Message from Father Apostolos

Holy Communion and Intimacy

For years I kept in my desk, as a bit of comic relief, a postcard advertisement for "Do-It-Yourself Communion" which featured grape juice in a small plastic coffee creamer container with an oyster cracker sealed under a cellophane top. I often joked with my brother clergy about vending machines in the narthex stocked with "DIY Communion," little realizing how near the truth this joke would one day become.

As the shadow of the COVID-19 Virus fell across the world, Orthodox communities in every land scrambled to protect their faithful members. Ultimately, Patriarchs, Hierarchs, and Holy Synods decided that to preserve the lives of Orthodox Christians public worship in our parishes must be temporarily suspended.

Many 'creative' ideas were advanced regarding how to offer Holy Communion to the faithful until our Holy Eparchial Synod spoke more declaratively against such innovations. "Drive-through communion" and long forgotten modes of distribution were seriously discussed and grave concern was expressed about "getting communion," or even "getting MY communion."

And though I, too, briefly explored such options, I could not bring myself to inflict such damage on Holy Orthodoxy's hard-won Eucharistic theology as expressed in our understanding of Holy Communion as a shared expression of sacred intimacy in the Body of Christ and not as a commodity or a "thing" one "gets."

On Holy Wednesday evening of Holy Week, remembrance is made of the Mystical Supper and of the inauguration of the Divine Office of the Eucharist. St. Luke records that Jesus "reclined at the table and the apostles with Him. And He said to them, 'I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer, for I say to you, I shall never again eat it until it is fulfilled in the Kingdom of God.'" (Lk. 22:14-16)

He continues; "And when He had taken a cup and given thanks ("evxaristia," hence, "Eucharist") He said; 'Take this and share it among yourselves; for I say to you I will not drink of the vine from now on until the Kingdom of God comes.'" (v.17-18) The intimacy of this moment of sharing the Passover meal defines the context for the offering of the Holy Gifts and the "institution" of the Mystical Supper. Here, we witness fellowship among brothers and friends, a fulfilled longing to share the Passover Seder together, and a promise by Jesus Christ to fast from any future feast until it could again be shared together.

This theme of Holy Communion as an expression of intimacy appears in the prayers we offer before approaching the Common Cup; "You have beguiled me with yearning O Christ..." to which Jesus replies; "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer," ... "and by Your divine love You have changed me. But do burn away my sins in ethereal flame and let me be filled with sheer delight in You..."

In the closing words of the New Testament, the intimacy of the wedding feast between Christ the Bridegroom and The Church as His Bride is invoked. "Let us rejoice and be glad and give glory to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb has come and His bride has made herself ready. And it was given to her to clothe herself in fine linen, bright and clean, for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints." (Rev. 19:7-9)

Correctly understood, and reinforced in numerous ways in Holy Scripture, in hymns, in sacred writings, expressed in the holy canons that regulate public worship, and in the overall context and liturgical structure of the Holy Eucharist, we perceive the immutable truth that the reception of the Holy Gifts cannot be isolated from the true act of "communion" which makes their offering possible.

Simply stated, just as human intimacy finds its proper context in the vessel of sacramental wedded union, so too does the reception of the Body and Blood of Christ find its proper context in the sacred assembly of the Church. The experience of Holy Communion begins with the invocation "Blessed is the Kingdom..." and is 'suspended' with the final blessing "Through the prayers of our Holy Fathers..." I say 'suspended' because we merely step into the ceaseless worship of the Heavens when we celebrate the Eucharist.

This sacred intimacy which is expressed on two planes, the material and the mystical, must be shared in purity and in a manner that embraces and strengthens the underlying bond. Physical intimacy in marriage becomes nourishing only when the bond is healthy and true eros and agape are present. In the absence of love, physical intimacy becomes destructive.

The spiritual intimacy that is shared in the Eucharistic Chalice must reflect the beauty and integrity of the New Covenant relationship that brought it into being. Communicants must never approach the cup on their own terms, that is to say, diminishing the Body and Blood of Christ to a commodity to which they are "entitled." To do so is to invite grave danger.

