Message from Father Apostolos

Our Parish Outreach Arm

Of the many joys that come my way through the course of a week, the most life-giving occurs every Wednesday morning throughout the school year at the weekly Chapel service for the children of our Holy Trinity Academy. The exuberance and energy of our little ones is a more potent pick-me-up than any double-shot espresso!

Each little one is eager to share with me their latest achievement, a birthday party, a trip to the park or zoo, even a new baby brother or sister. We sit together on the steps of the Altar and chat about their studies and what they are learning under the steady guidance of the dedicated HTA staff before rising to sing and say morning prayers together.

And among the many festive gatherings in the Holiday season now ending, the most joyous for me was two-fold; the annual Academy Christmas Pageant and, more notably, the reception into the fold of another mother and daughter who embraced the Orthodox faith through the ministry of HTA. I say 'another' since this joyful reception is by no means the first, nor will it be the last.

Holy Scripture reminds us to "Train up a child in the way that he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it." (Proverbs 22:6) Many of our Academy students through the years have not come from Orthodox Christian families but from those who perceive the educational value which HTA offers. And not a few have embraced Holy Orthodoxy as they have seen their little ones' hearts and souls flower along with their minds.

The evidence of our Academy's reach was made plain as the Speros Center began to fill up on the evening of the Christmas Pageant. Easily the largest Holiday crowd we've yet seen, the assembled came from many backgrounds but all united in their support of the Academy's educational and spiritual mission to awaken the children's minds and hearts to the glory of God, the fruitfulness of which we see as new souls are added to the parish year by year.

Our Holy Trinity Academy, quietly but effectively discharging her sacred mission, is among the most dynamic ministries offered at Holy Trinity Cathedral. It is, plainly stated, the most effective Outreach Ministry on our campus! Please enjoy the photo collage of the Academy's Christmas celebration on page 13 and join me in supporting this worthy and God-pleasing parish ministry in the year ahead.

From Juli Pritsos, Holy Trinity Academy Director:

Did you know that over the years HTA has brought in over 15 adults and children into the fold of Orthodoxy? Our newest converts are AnnaMarie Nieblas and her daughter Juliza. Chrismated on December 18, it was my joy and privilege to become their Nouna. Not only do these families come to church, but most are involved in other ministries of Holy Trinity including Sunday School, youth ministries, and dance.

There can be no greater gift or job a Steward can do than to be fishers of men and bring new people in the fold of Orthodoxy. It is HTA's honor to be such a special conduit in teaching the life of Christ and sharing it with others.

STEWARDS OF THE FAITH: All Things are Possible to the One Who Believes in Christ

HAPPY NEW YEAR! BLESSED 2019!

With a new year upon us it is important to take time to pause and reflect on the past while looking toward the future. Hopefully, Holy Trinity plays a central role in both.

First, let us thank you. It is with deep gratitude that we thank all of our parishioners for your ongoing generosity and dedication to our beloved Cathedral. It is because of your participation, attendance, dedication and commitment that makes our church the vibrant community that it is.

Your Stewardship commitment, including your attendance in church and participation in the ministries, is so important. And we are grateful to each and every one of you. As we set our commitments for 2019, let us again focus on the Church playing a central role.

Thank you to everyone who has already turned in your 2019 Stewardship Pledge Card and to the nearly 200 people who attended the Stewardship Gratitude Luncheon on December 9th. Coming together as a Church family in fellowship is one of the most important displays of our Stewardship.

If you haven't already done so, please fill out and turn in your completed 2019 Pledge Card. You can always do so on the Church website at www.holytrinityphx.org. Simply click on "Stewardship" in the upper right-hand corner. Then click on "Pledge Card." Fill out your information and click "Submit" at the bottom. Then either opt for WeShare's online giving plan or choose to fulfill your pledge by check or cash. It's that simple to become a current Steward.

Either way you do it, we are grateful for you! May God continue to bless our beloved Cathedral family and may 2019 be a beautiful year for Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral!

“Youngsters” Over 70½ Get a Tax Break

IRA owners over 70½ can make TAX FREE charitable contributions to Holy Trinity Cathedral.

You can contribute up to $100,000 of your required minimum distribution (RMD), but the funds must be transferred directly from your IRA to Holy Trinity.

Simply ask the institution holding your IRA to issue a check from your IRA to the Church.

You can do this easier by having a checking account attached to your IRA. With a checking account on your IRA, you simply write checks to the Church during the year for your donations.

Please call the Church Office with any questions at 602-264-7863.

Bequest Language

A bequest is a provision in your will or living trust that directs a portion of your estate to a named person or charity such as Greek Orthodox Church—Holy Trinity (our Cathedral’s legal name). You may bequeath a specific asset, a dollar amount, a percentage of your estate, or the remainder of your estate after all other gifts have been distributed.

