The One by Kiera Cass

The One by Kiera Cass is the third book in The Selection series. This book continues to tell the story of America Singer and Maxon Schreave. America has to face King Clarkson and the pressure that is put on her from the Selection. The book has many descriptive details and overall good storytelling. I would definitely recommend this book, as I have read the series multiple times.

Umbrella Summer by Lisa Graff

Umbrella Summer by Lisa Graff is one of my all time favorite books. I have read it upwards of ten times and it never fails to entertain me. The main character is a ten year old girl named Annie, who has been afraid of everything since her older brother Jared died unexpectedly. Her neighbor may seem to be boring but has many secrets that get uncovered as the book progresses.

The Lost by Natasha Preston

The Lost by Natasha Preston is a page turner to say the least. Eleven teens, including Piper and Hazel, have been disappearing from Mauveton, Ohio in the spring and no one knows where they are all going. Piper and Hazel find themselves among the other lost teens that they have heard about in the news, but some are missing. They have to find a way to endure the tests, and make it out alive.
