Conquering Chaos

Having just passed the Holiday Season we can feel a bit accomplished in that we simply survived the chaos of family, friends, dinners, parties, gift-getting, and all that comes in that wonderful time of year. In fact, when January and the New Year comes we traditionally set higher goals for ourselves perhaps because of how we ended the last year, we want to be better.

And yet inevitably, we are beset by the chaos of our life that we are beholden to: running from place to place, accomplishing tasks, and falling back into old habits.

Even though the Church New Year is celebrated on September 1, we have an important feast on January 6 to kick off our New Year as Americans: Theophany (also called Epiphany), the Baptism of Christ. One of the great feasts of our Church, it was originally celebrated more elaborately than Christmas as it signaled the beginning of Christ's ministry here on earth and the “showing of God” (hence Theophany) through the Voice of the Father, the Dove as the Holy Spirit, and the Son as Jesus Christ, God in Trinity.

But how is this a help in my life of chaos? We listen to the hymns and Psalms read and sung for this feast and we find the great significance of Christ entering the water, an ancient sign of chaos and destruction, and turning them back and subduing it. It is through accepting and actively bringing Christ into our lives that they can be changed. All other change is temporary and in the end, unhelpful. He is the only One who can enter into our chaos and destroy it and make us live as we were made to.

But how do we let Him into our life? Through what John the Baptist, His cousin, taught: repentance. “Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand!” We perhaps have many ideas in our head of what repentance truly is but it simply means a turning to God. It is not a one-time action, it is not only when I go to confession, or when I'm about to enter church and feel convicted. It is an entire way of life. It is acknowledging I constantly fall and put things other than God in God’s place but I have a desire to make Him truly Lord of my life. It is a life of tension, not perfection, not complacency, but a working towards God, no matter how slow that progress is in my life.

One of the issues when we make our New Year's Resolutions is we do not see instant results and so our desire to change wanes as the struggle continues. Our spiritual life will be the same: if we pray once we will not immediately walk on water. But a true struggle for God will not go unrewarded in this life and especially in the next. Our fight against the chaos of the world, it's pull and draw to be BUSY and ACCOMPLISH things as a sign of success is a heavy one. However, we're not made for accomplishments, we're made for Communion with God.

If we want to change truly it will take a herculean effort to do so but we need to do it with God who conquers the chaos of the waters and this world and brings us true life. This year of 2022, make it a year of repentance, a year of moving to God, however slowly, however discouraging it may feel, push, make a change. Bring Christ into your life through prayer, committing to attending the Divine Services (especially the services of Theophany!), fasting, and all the tools the Church gives us to become united to our God and conquer our chaotic life.
Well, it’s 2022 and the start of another year. Have you recovered from the holidays yet? Did you make your annual resolutions? Leading up to December 31 we were inundated with advertisements to influence our decisions with regard to health, weight loss, travel, personal relationships, jobs and family. But do we have to wait for the New Year to contemplate these aspects of our lives? What about a closer look at our spiritual lives and how we can make this year different, better, more impactful, and more meaningful.

Now is the time to make New Year's Resolutions that will enrich your spiritual life. Resolve to devoting more time in daily prayer. We are always in such a hurry, but consider dedicating a few precious moments at the beginning of your day to give thanks to God before you rush off into the world. Resolve to regularly attend Divine Services. Sunday morning seems like a great time sleep in, catch up on some reading, or even do laundry or yard work. But, when you think about the sacrifice the Lord made on the Cross, can we not offer a few hours from our day to join in prayer and partake of the Holy Sacraments?

Now is also the time to search our hearts, as stewards of the Church, and offer our very best gifts back to God. Christmas might be over, but the gift-giving continues! When it comes to being stewards, this is a lifelong commitment, and one that requires thoughtful and prayerful consideration.

Holy Trinity Cathedral is your home! Did you know that over 250 services are offered each year? Did you know that our ministries are providing for the spiritual formation of our parish family, through religious education programs offered from the youngest to the youngest-at-heart parishioners? For over 90 years, Holy Trinity Cathedral has been a beacon of our Orthodox faith in the Phoenix metropolitan area and, with your support, we will be able to offer even more in 2022 and beyond.