St. Paul was forced to address the abuses present in the Eucharistic Assembly of the Corinthian Church where drunkenness and disorderly conduct was disrupting the Agape Feast. After rebuking their particular misdeeds and recalling the words of Institution uttered by Christ at the Mystical Supper, he writes;

"Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner shall be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself and let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For he who eats and drinks, eats and drinks judgment to himself if he does not judge the body rightly. For this reason, many among you are sick and a number sleep (or have died). But if we judge ourselves rightly, we should not be judged." (1 Cor. 11:27-31)

These passages inform the Church's application of canonical correction to penitents in removing them from the Chalice for a period of time, not to punish them but to protect them from harming themselves by partaking unworthily as we are reminded in the prayer; "Beholding the deifying blood, O man, be awe-stricken for it is a fire that burns the unworthy," and "How shall I who am unworthy dare to enter the bridal chamber since my garment is not a wedding garment and being bound up I shall be cast out by the angels."?

The reception of the Holy Gifts in the context of the sacred assembly which - alone - confers "communion" in the context of koinonia must always reflect the communicants' fealty to the New Covenant relationship with God. The Holy Gifts are not magical but mystical. They reflect the consummation of a wedding bond lived out between the communicant and Christ. They do not confer it.

Likewise, the celebration of the Sacred Mysteries of Christ, for which we deeply yearn after so long a time away, are not magical incantations. Excessive attention to the rubrics and translations advanced by "specialists" unveil a rationalistic misunderstanding of the rite itself. The Divine Liturgy isn't an incantation that must be correctly recited and invoked for the "spell" to work.

Beloved, we will have been away from one another for nearly three months when we at long last reassemble to celebrate our reunion and our common bond in Christ. Who among us could have imagined such a lengthy period of exile was possible? And who can seriously doubt that such a worldwide disruption has God's fingerprints on it, granted to humanity as a challenge to unify us and to cure the many wicked tendencies which afflict us?

The path toward healing, toward reclaiming what we have surrendered in obedience and out of compassion to the suffering, will be marked by humility, gentleness, and compassion. We must be slow to speak, quick to embrace, (from a safe distance) considerate of others before ourselves, and content to leave the political contentiousness and endless conspiracies of those who yet walk in darkness behind us.

And we will experience true Communion in that moment, not as a 'thing' to which we are entitled, not as an expression of individual pietism, but as an expression of mutual love in the fellowship of the redeemed who gather for the Heavenly Banquet to receive the Bread of Heaven. For this we greatly long! Each of us can echo the sentiment "I have earnestly longed to share this Paschal meal with you!"

May our reunion be marked by a spirit of gratitude, meekness, and peace.

Stewardship

By Sandy Meris

WHAT DOES STEWARDSHIP LOOK LIKE DURING A GLOBAL PANDEMIC?

Right now, everything is different. Businesses, schools and churches have been closed. Airports are empty. People are staying in their homes and when we do venture out to the grocery store, most people are wearing face coverings. We have never experienced anything like this in our lifetime.

It has been more than two months since we have come together as a church family for Sunday worship, coffee hour, a ministry meeting or gathering or even one of our parish luncheons. Although we have been physically distant, hopefully this hasn't stopped us from still connecting with one another.

Father Apostolos and Alexander Eliades quickly made the transition to live stream Divine Liturgy. Dozens of our parishioners have been watching, participating from a distance through Facebook. Certainly, it's not the same, but somehow, we still feel a connection to one another through social media.

Hopefully we have all remained in close connection with family and friends. Helping one another with grocery shopping, picking up supplies, perhaps delivering a meal. This has forced us to think differently about our connection to one another. And hopefully, it has made us better appreciate our relationships, our health and our church. And it has created yet another aspect of what stewardship is and what it can be. Not only taking care of our church, but also taking care of one another.

Slowly the restrictions are beginning to loosen and soon we will be able to be back together again. And when that happens, hopefully we will no longer take the simple things for granted like attending church on a Sunday morning and catching up with our friends during coffee hour. We look forward to the day, very soon, when our Holy Trinity family will reunite!

STEWARDSHIP FACTS:

Did you know?...

- ◆ In order to be a member in good standing, you must fill out a new Pledge Card every year and make a contribution toward that pledge.
- ◆ Currently, stewardship only covers about half of Holy Trinity's monthly expenses. The shortfall is made up from Festival proceeds and rental income.
- ◆ In 2019 the average pledge per family was more than $1,200 per year.

