APRIL EDITION

Highlighting Staff Recommendations from Picture Books to Teen Novels and Everything In-Between!

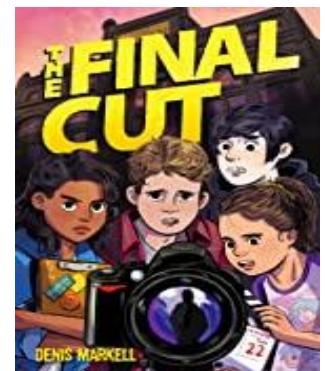

When chance, or fate, throws two twelve-year-olds together on board a scientific research ship at the edge of the Great Pacific Garbage Patch, it's not all smooth sailing! This is a story about friendship and an empowering call to environmental protection, especially to our young people who are already stepping up to help save our oceans and our Earth.

A hilarious postapocalyptic romp full of fun, misfits, and friendship! This funny and adventurous middle grade graphic novel is set in a world where everyone has unusual abilities except for a boy named Doom . . . who just might have to save them all.

A picture book about a crew of sailors that answers the question "What do you do with a grumpy kraken, a sickly sea serpent, and a tearful gigantic tortoise?" You sing them a tune, of course!

An hilarious middle-grade story about home, friendship, and learning that sometimes the most exciting adventures happen behind-the-scenes. Alex Davis is convinced that seventh grade is going to be his year until he's mistakenly put in the wrong elective. Now, instead of taking a popular video games class with his friends, he's stuck in Filmmaking.