Our gifts don’t belong to us, they belong to the Lord. Can you imagine going to a birthday party for someone and bringing gifts for someone else? That’s exactly what we do at Christmas. But, we can change that by opening our hearts and digging deep within ourselves to offer a stewardship gift that is worthy of Christ and His Incarnation.

Make the most of the New Year as an integral part of our steward family. If you have submitted your pledge card – thank you! You may want to consider the amount you pledged as a minimum and strive to increase it. If you didn’t yet fill out your pledge card, we invite you to do that today. Being a steward is a blessing, so be sure to pass on what you have been blessed with and give it back to God, from whom all blessings flow!

In Christ's Love,

The Holy Trinity Endowment Fund was established in 1992 with an initial deposit of $2,000. The goal was to build the Endowment Fund whereby the interest and appreciation would one day provide sufficient income so Holy Trinity would no longer be totally dependent on an annual Festival to supplement stewardship income.

The Endowment Fund is obligated to preserve the donor's contributions such that the principal will remain inviolate and be held in perpetuity by the Church. The funds are prudently managed by the investment committee, which reports to the Parish Council. The investment committee only approves withdrawals from the earnings and appreciation, over and above the donor's contributions, and are used only to benefit Holy Trinity and its ministries.

Over the course of the past twenty-nine years the committee has held steadfast to this mission, and as a result, generous donors from our Church, desiring to leave a legacy in perpetuity for their family, have made contributions totaling $594,140.

This is your opportunity to put your lifetime thumbprint in the history of Holy Trinity Cathedral.

We have been blessed by the generosity and foresight of the individuals and families listed on the next page. We benefit today from their kindness and vision. If your circumstances allow you to give a gift above and beyond your annual stewardship commitment, then please take this occasion to join the others in creating a legacy by pledging your gift to Holy Trinity Cathedral's perpetual Endowment Fund. Gifts of $10,000 or more will be separately listed along with others who have reached that level.

Your gift, no matter the amount will be combined into the general endowment fund, and will be greatly appreciated.

We are extremely grateful to those who have made sacrificial donations for the perpetual benefit of Holy Trinity Cathedral

IRA Tax Savings

TAX SAVINGS FOR HOLY TRINITY MEMBERS WITH IRA’S

Seniors are required to take withdrawals from their IRA’s when they reach 72 years old.

Those withdrawals are fully taxable at ordinary income rates. There is a simple way to avoid that tax, and help Holy Trinity. When you have funds sent directly from your IRA to Holy Trinity, the tax is avoided. You do not get an additional deduction for this donation, because you have already saved the tax by your direct gift from your IRA.

You can make this process very simple by asking your IRA manager to issue a checkbook to you, then you simply write checks directly from Your IRA to Holy Trinity and any other charitable gifts you wish to make.

Iconography
By Joyce Bavlinka

One afternoon, while volunteering at the office at Holy Trinity Cathedral in Phoenix I received a call requesting photos of Robert Andrews’ work. Who was Robert J. Andrews? What had he done at the church? Off-hand, no one knew: we learned he was an iconographer. We knew that the faceted glass windows were done by another artist but who was Andrews? The caller thought there were mosaic icons in the Narthex of the church but that was not the case. After a call back we figured out that he might have done the six mosaic icons in front of the altar. Yes! That was it. But how come we didn’t know?? We learned Greek Orthodox iconographers usually stay rather anonymous, not signing their work. We were unable to find any of our church records relating to the screens because all the records from the 1970’s and 1980’s were lost to a flood.

The six icon screens that make up the altar screen at Holy Trinity Cathedral Phoenix were installed in the late 1970’s. Andrews’ photos of the work had faded and could not be used in the book. We were able to find a professional photographer, Pete Smith, who photographed the icons.

The President of the Parish Council, Paul Katsenes and I got to interview the iconographer who is co-authoring a book about his works. In our first phone interview we heard an absolutely delightful man who an encyclopedic memory of his works. We did a second interview and I made a commitment to assist in gathering information for his forthcoming book. Little did I know that that commitment would widen and that I would be interviewing Andrews for the next six months and preparing appendixes for the book.

