Defiance

Sometimes the best replies are short ones. Such was the case on 28 October 1940 when the Prime Minister of Greece was handed an ultimatum to allow Italy's Fascist troops free passage through Greece's northern border. Perhaps it was that Ioannis Metaxas was grumpy at being wakened at 3:00 AM to receive Italy's Ambassador, Emanuele Grazzi, bearing such an odious dispatch. In all events, Metaxas crumpled the telegram and turning to his guest said "Alors, c'est la guerre!" or "Then, it is war!"

As word of this courageous retort swept through Greece, the citizens gathered in the streets and platias shouting "OXI!" (or "No" in Greek.) Her short-lived neutrality shattered. Greece committed herself to resisting the AXIS encroachment by whatever means at her disposal. The cost for Greece's intransigence would be bloody.

Pilgrims visiting the beautiful Monastery of "The Great Cave," in Patras can spy the large white cross at the top of the mountain upon which the monastery rests. It was from this spot that the Abbott and the brotherhood were hurled to their deaths by a German SS Division intent on wreaking revenge in a bloody reprisal raid into the Peloponnisos.

The picturesque town of Kalavrita, 87 kms away, is the site of a further atrocity meted out by the SS. On 13 December 1943, 696 boys and men were assembled as if departing for a work detail. Instead, they lined up along the hillside and slaughtered where they stood. It was my honor to conduct a memorial service with the priest of the parish in Kalivrita when I visited these sacred grounds in 2004. Venerating the blood-stained prayer book the priest was holding as he fell with the other victims was a sobering experience.

The ferocity of the resistance to the Fascist's invasion of Crete in the spring of 1941 was so stiff and the losses so daunting for the Germans, that Hitler never again attempted an airborne assault and an entire German Army Group was needed to pacify the Island throughout the war. After this display of tenacity, British Prime Minister Winston Churchill would state to the House of Commons: "The word heroism I am afraid does not render the least of those acts of self-sacrifice of the Greeks, which were the defining factor in the victorious outcome of the common struggle of the nations, during WWII, for the human freedom and dignity. If it were not for the bravery of the Greeks and their courage, the outcome of WWII would be undetermined."

And it all began with the cry of "no" resounding in the streets.

Hellenes can look back with pride on these epic events now fast receding into the mists of time, though God forbid that they should be forgotten. Tyranny and bondage can never be suffered to flourish. Larger nations cannot be free to trample the rights of smaller ones. The powerful and wealthy cannot be allowed to dispossess the poor. And while this elemental truth is easily understood in a martial or material sense, it is no less true when applied to our interior lives.

When Jesus announces the beginning of His earthly ministry in His boyhood Synagogue of Nazareth, He opened the Torah to the Prophecy of Isaiah and read "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord."

Writing to his Hebrew brethren, St. Paul describes the accomplishment of Jesus' mission; "Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself (Jesus) likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage."

This theme of freedom from tyranny and bondage is remembered every time the Holy Gifts are offered by the priest before the Divine Liturgy in the prayer, "By Your crucifixion, O Christ, tyranny was abolished, the power of the enemy was nullified, for it was neither man nor an angel, but the Lord Himself who saved us. Glory to You, O Lord."

This Orthodox Christian Faith we hold is not for the timid and faint of heart. Ioannis Metaxas could have shrugged and gone back to his bed 71 years ago, content to kiss the chains that Greece's oppressor would only too happily have forged for the Greek people. Had he done so, their mettle would not have been tested and their memory not become synonymous with stubborn courage in the face of insurmountable odds.

In the same vein, Jesus upon hearing the news of the beheading of St. John the Baptist, remarked; "The Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence and the violent take it by force." Jesus reminds us that the quest for eternal salvation requires energy, ascesis, and sacrifice. Those who will ultimately gain the crown of Life will be those who persevere in the face of fierce opposition to the day-to-day living out of the Orthodox Christian Faith.

It is said that "fortune favors the bold." May that same spirit of holy boldness which infused the Greeks of the War years be found in us as we surmount the challenges of living out the Holy Orthodox Faith in our homes and parishes in these trying times.

