

Sharon's Sensational Stories January Edition

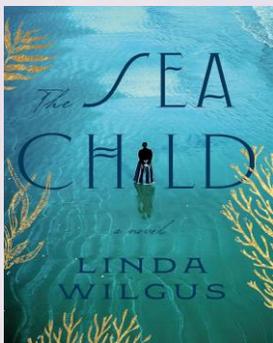

Coming To The Library Company Of Burlington In January

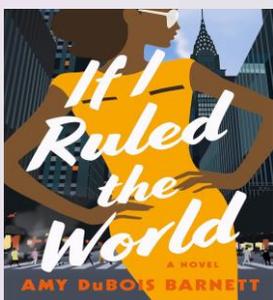

Kate's children and her husband are her whole world. Since marrying young, she's dedicated her life to making her little family grow. But in the last few years, she's carved something just for herself. Hours stolen away with another man. After one midday tryst with her lover, Kate's double life is thrown into chaos when she turns on the television to find their hotel has been overtaken by an armed, dangerous group.

Thornwalk, a once-stately English manor, is on the brink of transformation. It's keys are being handed over to a luxury hotelier who will undertake a complete renovation – but in doing so, what will they erase? Through the keen eyes of an enigmatic neighbor, the reader is taken on a guided tour into rooms filled with secrets and memories, each revealing the story of the five Gilbert siblings.

England, early 1800s: Destitute and forced to leave her home in London, Isabel, a young widow of the Napoleon Wars, returns to the village on the rugged Cornish coast where she was found as a small child, dripping wet and alone. Hoping to learn more about her enigmatic origins, she's shocked to find herself at the center of a local legend claiming she is the daughter of a sea sprite.

It's 1999, and Nikki Rose is the only Black editor on the staff of a prestigious fashion magazine she once thought would be her ticket to becoming a respected editor in chief. But after being told one too many times by her boss that "Black girls don't sell magazines", she quits to take over Sugar, a struggling hip hop music and lifestyle magazine with untapped potential.