

Sharon's Best Reads! November Edition

Coming to the Library Company of Burlington November 17th

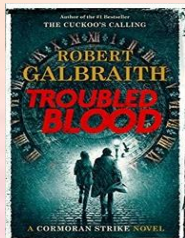

Piece of My Heart by Mary Higgins Clark and Alafair Burke is my first recommendation. They are both excellent writers but when they get together their books are beyond exciting! This is the series Under Suspicion Murders. Television production Laurie Moran and investigative host Alex Buckley solve unsolved cases. Alex's seven year old nephew goes missing. Can they find him and solve the mystery?

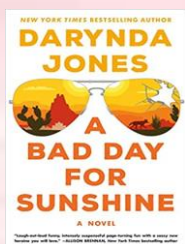

The Killer's Shadow : The FBI's Hunt for a White Supremacist Serial Killer by John E Douglas and Mark Olshaker is my second recommendation. It is a nonfiction book about FBI profilers and the hunt to find Joseph Paul Franklin. What happens next is the stuff of legends. This first in a series will keep you glued to your seat.

Troubled Blood by Robert Galbraith aka J K Rowling! Will Cormoran Strike and his partner Robin Ellacott solve a forty year old mystery? When will they admit to their feelings for each other? If you liked Harry Potter, try this Rowling book written for adults. I guarantee you will love this series. It is the fifth in the series but you can read it as a standalone.

A Bad Day For Sunshine by Darynda Jones is a must read! It is actually comical how her parents got her elected as Sheriff when she didn't even know she was running. Her first day she has a murder to solve! What happens when she runs into an old flame? Will she fail on her first day? Fans of Darynda Jones' Charley Davidson series will love this new novel.