Robert J. Andrews taught art education in public schools in Massachusetts for 18 years before he began his career reviving Byzantine iconography in the United States. During his 56-year career he designed and installed mosaic icons in 49 sites including 38 churches across the United States, Canada and in London, England. He has major work in 11 churches. His works depict the life of Christ, the Virgin Mary, the Apostles and the Saints. He works with Smalti glass from Italy, using a palette of 5,000 colors. Generally, each square foot of his mosaic contains approximately 400 pieces of thumb-nail sized glass.

He has covered two churches, Holy Trinity San Francisco and Transfiguration Church in Lowell, MA, entirely in iconography, one with over 8,000 sq. ft. His largest work is at Holy Trinity San Francisco; a 60’ dome depicting the largest face of Christ in the world and containing 3,400 square feet of mosaic. The face of Christ is 23 feet and his eye measures four feet. A supporting structure had to be installed to support the weight of the dome. His works in the apse of churches, that area behind the altar range from 300 square feet up to 600 square feet. His murals can range from 6’ x 12’ to 9’ x 12’ to 9’ x 20’.

Individual icons and murals cover the entry to churches, the church lobby/Narthex, the walls, domes, altars, apse (area behind/above altar), pillars, the faces of the choir lofts, ceilings, hallways, floors, as well as the exterior of churches. Individual icons range from 3’ x 7’ to 3’ x 9.’ His altar screens are made up of six to ten icons.

Overtime, I have interviewed him 15 times and consolidated the information gathered into a ‘Conversations’ essay, developed an inventory and listing of the 49 sites where his works are located, plus listing of websites where his works can be seen.

I have also worked with art research libraries and museums and am glad to announce that his work has been accepted by the Corning Museum of Glass and the Frick Art Research Library, two very prestigious art resources. In December 2021, he was enthusiastically accepted into the Phoenix Art Museum Library. The library contains 40,000 books and we donated two booklets detailing his work at Transfiguration Church in Lowell, MA, as well as a portfolio of about 125 pages, including references and photos of his work!!

Andrews is a devoted Greek Orthodox Church member. Each time he begins his work, he asks that Jesus guide his iconography. His work has been recognized by:

- Archbishop Iakovos of North and South America (1959-1996)
- Metropolitan Methodios of Boston
- Metropolitan Gerasimos of San Francisco

Ivakovos designated him an approved iconographer in 1970, recognizing his work at Lowell and his rendition of the Resurrection at Holy Trinity San Francisco. He called the mosaic at San Francisco “one of the finest examples of art we have seen in any of our Churches in the Western Hemisphere.”

Andrews’ book about his career that will be coming out next year and I will announce when it is published and where to get it. In the meantime, you can view some of his works at www.rjaicons.com. Check out videos of his work in the “San Francisco” section and the “Catalog” section details the location of all works.

It has been an amazing spiritual experience to work with Bob Andrews and his daughter, Alexis, and his friends and supporters, as well as the librarians and archivists who have supported this work.

If you have any questions or want additional info, call the church office and leave a message for me and I will return your call. If you are interested in helping with the inventory of his works let me know.

Small Group Ministry Meetings

"Where two or three are gathered in my name, there I am in their midst."
Matthew 18:20

Home-base Small Group Ministry has been a part of the Christian experience from the very beginning. St. Luke writes the the first Christians "met together in the Temple day by day and shared their meals together in different homes, sharing their food happily and freely." Personal relationships are the cornerstone of Christian life as we seek to imitate the love Christ has for us to the entire world.

Do you ever feel like the Cathedral is a bit large and you don’t even know who the fellow parishioner is that has sat in the pew across from you for 4 years and at this point you're too afraid to ask? Simply new to the parish and want to get to know others better?

Our Holy Trinity Cathedral is pleased to launch our own Home-based Small Group Ministry this fall to better facilitate these relationships in our parish family! Fellowship and relationship-building is the aim of this ministry as we share our love for and faith in Jesus Christ as Orthodox Christians.

We have a wonderful blueprint for our meetings that will make our times together wonderfully fruitful. Thank God, we already have four host families to get us started! Each group is free to establish its own meeting schedule and format as we get to know our newer parish members or expand our circle of friends. If you are interested in being a host or participating let us know! Training will be provided for leaders so have no fear to take on the task!