Parish Assembly Meeting Official Notice

If you see your name on the House of Stewards list on pages 31 & 32, you are a member in good standing and eligible to participate in our upcoming Parish Assembly meetings on Sunday, October 31st and Sunday, December 12th at the Speros Community Center, immediately following Divine Liturgy. Agenda and more information to follow.
To be a welcoming community sharing Christ’s love through faith and service

STEWARDSHIP TESTIMONIAL
The following is a testimonial from Alexander Harding, a recent convert to Orthodoxy and member of our Cathedral. Alexander is a member of the Stewardship Committee, leader of our Young Adult League ministry, member of AHEPA, and leads one of our Narthex teams. As a recent convert to Orthodoxy, Alexander shares with us his fresh and enthusiastic perspective on what stewardship means to him. Enjoy!

It has been just over one year since my Chrismation and official entry into the Greek Orthodox Church. I found the Orthodox Church through two avenues. The first was a project for my capstone class on Theology during my time at Grand Canyon University. The second, was the invitation by friends and now family I made while I lived in Colorado. The shock and awe that overwhelmed me during my first visit was inspiring, but that did not compare to the outreach, care, and welcoming by the folks at the parish in Denver. They brought me into the parish, taught me, and brought me to various gatherings and events where I could make meaningful connections with others and experience the love of Christ.

This, my brothers and sisters, is the true meaning of Stewardship. It is not all finances and meetings. Stewardship is outreach and warm-hearted fellowship with each other and those who seek out our faith and way of life for truth and purpose. Stewardship is the method in which we care for one another and for others. The stewardship that we mean to fund and participate in various programs and ministries is actually stewardship of our fellow Children of God.

As I have been cared for by so many Orthodox Christians in my time, so too do I mean to pay that sentiment forward. It is my duty that I use my time, efforts, and resources to tithe to the furthering of the Kingdom of God. This is the charge of ALL Christians. Our stewardship funds and keeps alive the Holy Church. Stewardship is the Holy Spirit moving in us to care for all God’s creation. Let us remember what Paul wrote to James:

“What good is it my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save them? Suppose a brother or a sister is without clothes and daily food. If one of you says to them ‘Go in peace; keep warm and well fed,’ but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it? In the same way, faith by itself, if not accompanied by action, is dead.” (James 2:14-17)

As a Christian, I am called to be better every day. To improve myself and extend the love of the Lord to everyone around me. We should always strive to better ourselves and we all have roles to play. Some find the courage to be priests, others serve in monastic life. Some still go on missionary travels or set up charities by which to advance the communities in which they live. Financially and practically, we are all called to participate in the service to the Kingdom of Heaven. Take part in ministry, join us in service in the Narthex, greeting all who walk through our doors. They are doors which welcome all who seek the Lord. Enroll your children in Sunday School. It is a time for our next generation to learn about Godly love and how to express it. Take part in all things the Church does, as all ministries support a higher purpose. Finally, consider financial support to the Church and all her ministries. These funds help to maintain and serve in a myriad of ways. Let us work together, care for one another, and bring the love of God to all in our lives.

“As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead” (James 2:26)
Endowment Fund

+ THE HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL ENDOWMENT FUND +

The Holy Trinity Endowment Fund was established in 1992 with an initial deposit of $2,000. The goal was to build the Endowment Fund whereby the interest and appreciation would one day provide sufficient income so Holy Trinity would no longer be totally dependent on an annual Festival to supplement stewardship income.

The Endowment Fund is obligated to preserve the donor’s contributions such that the principal will remain inviolate and be held in perpetuity by the Church. The funds are prudently managed by the investment committee, which reports to the Parish Council. The investment committee only approves withdrawals from the earnings and appreciation, over and above the donor’s contributions, and are used only to benefit Holy Trinity and its ministries.

Over the course of the past twenty-nine years the committee has held steadfast to this mission, and as a result, generous donors from our Church, desiring to leave a legacy in perpetuity for their family, have made contributions totaling $593,140.

This is your opportunity to put your lifetime thumbprint in the history of Holy Trinity Cathedral. We have been blessed by the generosity and foresight of the individuals and families listed on the next page. We benefit today from their kindness and vision. If your circumstances allow you to give a gift above and beyond your annual stewardship commitment, then please take this occasion to join the others in creating a legacy by pledging your gift to Holy Trinity Cathedral’s perpetual Endowment Fund. Gifts of $10,000 or more will be separately listed along with others who have reached that level.

Your gift, no matter the amount will be combined into the general endowment fund, and will be greatly appreciated.

We are extremely grateful to those who have made sacrificial donations for the perpetual benefit of Holy Trinity Cathedral

Chapter Focus on Local Charities

In an effort to engage our membership in the Philoptochos mission to ‘Help the poor, the destitute, the hungry, the aged, the sick, the unemployed, the orphaned, the imprisoned, the widowed, those with disabilities and the victims of disaster’, and to expand involvement locally, we include, as a new part of our monthly program, the opportunity for members to formally nominate and select charity recipients.

