekula. Sacred Heart of Jesus we place all our trust in You. Mary our Mother and Refuge of sinners, pray for us.

Floral Arrangements - The Altar Society is in need of donations for flowers. Please contact Patsy Sekula at 830-623-1404 to schedule arrangements for special events or in memory of loved ones. You may also add to the general flower fund by putting your donation in the collection basket and marking the envelope with "flowers". Envelopes are available at the entrance. Thank you for your generosity.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Our first reading from Exodus contains a promise: "If you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people." God promises to make Israel "a kingdom of priests, a holy nation," if they keep the covenant. Reading the rest of the Old Testament, we know how this turns out: humanity never fully keeps our part of the covenant. And yet God is faithful, despite our unfaithfulness. In the Gospel, Jesus sends his disciples not to pagan territory or any Samaritan towns, but to "the lost sheep of the house of Israel," revealing that God never abandons his chosen ones. Indeed, this is the same point Paul makes when he says, "But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us." Our discipleship begins from a deep awareness of the relentless love with which God pursues us. Even when we stray from our baptismal covenant with him, he comes looking to save us and bring us back to himself.

GO EVANGELIZE | PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS

Today's Gospel ends with a powerful reminder to all evangelizers: "Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give." Knowing the limitless mercy of God – how God has reconciled us to himself through Christ's suffering and death, we are to imitate his generosity in bearing witness to the Gospel. Knowing the love which has saved us, our hearts are moved – as Jesus' was at the sight of the crowd – to see that others come to know his love. Therefore, the generosity with which Jesus calls us to pour ourselves out for the sake of the Gospel is not an imposition from outside us, but a response to the love we have received that compels us from within to make him and his kingdom known.

PRAY

St. Ignatius of Loyola wrote a prayer now known as the Prayer for Generosity. Pray this prayer each day this week, asking the Lord to increase your generosity as you labor in his "harvest," sharing the Good News of his kingdom. Eternal Word, only begotten Son of God, teach me true generosity. Teach me to serve you as you deserve. To give without counting the cost, to fight heedless of wounds, to labor without seeking rest, to sacrifice myself without thought of any reward save the knowledge that I have done your will. Amen.

PICNIC NEWS - The Holy Trinity Church Picnic will be on Sunday, September 6th.

Picnic Worker List - Chairmen & parishioners, please contact Karissa Jarzombek at 830-534-8299 or karissaj@yahoo.com by Friday, July 31 for any changes. If you are new to the parish or otherwise were never on the worker list, please reach out to me. We need you!! Thank you and God Bless you all.

Raffle - It's that time to plan for Raffle Prizes. New donors are always welcome and appreciated! Please contact the new Raffle Chairpersons, Alexia Swierc 210-607-9919 & Taylor Torrez 210-827-4910.

Country Store - To improve the Country Store at our Church Picnic, we need your help with typical items you might find in a Country Store. It's canning time! Our gardens are bountiful thanks for the beautiful rains. Please take some time to can vegetables and make jellies for our Church Picnic. These are some of the most requested items. Other popular items are plants, fresh eggs, and homemade noodles. Let's get busy for our parish picnic!

The Beatitudes: Christ's vision for the human heart

Growing in Faith

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus revealed the attitudes, priorities, and way of loving that shaped His life. These became the Beatitudes: interior dispositions that open our hearts to His grace. As we cooperate with that grace, our hearts are transformed to become more like His.

Poor in spirit: The poor in spirit recognize that heavenly treasures — peace, grace, love, friendship, and eternal life — matter far more than worldly success or possessions.

Mourning: Rather than distracting ourselves from pain, loneliness, or disappointment, we bring our wounded hearts honestly to God. Healing begins when we allow Him to comfort us.

Meek: Meekness is not weakness, but strength rooted in self-control and trust in God. When our security rests in God, we are less ruled by fear, anger, or the need to control everything around us.

Hungry and thirsty for righteousness: This is a deep longing to live in friendship with God and to grow in holiness each day.

Merciful: God loves us with tender, generous, and selfless love, and He calls us to extend that same mercy to others.

Pure in heart: Purity of heart means

"Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, lowliness, meekness, and patience, forbearing one another" (Colossians 3:12)

valuing what is true, holy, and good, while striving to live with sincerity and integrity.

Peacemaking: Peacemakers bring calm, clarity, and reconciliation to difficult situations. True peace comes when God is placed first.

Willing to suffer for Christ: Following Christ will sometimes bring opposition. Yet Jesus promises that those who persevere with courage and trust "will have a great reward in heaven" (Matthew 5:12).
