

Sharon's Sensational Stories December Edition

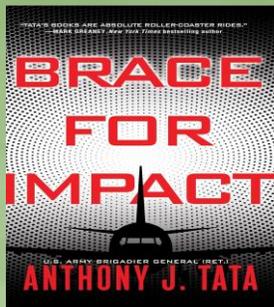

Coming To The Library Company Of Burlington In December

It starts out feeling pretty light and fun, but I promise you, you have no idea where this story is going. An insanely competitive housing market. A desperate buyer on edge. In Marisa Kashino's darkly humorous debut novel, the white picket fence becomes the ultimate symbol of success or obsession.

Dick Van Dyke danced his way into our hearts. Now, as he's about to turn 100 years old, Dick is still dancing and approaching life with the twinkle in his eye that we've come to know and love. In 100 Rules for Living to 100, he reveals his secrets for maintaining your joie de vivre and making the most out of the life you've been given.

The hijackers were among the last to board. Three men in their twenties, sporting close-cropped hair, tactical gear, carrying small duffel bags and stood out immediately. Alongside them was a sharply dressed business man in a $3,000 suit, also under suspicion. Minutes after takeoff, Zara Sheridan, a newly appointed air marshal on her first assignment, is scrambling to find their true identities when she receives an alert.

Anne Loveday, a surgeon's daughter, is determined to live a single, useful life. To escape her matchmaking stepmother, she accepts an invitation from an old friend to return to Painswick, the place where she and her sister spent many happy summers until that last, fateful year.