You may choose how the funds from your bequest gift will be utilized by the Greek Orthodox Church—Holy Trinity. The following is suggested testamentary language depending on the type of gift you desire:

Unrestricted Gift

“... (specific assets, specific amount, percentage or remainder of estate) to the Greek Orthodox Church—Holy Trinity, an Arizona non-profit corporation, Phoenix, Arizona, to be used as determined by the Greek Orthodox Church—Holy Trinity Endowment Investment Committee.”

Restricted Gift

“... (specific assets, specific amount, percentage or remainder of estate) to the Greek Orthodox Church—Holy Trinity, an Arizona non-profit corporation, Phoenix, Arizona, to benefit the _____ at the Phoenix Greek Orthodox Church—Holy Trinity. These monies shall be used for _____.”

Endowment Gift

“... (specific assets, specific amount, percentage or remainder of estate) to the Greek Orthodox Church—Holy Trinity, an Arizona non-profit corporation, Phoenix, Arizona, to benefit the _____ at the Phoenix Greek Orthodox Church—Holy Trinity. Payouts declared from the endowment fund shall be used for _____. The endowment fund will be managed by the Greek Orthodox Church—Holy Trinity Endowment Investment Committee in accordance with their investment policies as established from time to time.”

To ensure that your exact intentions are carried out, we strongly recommend that you consult with your attorney and a member of our planned giving staff when preparing your estate documents.

Today Is A Gift

As we bring 2018 to a close I wanted to share with you HTA's message of the season that was shared at their Christmas Choral Pageant on December 20th. We were blessed to host over 100 friends and family at this year's pageant and hope you enjoy the message not only meant for the season of Christ's birth but for our entire season of life:

Christmas is a season for reflection on the past, hope for the future, and for some of us, albeit reluctantly, acceptance of the present. I know that all of you have heard the saying, "Yesterday is history. Tomorrow is a mystery. And today? Today is a gift, that's why we call it the present." For some of us it is hard to live in the present because we are so focused on the future. Our to-do lists. I know that I am one of those people. Yet each day I come to work and see your children and how they live each to their very fullest in the present. They could care less about what happened yesterday and they have no reason to think about tomorrow. They only care about what is happening right now in the present. And that's the way it should be. While we have many parents here tonight to see their child perform in their very first HTA Christmas pageant, we have a some here to watch their last. While both types of parents are savoring the present moments I know that you are also looking to the future. Which leads me to what we all look for in our children – hope.

In a world of uncertainty where we have so many demands that are put upon us, our children bring us joy, laughter, wonder, and hope. Hope that the world is going to be just fine. It is all part of God's plan and began when He gave us His only begotten Son to save us and ensure everlasting life. As we listen to your children this evening please reflect on their wonderment and how much they have brought to your lives, relish in the present of this evening's performance look to the future in your child's eyes and know that Jesus is in each and every one of their hearts.

One last thing before we get started. I want to take this time to thank Father Apostolos for his leadership and guidance. I couldn't ask for a better boss and his support of me, HTA, and all of the Littles and their families is something to treasure. I would also like to thank my staff, Mrs. Nicki and Mrs. Yvette for working with me every day and helping me with rehearsals and scheduling to make sure that this performance is the best it can be.

HTA wishes all of you a wonderful and prosperous new year that is filled with joy, love and most of all the magic and wonder of a child.

Music Ministry

by Terri Alexon, Director

Sing praises to the Lord, O you his saints, and give thanks to His holy name.
Psalm 30:4

It was another beautiful Nativity season for the music ministry!

Once again the Cathedral Choir sang with the Sunday School children replete with many carols during their annual presentation of the Nativity story. This year, choir member Peter Vardalos opened the pageant by reciting an inspiring introduction to "O Come, Emanuel." At the conclusion, while the children exited, the Choir sang an upbeat version of "Go Tell It on the Mountain" accompanied by Terry Seretis on the piano.

On Christmas Eve, the Cathedral Choir was present to sing the responses during Divine Liturgy. This year, Protoypsaltis George Duvall was assisted at the chanter stand by seminary student Alexander Eliades as well as the Byzantine Choir.

To cap off the year and in celebration of the Lord's birth, the Cathedral Choir and their guests gathered at Christo's Ristorante to enjoy a delicious meal together. It was a fun time for all as we look to another rewarding year in the music ministry. And our humble thanks to all the parishioners whose words of encouragement and financial support have blessed our efforts!

Have a Blessed New Year!

St. Nectarios Books & Beyond

By Patsy Harris

St. Nectarios Books and Beyond features many books, particularly with the Holy Bible and the writings of the Holy Fathers and Saints, and for both adults and children. There are books for those new to our faith and for those well-acquainted with Orthodoxy. However, we must move beyond knowing about Christianity into actively participating in the life Our Lord God and Savior Jesus Christ desires for us. The other items in the bookstore provide the tools we need for worship and the daily life skills needed to follow Him. Please do visit us, and become a more active part of this Ministry. We encourage our parishioners to share their thoughts and ideas with us, so that we may serve you better. We offer our heart-felt prayers that 2019 will bring many new blessings to each of us at Holy Trinity!