Welcome Back!

Welcome Back to Holy Trinity Cathedral!

It is with great pleasure that we announce the reopening our beloved Cathedral! We do so, using an abundance of caution and copious preparations to keep everyone safe and healthy. Fully reopening the parish will occur utilizing a “phased-in” approach. We will begin at Phase 1 allowing for no greater than 100 participants. The phases of reopening are being conducted in accordance with guidelines from our Metropolis as well as the CDC, Arizona Department of Health, and the Arizona Governor’s Office.

Divine Liturgy services will resume at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday, June 14, 2020.

(There will not be Orthros services during Phase 1)

A second Divine Liturgy will be held on Fridays beginning Friday, June 19th at 9:00 a.m. This service is reserved for our parishioners who are age 65 or older, are immune compromised, or have underlying health conditions. All attendees will be asked to sign-in in the Narthex. This is required by the Metropolis so that we may contact people should there be an outbreak.

Here is What to Expect...

Prior to Your Arrival:

- Registration is Required – We can only allow 100 people inside the church per service. Therefore, each family must make a reservation to secure a seat by going to: <https://tinyurl.com/HTLiturgy> and filling out the required information. Each family member’s name who will be attending church must be included on the list.

We have reserved a few spots only for our parishioners who are not comfortable with technology. Those people may call the church office at 602-264-7863 and speak with Diana Camacho or leave a message on the machine to secure their reservation. Please include first and last name, how many people from your household will be attending, the date of the church service, and a return phone number.

For the Sunday services registrations must be made no later than noon on the Friday preceding each Sunday. Reservations may be made for only one Sunday at a time. Only family members residing in the same household will be seated together.

- Stay Home if Ill – If you or a family member is feeling ill, please stay home. Also, please stay at home if you or a family member in your household has been exposed to someone diagnosed with Covid19 within the past 2 weeks.
- Take Your Temperature – Please take your temperature at home before coming to church. Epidemiologists recommend anyone with a temperature of 100.4 degrees or higher stay home.

Desert Springs June & July 2020*

- Bring a Face Covering or Mask – We ask each person to arrive with your own face covering or mask and it must be worn upon entering the church and the entire duration of being inside the Cathedral.
- Download the Divine Liturgy – All service books, prayers and bulletins have been removed from the pews. For those who wish to follow along, please download the Liturgy www.goarch.org/chapel. The Liturgy can be downloaded in either Greek or English.

Upon Your Arrival:

- Social Distance Greetings – Please remain at least 6’ away from others at all times. This includes 6’ to the front, back, left, and right. Please refrain from embracing or touching other parishioners. Remember, this is not just for your safety but for the safety of your fellow parishioners.
- Please use Hand Sanitizer – Please use hand sanitizer prior to entering the Cathedral. Hand sanitizer stations will be available for use outside the Cathedral.
- Follow the Signs – Signage will direct you once you arrive. Please follow the signs and arrows placed on the ground and throughout the Cathedral.
- Let us Guide You – Your Parish Council members will be on duty to seat, guide, and direct you. Please follow directions and instructions from your Parish Council members. Remember to please be patient as we will be seating families together using social distancing measures.
- Candles and Donations – You can still light a candle in the Narthex and leave a donation, however, candles will be distributed to parishioners by the Parish Council members. Other donations or stewardship contributions can be placed in these baskets as well.
- Venerating Icons – Upon entering the Narthex, please refrain from using physical contact when venerating the icons.

During Liturgy:

- No Trays Will be Passed – We will not pass the offering trays during the service. We ask parishioners who wish to make their regular stewardship contribution or wish to make a donation, to please do so in the candle offering trays in the Narthex.
- Communion – Communion will be offered at the very end of Liturgy for those who are prepared to and wish to receive. As always, rows will be released by Parish Council members. Parishioners are asked to stay a minimum of 6’ apart from one another while waiting in line to receive communion. Please remain on the lines that are placed on the carpet down the center aisle. As you approach the chalice, place your hands over your chest, tilt your head back and Father will distribute communion in your mouth. Do not touch the spoon or cloth. Once you receive communion you will be directed by the Parish Council to one of the side doors to exit the church and proceed to your car. Please be prepared to not return to your pew once you receive communion. Antidoran will not be distributed during Phase 1. Parishioners who do not receive communion will be instructed to leave following communion through the side doors.

