

Sharon's Best Reads! April Edition

Coming to the Library Company of Burlington in April

Dial A For Aunties by Jesse Q Sutanto is listed as a contemporary romance but it's so much more. This novel will have you laughing from beginning to end. What happens when your mother takes it upon herself to sign you up for online dating? Chaos! Throw in a billionaire's wedding and a dead body and you have one huge mess! Thank goodness for her Ma and her Aunties coming to the rescue.

Good Company by Cynthia D'Aprix Sweeney. Flora questions everything about her marriage and her relationship with her best friend when she stumbles across her husband's wedding ring he supposedly lost years ago. For years Flora and Julian barely kept their business afloat. After a move to Los Angeles, a move that brings them closer to her best friend, she wonders if she was right to trust them both. Check out this book to see if she was right to trust her husband and her best friend.

Awesome Reads Available Now

Goodnight Beautiful by Aimee Molloy. Sam and Annie are newlyweds who celebrate their marriage every week. He is a therapist who works long hours in his basement office. Unfortunately, he doesn't realize that through a vent in the ceiling, everything is heard from the room above. When he goes missing everyone thinks he has just left town. This book is a psychological thriller and you won't want to put it down.

The Secret Life Of Dorothy Soames : A Memoir by Justine Cowan is a Biography Memoir. Dorothy Soames grew up as a foundling. A foundling is a child born out of wedlock to a middle class mother. She had to pass a test to have her infant accepted into the orphanage. Read this book to learn how Dorothy was treated and survived her years at the orphanage.