

Sharon's Best Reads! May Edition

Coming to the Library Company of Burlington in May

The Guncle by Steven Rowley is a humorous, contemporary read. This book is hilarious from beginning to end. When tragedy strikes and Patrick or Gay Uncle Patrick (GUP, for short) must take care of his niece and nephew for the summer he realizes how hard it is to care for children. Will Patrick survive the summer babysitting his niece and nephew?

Local Woman Missing is a psychological thriller by one of my favorite authors, Mary Kubica. First Shelby Tebow goes missing. Then Meredith and her six year old daughter Delilah go missing too. After a thorough search there are more questions than answers. Then, eleven years later Delilah returns. Where has she been? Read this book to find out!!!!

Awesome Reads Available Now

Wrong Alibi by Christina Dodd. When Evie lands a job in a small Alaska town she thinks she got the job of her dreams. Evie made some bad decisions in the past and wants to make her Mother proud. Unfortunately, things go from bad to worse. Read this book to find out if Evie can finally make things right. This book was so suspenseful and I couldn't put it down!

Don't Look For Me by Wendy Walker. What happened the night Molly Clarke went missing? Did she really want to disappear? Finally, after everyone else has given up looking her daughter, Nicole, starts searching. The locals are so kind and helpful, even the police. But, someone has a secret they don't want Nicole to find out. Will Nicole find her mother or disappear too. Read this book to find out!