- Using the Restrooms – Please use caution when using the restrooms in the Cathedral as they are small and have tight quarters. Please thoroughly wash hands and keep 6’ apart from others.
- Paperless Worship – All Liturgical books and prayers have been removed from the pews. Please feel free to follow along with the Liturgy on your cell phone.

Upon Your Departure:

- Limit Gathering – Upon the completion of Liturgy, please refrain from gathering in the Narthex or outside the Cathedral.
- No Coffee Hour – Coffee Hour will not be held during Phase 1.

Please remember that this is temporary! We understand that it is difficult and feels strange conducting Liturgy in this manner. Let us remember that this too shall pass and hopefully soon we will all return to our church without any restrictions. Until then we ask for your patience and compliance. And we encourage you to find ways to have fellowship with family and friends in a safe and healthy manner.

May God Keep and Protect Us All!

Cleaning Regimen

HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL IS PREPARED FOR YOUR RETURN

We have been hard at work preparing for Holy Trinity's reopening. Father Apostolos, Alexander Eliades, the Parish Council, and our caretakers together have implemented a cleaning regimen to keep our parishioners as safe as possible as we begin Phase 1 of reopening the Cathedral.

Below are the steps we are taking to thoroughly and continuously clean and sanitize the Cathedral following the Centers for Disease Control guidelines and using Environmental Protection Agency approved disinfectants.

Prior to and after each service the following items are sanitized:

- Doorknobs and door handles
- Countertops
- Light switches
- Wood surfaces on the pews
- Kneelers in the pews
- Cathedral bathrooms
- Drinking fountains
- Floors in Narthex
- Altar

We have taken the following additional steps to ensure your safety:

- Change HVAC air filters more frequently
- Removed all Liturgy books, Bibles, and laminated prayers from the pews
- Removed all paper bulletins, Stewardship cards, and other brochures from the Narthex
- Placed blue tape down the aisles of the Cathedral in 6' intervals to keep the appropriate distance during Communion
- Put HEPA filters in vacuum cleaners
- Obtained surgical masks as back-ups for those who show up without a mask
- Obtained hand sanitizer station

We emphasize that parishioners who are at a higher risk for severe illness from COVID-19 (65 years or older, have underlying medical conditions, been exposed to the virus, or are experiencing symptoms) are strongly encouraged to refrain from attending services.

Bible Study

From Father:

I will begin offering our weekly Bible Study on Saturday mornings at 10:00am on Zoom. Zoom is a video conferencing website that allows for large gatherings to hold meetings on line. The details are provided below.

Trust me! If I can figure this out, ANYONE can! All you need to do is to go to this website <https://www.zoom.us/>

Once there, you will notice at the top of the screen and to the right the Join a meeting option. Click the option and enter the Meeting ID 360-179-3722 and Password HTPhoenix

Zoom allows us up to 100 participants. If we actually have 100 participants I will probably faint and be unable to conduct the study! :)

We will be examining the Magnificat of the Virgin Mary as recorded in St. Luke's Gospel and comparing it with the very similar canticle of praise offered by Hannah in the first book of Samuel. It should be informative and fun!

God bless and keep you all well, protected under the shelter of His wings, and filled with the peace that comes with knowing that He watches over us!

In Christ,

Rev. Father Apostolos Hill | Dean

St. Nectarios Books & Beyond

By Rita Papaspyrou

During the month of June we celebrate the Feast of Holy Pentecost.

The Feast of Holy Pentecost is celebrated each year on the fiftieth day after the Great and Holy Feast of Pascha (Easter) and ten days after the Feast of the Ascension of Christ. The Feast is always celebrated on a Sunday.

The Feast commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles on the day of Pentecost, a feast of the Jewish tradition. It also celebrates the establishment of the Church through the preaching of the Apostles and the baptism of the thousands who on that day believed in the Gospel message of salvation through Jesus Christ. The Feast is also seen as the culmination of the revelation of the Holy Trinity.