During the reign of the Emperor Alexius Comnenus (1081-1118), a controversy arose in Constantinople among men learned in Faith and zealous for virtue about the three holy Hierarchs and Fathers of the Church, Basil the Great, Gregory the Theologian and John Chrysostom. Some argued for Saint Basil above the other two because he was able, as none other, to explain the mysteries of the Faith, and rose to angelic rank by his virtues. Organizer of monastic life, leader of the entire Church in the struggle with heresy, austere and demanding shepherd as to Christian morals, in him there was nothing base or of the earth. Hence, said they, he was superior to Saint Chrysostom who was by nature more easily inclined to absolve sinners.

The partisans of Saint Chrysostom retorted that the illustrious Archbishop of Constantinople had been no less zealous than Saint Basil in combating vices, in bringing sinners to repentance and in raising up the whole people to the perfection of the Gospel. The golden-mouthed shepherd of matchless eloquence has watered the Church with a stream of homilies in which he interprets the divine word and shows its application in daily life with more accomplished mastery than the two other holy Doctors.

According to a third group, Saint Gregory the Theologian was to be preferred to the others by reason of the majesty, purity and profundity of his language. Possessing a sovereign mastery of all the wisdom and eloquence of ancient Greece, he had attained, they said to such a pitch in the contemplation of God that no one had been able to express the dogma of the Holy Trinity as perfectly as he.

With each faction setting up one of the Fathers against the other two in this way, the whole Christian people were soon caught up in the dispute, which far from promoting devotion to the Saints in the City, resulted in nothing but ill-feeling and endless argument. Then one night the three holy Hierarchs appeared in a dream to Saint John Mauropus, the Metropolitan of Euchaita (5 Oct.), separately at first, then together and, speaking with a single voice, they said: “As you see, the three of us are with God and no discord or rivalry divides us. Each of us, according to the circumstances and according to the inspiration that he received from the Holy Spirit, wrote and taught what befits the salvation of mankind. There is not among us a first, a second or a third, and if you invoke one of us the other two are immediately present with him. Therefore, tell those who are quarrelling not to create divisions in the Church because of us, for when we were on earth..."
we spared no effort to re-establish unity and concord in the world. You can conjoin our three commemorations in one feast and compose a service for it, inserting the hymns dedicated to each of us according to the skill and knowledge that God has given you. Then transmit it to the Christians with the command to celebrate it each year. If they honor us thus as being with and in God, we give them our word that we will intercede for their salvation in our common prayer.” At these words, the Saints were taken up into heaven in a boundless light while conversing with one another by name.

Saint John immediately assembled the people and informed them of this revelation. As he was respected by all for his virtue and admired for his powerful eloquence, the three parties made peace and every one urged him to lose no time in composing the service of the joint feast. With fine discernment, he selected 30 January as appropriate to the celebration, for it would set the seal to the month in which each of the three Hierarchs already had a separate commemoration (Saint Basil – January 1; Saint Gregory – January 25; Saint John (translation of relics) – January 27).

The three Hierarchs—an earthly trinity as they are called in some of the wonderful troparia of their service—have taught us in their writings and equally by their lives, to worship and to glorify the Holy Trinity, the One God in three Persons. These three luminaries of the Church have shed the light of the true Faith all over the world, scorning dangers and persecutions, and they have left us, their descendants, this sacred inheritance by which we too can attain to utmost blessedness and everlasting life in the presence of God and of all the Saints.

That’s a few comments about Julie Karoutas, Chair of Desert Diamonds here at Holy Trinity as well as active member of St. Katherine Chapter Philoptochos and one always ready for joining in fellowship and helping others feel welcomed! Thanks, Julie!

Celebrating our graduates of the ASU Class of 2021:

Dr. Mary D. Pardhe-Molecular and Cellular Biology Ph.D.

James S. Contes-Master’s of Engineering in Engineering Management

Congratulations to Anna & Daniel Pardhe on their 25th Anniversary!

In accordance with current CDC guidance, the Holy Trinity community strongly recommends that everyone (vaccinated and unvaccinated) wear face masks inside the Church. As a reminder, my mask is for you and yours is for me. In this time of high transmission of a highly infectious strain, we have the opportunity to show our Christianity and wear masks to make the community as safe as it can be. This is a time for the parishioners of Holy Trinity to practice empathy and compassion for our most vulnerable members—our youth, those not vaccinated, and those who are vaccinated but immune compromised (and therefore at elevated risk levels). Thank you!