Bill Marianes, who assisted with the Cathedral’s “Why Statement”, reminds us that the more money extended out into our community, the more we will realize from the community back into our church.

The Chapter will accept nominations at each monthly meeting.

Important Festival Information

We are just days away from our Festival and there is much work to be done and so much to celebrate!

As most of you know there was discussion about whether or not to cancel our Festival again this year due to the recent uptick in Covid cases. It was important to all of us to find a way to move forward with our Festival and keep our parishioners and patrons as safe as possible. Your Parish Council met for nearly three hours and painstakingly discussed and gave thoughtful consideration to the situation at hand. Within our church family there are a variety of perspectives and positions on how to conduct our Festival. Even amongst our council members, there are differing opinions and perspectives. We understand everyone may not agree with the end result of the mitigation plan but we are asking for everyone’s support and cooperation in order to move forward with our Festival. It is important that we work together as a church family to follow through and execute these measures so that we can clearly publicize them to the public. The plan is outlined below. We look forward to another successful Original Phoenix Greek Festival. OPA!

2021 Greek Festival Mitigation Plan

Volunteers
- Those who are vaccinated will provide proof of your vaccination card to your booth leader. The booth leader will accept proof of vaccination and submit that to the Mitigation Team. The Mitigation Team will submit to Natalie who will create a spreadsheet to be filed in the church office.
- If not vaccinated, a negative Covid test 72 hours prior must be provided to your booth leader which will be submitted on the spreadsheet.
- Masks outside are strongly recommended and are available.
- Masks must be worn indoors by all volunteers.
- We will follow Arizona Department of Health regulations for food handlers which includes gloves and a food handler card.
- Volunteers are to immediately report to their booth leader should they feel ill and a decision will be made whether or not they can continue to work.
- Booth leaders will work together to communicate needs for additional staff if needed using GroupMe

Transportation
Masks are required on the buses from Charles Schwab to the Cathedral due to Federal Transportation Code requirements.

Distancing
- Physical distance between tables
- Move as many vendors outside as possible.
- Reduce the number of inside food lines from 4 to 3 to allow for less people inside the hall and create one way flow of traffic.

Sanitation
- Hand washing and sanitizing stations will be available throughout the Festival.

Mitigation Plan continued on page 11

Vendors
Will adhere to the same requirements as volunteers for masking and proof of vaccination or negative Covid test.

Signage for Patrons
- Masks are highly recommended and available
- If you are experiencing symptoms of Covid, we ask that you not enter the festival

THE LONGEST-RUNNING AND LARGEST ORIGINAL GREEK FESTIVAL IN THE VALLEY.
GOVERNOR DOUGLAS A. DUCEY

STATE OF ARIZONA

COMMENDATION

Be it known to all that I,
Douglas A. Ducey,
Governor of the State of Arizona,
do hereby offer my sincere recognition to

Phoenix Greek Festival

in celebration of their 60th Anniversary on October 8th - 10th.

Arizona was not yet the 48th state in 1909 when the first Greeks arrived in the dusty but bustling City of Phoenix, population 11,134. Ever since, the State of Arizona has had a booming population and recognition of Greek culture.

Thousands of Arizona residents come together to embrace Greek culture at this event. The Phoenix Greek Festival donates a portion of the proceeds and has benefitted a myriad of local charities.

On behalf of the citizens of Arizona, I offer my sincere appreciation for all you do for the community. Best wishes for many more years to come.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, done at the Capitol in Phoenix on this Twenty-Fourth day of September in the Year Two Thousand and Twenty-One.

Arizona Helping Hands

Holy Trinity is sponsoring a community-wide outreach project for AZ Helping Hands, an amazing organization that supports children in foster care. AZ Helping Hands provides essential needs for over 4000 children in foster care per year, which includes over 150,000 diapers per year. We are collecting diapers/pull-ups (all sizes) and wipes as well as new and gently used children’s clothing (sizes infant to 16 youth). We will also accept monetary donations which will assist the organization in purchasing supplies. (Checks made out to Arizona Helping Hands). You can place your donations in collection boxes which are set up in the Narthex, Church office, and James A. Speros Community Center.

For any questions, contact Dina Anagnostopoulos at dina.aggie@yahoo.com.
Additional information on AZ Helping Hands can be found at www.azhelpinghands.org.
Attention Organizations:

Please check the Organization Contacts listings on page 2 of this issue and confirm that the information is correct, including contact name. Email is the default contact type, but listings can be changed to texting or telephoning if preferred.

