THE ORDER OF DAILY VESPERS

PRIEST: Blessed is our God, always, now and forever and to the ages of ages.

PEOPLE: Amen.

Come, let us worship and bow down before God our King.

Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ our King and our God.

Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ Himself, our King and our God.

Psalm 103 (104)

Bless the Lord, O my soul! Lord my God You are very great! You are clothed with honor and majesty, Who covers Yourself with light as with a garment, Who has stretched out the heavens like a tent, Who has laid the beams of Your chambers on the waters, Who makes the clouds Your chariot, Who rides on the wings of the wind, Who makes the winds Your messengers, fire and flame Your ministers. You set the earth on its foundations so that it should never be shaken. You covered it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stood above the mountains. At Your rebuke they fled; at the sound of Your thunder they took to flight. The mountains rose, the valleys sank down to the place which You appointed for them. You set a bound which they should not pass so that they might not again cover the earth. You make springs gush forth in the valleys; they flow between the hills, they give drink to every beast of the field; the wild asses quench their thirst. By them the birds of the air have their habitation; they sing among the branches. From Your lofty abode You water the mountains; the earth is satisfied with the fruit of Your work. You cause the grass to grow for the cattle and plants for man to cultivate, that he may bring forth food from the earth, and wine to gladden the heart of man, oil to make his face shine, and bread to strengthen man’s heart. The trees of the Lord are watered abundantly, the cedars of Lebanon which He planted. In them the birds build their nests; the stork has her home in the fir trees. The high mountains are for the wild goats; the rocks are a refuge for the badgers. You have made the moon to mark the seasons; the sun knows its time for setting.

27
You make darkness and it is night, when all the beasts of the forest creep forth. The young lions roar for their prey, seeking their food from God. When the sun rises the get them away and lie down in their dens.
Man goes forth to his work and to his labor until the evening. Lord, how manifold are Your works! In wisdom You have made them all; the earth is full of Your creatures. Yonder is the sea, great and wide, which teems with things innumerable, living things both small and great. There go the ships and Leviathan which You formed to sport in it. These all look to You to give them their food in due season. When You give to them, they gather it up; When You open Your hand, they are filled with good things. When You hide Your face, they are dismayed; When You take away their breath, they die and return to their dust. When You send forth Your Spirit, they are created; and You renew the face of the ground. May the glory of the Lord endure forever, may the Lord rejoice in His works, Who looks on the earth and it trembles, Who touches the mountains and they smoke! I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being. May my meditation be pleasing to Him, for I rejoice in the Lord. Let sinners be consumed from the earth, and let the wicked be no more! Bless the Lord, O my soul!
Praise the Lord! The sun knows its time for setting. You make darkness, and it is night. Lord, how manifold are Your works! In wisdom have You made them all.
Glory to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and forever and to the ages of ages. Amen.