It is only proper that we begin a new year with many Holy Days:

January 1st—St. Basil the Great; Circumcision of the Lord: “Basil” means “kingly” and St. Basil is greatly respected in the Orthodox Church for establishing and setting rules for monasticism, formalizing the Divine Liturgy, establishing hospitals, orphanages, and homes for the aged.

Also January 1st—Christ’s Circumcision is very rich in spiritual context. In submitting to the law of circumcision Our Lord “... wants both to humiliate Himself in His flesh and to mark that He is the fullness and completion of the Old Covenant.” (The Year of Grace of the Lord by a Monk of the Eastern Church)

January 6th—Holy Theophany: after Pascha and Pentecost, this is the greatest Feast of our Church. Commemorating Christ’s Baptism in the Jordan, in this Feast, as the Troparion of the day tells us, “the worship of the Trinity was made manifest” with the voice of God the Father, Christ, the Son in the flesh, and the Holy Spirit in the form of the dove confirming for us Christ’s Divinity and His humanity.

January 7th—St. John the Baptist: the name means “God is gracious.” There are more than fifty saints who bear this name! St. John the Baptist was “sent to prepare the way of the Lord.” He is memorialized several times throughout the year, but especially on this day after Holy Theophany.

January 17th—St. Anthony the Great: although the meaning of the name is uncertain, it is generally held to mean “beyond praise.” St. Anthony the Great (250-356) is renowned as the “Patriarch of Monastic Life.”

January 18th—Athanasios & Cyril, Patriarchs of Alexandria: Athanasios means ‘immortal.’ St. Athanasios (293-373) was a participant in the Council of Nicaea (325) and Patriarch of Alexandria. Cyril means “lordly.” There are several Cyrils who are saints, but this Cyril is an Egyptian who was a great writer, teacher, and later Patriarch of Alexandria.

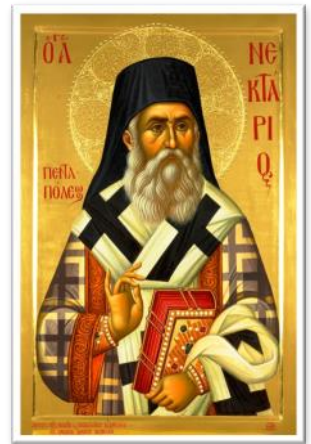

January 25th—Gregory the Theologian: the name means “watchful, vigilant.” St. Gregory the Theologian is one of the four great doctors of the Church, who fought against paganism and heresy, became Patriarch of Constantinople and unified the Church so it could withstand all assaults.

January 30th—Three Hierarchs: these three are St. Basil the Great, St. Gregory the Theologian, and St. John Chrysostom. “Their teaching and their lives constitute very sure standards of ‘orthodoxy’ [and] ...express the Byzantine tradition at its most accessible.” (The Year of Grace of the Lord)

Have a blessed New Year and please visit us soon!

If St. Nectarios Books and Beyond can assist in any way, please contact us at:

Narthex Ministry

What YOU Can Do to Make Visitors Feel Welcome

Have you noticed new faces in our Narthex, Sanctuary, and Speros Center? We've had many visitors stop by lately. Some are Orthodox and visiting from other Parishes, some are returning to Orthodoxy after a long time away, and some are coming to check out Orthodoxy for the very first time. No matter how they come to us, let's make sure we say Hello!

"Welcome! I don't believe we've met yet. My name is (your name)" is a great start. Offer to walk with them down to Coffee Hour. Ask them to sit with you. A personal connection goes far!

Narthex Ministry Expansion

We are looking to expand our Narthex Ministry on Sundays.

Currently, between 5-8 people are in the various spots in the Narthex on any given Sunday. We want to expand the number of monthly volunteers to 12 each Sunday.

All twelve will not be in the Narthex—we are hoping to place parishioners in various spots in the Sanctuary and outside.

Interested in joining one of the teams? We need you!

Also, if you are a medical professional and willing to step forward in an emergency, we ask that you let a Narthex Ministry team member know that you are in attendance and where you are sitting.

OPA—Orthodox Parents Association

Cindy Kyprianou, President

OPA families had a wonderful Day of Christmas Cheer on December 1st! Our children made gingerbread houses, decorated cookies, and made Christmas crafts. St. Nicholas came to visit, brought goodies, and read a Christmas story. The Jr. & Sr. GOYA later put ornaments on the Christmas tree and helped Father to decorate the Cathedral. It was absolutely a joyous morning!

Thanks to Diana Scaccia for hosting the Jr. & Sr. GOYA Christmas party on Dec. 14th! Our GOYAnS enjoyed a great game night and white elephant gifts exchange together.

In January, Hope & Joy (K-5) will have their first meeting of the year on Friday the 11th, 6-8pm. Our Parents' Happy Hours will be at the same time. Our Jr. & Sr. GOYA are scheduled to help the children with special needs at the Miracle League AZ to play two games of baseball on January 26th, 8:45-11am. Please follow our OPA newsletter for details.