The Apostles of our Lord were gathered together in one place. Suddenly, a sound came from heaven like a rushing wind, filling the entire house where they were sitting. Then, tongues of fire appeared, and one sat upon each one of Apostles. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages as directed by the Spirit (Acts 2:1-4).

The Bible records that on that day about three thousand were baptized. Following, the book of Acts states that the newly baptized continued daily to hear the teaching of the Apostles, as the early Christians met together for fellowship, the breaking of bread, and for prayer. Many wonderful signs and miracles were done through the Apostles, and the Lord added to the Church daily those who were being saved (Acts 2:42-47).

In the icon of Pentecost we see the fulfillment of the promise of the Holy Spirit, sent down upon the Apostles who will teach the nations and baptize them in the name of the Holy Trinity. Here we see that the Church is brought together and sustained in unity through the presence and work of the Holy Spirit, that the Spirit guides the Church in the missionary endeavor throughout the world, and that the Spirit nurtures the Body of Christ, the Church, in truth and love.

Music Ministry

by Terri Alexon, Director

*Sing to God, sing praises to His name;
Lift up a song for Him who rides through the deserts.*
Psalm 68:4

As summer approaches, the Music Ministry is usually looking forward to vacations and a break from weekly rehearsals, but this year is quite different! Now, the Cathedral and Byzantine Choirs are looking forward to getting clearance to gear up to sing once again as a group.

One such choir member missing singing in church is Marianna Kaneris. Music has been a large part of Marianna's life ever since the age of six when she began playing piano. "I have fond memories of listening to the choir sing during services, especially during Holy Week and Easter when I was growing up," she said.

Singing first soprano, Marianna has participated in several different choirs throughout the years and enjoys singing in the Holy Trinity Cathedral Choir, contributing her vocal experience for others now as an adult.

Marianna commented that she feels fortunate to be part of the Holy Trinity community and for the opportunity to have grown up participating in youth choir, dance, Sunday School and Greek School. "It's nice to be able to give back to my parish community in the ways I can," she added.

Currently, Marianna is a graduate student at Arizona State University studying psychology. Aside from music, her hobbies include drawing, painting, and cooking. She also loves being outdoors and spending time with friends and family. "My Orthodox faith, culture and Greek heritage are very important to me," she said. "I treasure the opportunities I've had to travel back to Greece and maintain my roots and connection."

Would you or your child like to create wonderful memories and join in the choral fellowship like Marianna? If so, please venture up to the loft when the church is open for worship or send an email to htphxmusicdirector@gmail.com.

And by the way, did you know singing is praying TWICE?

Sunday School

Submitted by Kalli Schneider

Hello from all of us here at Holy Trinity Sunday School ministry!

First of all, we would like to say to all of our wonderful Holy Trinity families and children that we miss you so much. We miss seeing all of your children's smiles and laughs. We miss seeing them walking (or running!) down the hallways. We miss sneaking a wave to your children during Liturgy as we pass by each other. We miss their questions and comments as we talk with them and teach them about our Orthodox faith. And we look forward to doing that all again when we reconvene and it is safe to return to our classrooms and be together!!!

With this strange and unprecedented situation that we are in, we have been given many gifts as well. We have been given the time to pause and reflect. We have been given the time to pray about our past, present and future. We have been given the gift to reset and re-energize.

Our Sunday School ministry is taking advantage of those gifts with both the help of our Lord and our clergy and administration. Our parish is so blessed to have Father Apostolos and Pastoral Assistant Alexander Eliades reach out to us and to our children in our homes with the many Facebook, Zoom and Instagram lessons and liturgical services. Father will be continuing Summer Sunday School through Zoom every Sunday. Hope and Joy will meet on ZOOM at 1pm and Jr/Sr GOYA will meet at 2pm. (Meeting ID: 360 179 3722, password is HTPhoenix) Alexander will continue his wonderful reflections about Orthodoxy and our Saints every Tuesday and Thursday on Facebook.

During this shutdown, Holy Trinity has continued to communicate and come together on ideas about your children's Sunday School ministry. There are many ideas on what can we do better, what works, what doesn't work, what will help your children grow in our Orthodox faith in the love and light of Christ.