Small Group Ministry Meetings

"Where two or three are gathered in my name, there I am in their midst."
Matthew 18:20

Home-base Small Group Ministry has been a part of the Christian experience from the very beginning. St. Luke writes the the first Christians "met together in the Temple day by day and shared their meals together in different homes, sharing their food happily and freely." Personal relationships are the cornerstone of Christian life as we seek to imitate the love Christ has for us to the entire world.

Do you ever feel like the Cathedral is a bit large and you don't even know who the fellow parishioner is that that has sat in the pew across from you for 4 years and at this point you're too afraid to ask? Simply new to the parish and want to get to know others better?

Our Holy Trinity Cathedral is pleased to launch our own Home-based Small Group Ministry this fall to better facilitate these relationships in our parish family! Fellowship and relationship-building is the aim of this ministry as we share our love for and faith in Jesus Christ as Orthodox Christians.

We have a wonderful blueprint for our meetings that will make our times together wonderfully fruitful. Thank God, we already have four host families to get us started! Each group is free to establish its own meeting schedule and format as we get to know our newer parish members or expand our circle of friends. If you are interested in being a host or participating let us know! Training will be provided for leaders so have no fear to take on the task!

Music Ministry “Notes”
By Terri Alexon, Choir Director
National Church Music Sunday

Each year on the first Sunday in October, parishes across America celebrate National Church Music Sunday. This is a day we set aside to honor the contributions of clergy, chanters, choir directors, choir members, and other musicians, educators, and composers who serve or who have served in a parish music ministry. This commemoration was inaugurated in 1982 by His Eminence, Archbishop Iakovos, and has been re-affirmed by His Eminence, Archbishop Elpidophoros.

One of the most prolific and respected hymnographers of the Orthodox Church is St. Romanos the Melodist who is the patron saint of church musicians. He is credited with composing thousands of hymns that have enriched our worship services. The most well-known work of St. Romanos is the Kontakion hymn celebrating the Nativity of the Lord, “I Parthenos Simeron,” and the Akathist Hymn, which we still sing during Salutations services of Great Lent.

St. Romanos was a Syrian Christian who lived in the sixth century and was a convert to Orthodoxy from Judaism. He was ordained a deacon and served in the Church of Beirut. Unlike other hymnographers, St. Romanos wrote his hymns in simple language and produced a pleasant meter in the verse by the way he accented words, appealing to the hearts of the people. As a result, he was called “Glykofonos” or “Sweet Singer.” St. Romanos died on October 1st in 510 A.D.

As Orthodox Christians, we are thankful for the profound work of St. Romanos, who deserves to be recognized by all who sing and by all who listen to the beautiful and inspiring hymnology of our services.

What YOU Can Do to Make Visitors Feel Welcome

Have you noticed new faces? We’ve had many visitors stop by lately. Some are Orthodox and visiting from other Parishes, some are returning to Orthodoxy after a long time away, and some are coming to check out Orthodoxy for the very first time. No matter how they come to us, let’s make sure we say Hello!

“Welcome! I don’t believe we’ve met yet. My name is (your name)” is a great start. Offer to socially distance walk with them to Coffee Hour. A personal connection goes far!
Masks Appreciated
In accordance with current CDC guidance, the Holy Trinity community strongly recommends that everyone (vaccinated and unvaccinated) wear face masks inside the Church. As a reminder, my mask is for you and yours is for me. In this time of high transmission of a highly infectious strain, we have the opportunity to show our Christianity and wear masks to make the community as safe as it can be. This is a time for the parishioners of Holy Trinity to practice empathy and compassion for our most vulnerable members—our youth, those not vaccinated, and those who are vaccinated but immune compromised (and therefore at elevated risk levels). Thank you!

Fr. Apostolos & Fr. Alexander

Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral—Phoenix, AZ
Saint Thomas the Holy and Glorious Apostle
Commemorated on October 6

The Holy and Glorious Apostle Thomas was born in the Galilean city of Pansada and was a fisherman. Hearing the good tidings of Jesus Christ, he left all and followed after Him. The Apostle Thomas is included in the number of the holy Twelve Apostles of the Savior.

According to Holy Scripture, the holy Apostle Thomas did not believe the reports of the other disciples about the Resurrection of Jesus Christ: “Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into His side, I will not believe” (John 20:25).

