

The Amazing Laws of the Great Dynamics of Cosmic Thought

By Dr. Joseph Murphy / Adapted and Translated by Rev. Barby Soliman

Pray knowing what you will receive your request and it will be like so. Pray like this:

Quiet your mind and repeat the prayer that best fits your current need and feeling the Great Divine Presence working within you. You will have the most precious miracles happen in your life.

God is the only presence and the only power, with which I am one with. The greatness of God in my greatness, his intelligence floods my thought process and total being.

I am now united with the universal and most high consciousness mind and power which is the Absolute Presence throughout, the infinite I am Presence of all there is. This glory, wisdom, strength, wealth and glory flows through me and all issues in my life. This conceptual perspective of the Divine Consciousness gives me absolute control over every area of my life. I know that the energy and power of God now penetrates my every atom, tissue, muscle, and bone of my being, making me at this very moment and forever perfect. God is life, and this life is my life. My faith is renewed; my absolute health and vitality are restored. God speaks and walks in me. He is my God: I am one with this Infinite Divine Presence. His truth is my shield and protection; rejoice that it be so. Under your care and protection I am and will be confident. My abode is the secret place of the Most High, and I remain under the shelter of the Almighty forever.

I live in the secret place of the Most High, it resides in my own mind and soul. All the thoughts I hold conform to harmony, peace, health, protection, and goodwill. My mind is the abode of happiness, of rejoicing and of a deep sense of security. All thoughts that enter my mind contribute to my rejoicing, my peace, great wealth and general well-being. I live, I move and I have my total being in the atmosphere of good fellowship, of love and of unity. All the people who live in my thoughts are children of God. I am at great peace, in my mind I am one and total absolute harmony with all the members of my house, work, community, and all of humanity. The same good that I desire for myself, I wish for all. Now I live in the house of God, because He accompanies me forever within me. In my world reigns joy, health, wealth, love, protection and the greatest of brotherhoods.

I am the expression of God in action. I am divinely oriented in all my ways and I am always in the right place, in the perfect moment, doing what I love doing and being wonderfully compensated. My mind is part of the Divine mind and as such reflects only the divine wisdom and intelligence. The ideas of God develop within my mind in perfect sequence. I am always calm, balanced, calm and in peace, for I know that God shows me the perfect solution to all situations and needs in my life.

I believe in my heart that I can predict harmony, health, peace, prosperity, and excellent success in all my finances and businesses. Now I synchronize in my mind the concepts of peace, harmony, orientation, fortune and Divine progress. I believe and I know that these thoughts - seeds - will grow and manifest in my experiences. I am a gardener; what I sow, I will harvest. I plant the divine thoughts - seeds - and these wonderful seeds of fortune, health, harmony, prosperity, peace and goodwill will produce a magnificent harvest automatically. Nurture and sustain these seeds regularly and systematically, thinking with love and trust in them. I know that my subconscious mind is a bank that multiplies and enlarges how much I deposit. I will collect in great peace the fruit of the wonderful seeds that I deposit today. I make these real thoughts feeling the reality of them. I believe in the law of increase in the same way that the seeds deposited in the earth arise multiplied thirty, sixty, and a hundred times. Like seeds, my thoughts rise above the earth - they become objective - like circumstances, experiences, and events for my total good and that of everyone around me. I often think of the Great Power of God that nourishes these seeds within my mind and I accept their success in me.

Peace is found in the center of my being and this peace comes from God. In this presence I feel its strength, its orientation and love of its holy presence in me. I am divinely guided in all behavior. I am a clear channel of love, of light, the truth and the beauty of God flows through me. I know that all my problems or conflicts dissolve in the mind of God that vibrates within me. I forgive all those who try to hurt or send discord towards me, radiating extreme blessings, love and peace to their Divine Self. All my relationships are harmonious, full of love, understanding and hope for all. The Divine Light in me fills me with his love and he blesses everyone for me.

I believe in my heart that I can predict harmony, health, peace, prosperity and excellent success in all my personal affairs, relationships and life in general. Now I synchronize in my mind the concepts of peace, harmony, orientation, plus Divine and mutual respect. I believe and I know that these thoughts - seeds - will grow and manifest in my experiences. I am a gardener; what I sow, I will harvest. I plant the divine thoughts - seeds - and these wonderful seeds of excellent health, harmony, understanding of all around me, peace and goodwill will produce a magnificent harvest automatically. I nurture and sustain these seeds regularly and systematically, thinking with great peace and blessings towards them. I know that my subconscious mind is a bank that multiplies and enlarges how much I deposit. I will collect in great the fruit of the wonderful seeds that I deposit today. I make these real thoughts feeling the reality of them. I believe in the law of increase of goodness in my life in the same way that the seeds deposited in the earth arise multiplied thirty, sixty and a hundred times. Like seeds, my thoughts rise above the earth - they become objective - like circumstances, experiences and events for my total good and that of everyone around me. I often think of the Great Power of God that nourishes these seeds within my mind and I accept their success in all of the issues of my life.

My business and affairs are the same business and affairs of God. God is my partner in each of my companies. God makes my business and affairs prosper in an extraordinary way. I proclaim that all those who work with me are the spiritual links in our mutual growth, well-being, and prosperity. I know this, I believe in it and I rejoice in its success and the happiness it imparts to all of us. I solve all my problems by believing that the infinite and Divine intelligence within my subconscious mind reveals to me the correct answer that I need to know at all times. I remain in peace and tranquility. I am surrounded by peace, love and harmony. I know that all my business relationships and in all my affairs with related people go according to the law of harmony and understanding. Divine intelligence always shows me how best to serve, help and improve my service to my clients and partners, thus increasing our greater harmony. I know that God lives in all of them, we work in total harmony and understanding with everyone so that happiness, prosperity, and peace always reign supreme.