I also have had time to reflect and pray about the past. I have been involved with Sunday School since our oldest child, John was 3 years old. He is now 24 years old and our 5th & 6th grade Sunday School teacher. I have to say that I have received many more gifts from being involved in this ministry, our church and our faith than I have given. I have loved seeing the children in our parish, in our community grow into young adults that are now involved in our church. It truly is a rewarding ministry to be involved in. Our youth are our future. We hear it all the time. But as a parent of young adults, I SEE it! You will see it! Your children are our future Sunday School teachers, our future parish council members, our future choir, future chanters, ...I could go on and on. I remember a sermon years ago that rings true every day. Instead of saying or thinking "I have to teach Sunday School this Sunday" or "I have to prepare for the Christmas pageant", we replace one phrase "have to" with "GET TO". "I GET to teach Sunday School this Sunday" and "I GET to prepare for the Christmas pageant". I feel so blessed that I was given this gift to be a part of Holy Trinity's youth through Sunday School. So as I pray and think about the future, it is time for someone else to receive these beautiful gifts of "getting" to work with our youth. We are seeking out new Sunday School director/co-directors and teachers. I along with Father Apostolos and Pastoral Assistant Alexander will be working with our new directors and all of our Sunday School teachers, old and new. We will be working to enhance our curriculum and strengthen our ministry, allowing our children to grow even more in our Orthodox faith.

Sunday School is resetting and re-energizing and you can be a part of this Holy Trinity youth ministry. Sunday School currently has 7 teacher openings and 2 co-director openings! What an exciting time to get involved! Be a part of making Sunday School fresh and new for our most precious part of our parish, our community, our church family, our children! Father Apostolos and Alexander are working on refreshing our curriculum and we will all work together to make our Sunday School, your children's Sunday School inspiring. WE want to hear your kids say "I GET to go to Sunday School today!" Here are our opportunities for Sunday School for the 2020-2021 school year:

With the outbreak of COVID-19, my senior rowing season cancelled, and that showed me how important it is to be thankful for what you have, because you never know when life will throw you a curveball."

College

Staci Vaughn is graduating Summa Cum Laude from the University of Arizona with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice with a Minor in Spanish Language. Staci finished college in three years, with a 3.9+ GPA. Staci received the School of Government and Public Policy Distinguished Scholar Award, and Special Academic Achievement Award of the University of Arizona. While in college, she held an internship with the United States Attorney's Office. Staci plans to take a gap year to study and take the LSAT, apply to law school, and hopefully start law school next fall. Staci's future goals are to develop a successful career in criminal justice and continue her involvement with the Greek Orthodox Church.

"I have learned that the most important things in life are being around good energy, connecting with others, and having a strong faith. Life is what you make it, so why not make it fun!"

Staci's favorite quote is, "Work hard in silence and let your success make the noise." – Frank Ocean

From Pastoral Assistant Alexander Eliades

Hello Beloved Parishioners,

I hope this email finds you well and I know you're yearning to be back with your Church family. Father and I miss you all deeply and along with your Parish Council, are working constantly to reach the guidelines to bring us all together again.

As we head into these Summer months, we're switching our Youth Zoom calls to Sundays! We'll be meeting with Hope/Joy at 1pm and Jr. and Sr. Goya at 2pm (Meeting ID: 360 179 3722 and the Password is HTPhoenix). A reminder that watching Father's reflections as well as mine on Instagram and Facebook respectively is a great way to stay connected to your Church and Faith at this time. Please take the time to do so and afterwards talk about them with your family!

We know that this has been a difficult time and that watching the Live Stream is NO replacement for worshipping together in Church so we cannot wait to be reunited with you all.

Love in Christ,

Alexander Eliades

Pastoral Assistant, Holy Trinity Cathedral

Youth Online

A graphic for Zoom Meetings. On the left, a hand in a white sleeve and yellow tie holds a laptop. The laptop screen displays the Zoom logo and the text "Holy Trinity Youth Groups" and "MEETINGS". To the right of the laptop, the text reads: "Summer Sunday School Zoom: EVERY SUNDAY Hope & Joy 1:00 pm JR & SR GOYA 2:00 pm Zoom ID: 360-179-3722 Password: HTPhoenix". At the bottom right, it says "Stay connected to your Church community and Christ!".

Thank you to those who have been joining our weekly youth Zoom calls!

In an effort to make meetings more accessible,
we're moving the zoom calls to