On the eighth day after the Resurrection, the Lord appeared to the Apostle Thomas and showed him His wounds. “My Lord and my God,” the Apostle cried out (John 20:28). “Thomas, being once weaker in faith than the other apostles,” says Saint John Chrysostom, “toiled through the grace of God more bravely, more zealously and tirelessly than them all, so that he went preaching over nearly all the earth, not fearing to proclaim the Word of God to savage nations.”

Some icons depicting this event are inscribed “The Doubting Thomas.” This is incorrect. In Greek, the inscription reads, “The Touching of Thomas.” In Slavonic, it says, “The Belief of Thomas.” When Saint Thomas touched the Life-giving side of the Lord, he no longer had any doubts.

According to Church Tradition, the holy Apostle Thomas founded Christian churches in Palestine, Mesopotamia, Parthia, Ethiopia and India. Preaching the Gospel earned him a martyr’s death. For having converted the wife and son of the prefect of the Indian city of Meliapur [Melipur], the holy apostle was locked up in prison, suffered torture, and finally, pierced with five spears, he departed to the Lord. Part of the relics of the holy Apostle Thomas are in India, in Hungary and on Mt. Athos.
Parish-wide Catechism
From Darkness to Light

How did one become a Christian in the Early Church? How did Church Fathers such as St. John Chrysostom, St. Cyril of Alexandria, and St. Ambrose of Milan teach the Orthodox Faith to new converts? What did the process of embracing Jesus Christ entail in the Apostolic Age and what were new converts expected to learn?

Anne Field has compiled these early Christian texts from the Holy Fathers into a single volume we will begin examining in September in our Parish-wide Catechism Ministry. The book can be found here or from other online sources. Fr. Apostolos will teach this weekly one-hour Zoom class Saturdays at 9:00am for 10 weeks starting in September.

Parish-wide Catechism is provided for our entire parish family, catechumens and seekers and for everyone eager to continually explore the Holy Orthodox Faith and to deepen their love for and knowledge of God! If you are interested, email Fr. Apostolos here!

Bible Study: Paul's Pastoral Letters to Timothy and Titus

When we list off the books of the New Testament we tend to fall off after we finish all the names of the cities that Paul wrote to: Corinthians, Thessalonians, Colossians, etc. but we do ourselves a great disservice to stop here. In the 3 "Pastoral Epistles" of Paul written to his disciples Timothy and Titus, we read unique and powerful letters about the Church, doctrine, and praxis. Paul's letters to two of his disciples who he loved so deeply grant us a different approach to understanding our faith than his other letters.

Join Fr. Alexander as we journey through these letters and learn what it means to, "preach the Word! Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching" (2 Tim. 4:2). Bible Study will take place every Monday evening at 7pm starting September 13 in a hybrid format. Fr. Alexander will be in the Church Office Conference Room while also offering a log-in on Zoom for those unable to join in person. If you are interested, email Fr. Alexander by clicking here!

We at Holy Trinity Greek School deeply believe in the importance of learning and preserving the Greek Language and Culture. The students attending Greek School for eight months (September-May) learn, write, and read with special attention to Greek Culture. Throughout the year the students are exposed to Greek Culture in many ways: they discuss religious holidays and customs, learn history, cooking regional traditional dishes, mythology, and arts. Our school presents three cultural programs during the year, one in December to celebrate the Holidays, one in March to honor the Greek Independence Day, and the last by the end of May during graduation. All programs are greatly enjoyed by our students and give them the opportunity to show off their abilities in cooking, poetry, music, and dancing, for all family and friends. If you are not familiar with our Greek School here is a brief outline of our program:

PK/K: The students learn the sound system and basic vocabulary in a fun and a happy environment. Children as young as four years old can start Greek School.

Level 1: This Level makes the transition from a purely speaking class to the reading and writing format. The students learn the Greek Alphabet, reading, writing, vocabulary and phrases leading to conversation.

Level 2: The students are able to read sentences, write and spell and use basic conversation. Grammar is introduced.

Level 3: Longer texts are introduced. The students study vocabulary, spelling and conversation. Grammar is taught in detail. Geography, history, mythology is a very important part in all levels.

όλα καλά; We hope you are fine and could get a bit of a holiday feeling during the past month(s). Greek School will be starting a new year of new activities, cooking lessons, new regions of Greece, and new songs to share with all of you!

Greek School starts September 22 at 5pm with a NEW Preschool class at 4pm.

We wish you a wonderful month of September, καλό μήνα!
