

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: June 30, 2026

Your privacy matters. This website is intended to be a safe, transparent place to connect with the Wandering the Wild Mess podcast and related content. This policy explains what information may be collected, how it is used, and your choices.

1. Information We Collect

Information may be collected automatically when you visit this website, including your IP address, browser and device information, pages visited, time spent on the site, referring websites, and interactions with links or content. If you voluntarily submit information (such as joining the email list, contacting us, or submitting a voice message), we may collect the information you provide.

2. Cookies and Third-Party Services

This website may use cookies and third-party services, including Google AdSense, analytics providers, and embedded tools, to improve functionality, understand website usage, and display relevant advertising. These providers may use cookies or similar technologies in accordance with their own privacy policies.

3. Voice Messages Through SpeakPipe

If you choose to submit a voice message through the SpeakPipe widget, you voluntarily provide your recording and any personal information you choose to include. By submitting a recording, you represent that you have the right to provide it and grant Utah Girl in Nash LLC a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free, perpetual license to use, reproduce, edit, publish, distribute, and publicly perform your recording, in whole or in part, in connection with the Wandering the Wild Mess podcast, website, social media, promotional materials, and related content. Your recording may be edited for length, clarity, or production quality. Please do not include confidential or sensitive personal information in your message. If you include another person's voice, you are responsible for obtaining their permission.

4. What We Don't Do

We do not sell your personal information. We only collect information reasonably necessary to operate the website, communicate with you, fulfill your requests, and improve our services.

5. Email List, Purchases, and Contact Forms

If you subscribe to the email list, submit a contact form, or purchase a product or service, we may collect your name, email address, and payment-related information. Payment information is processed securely by third-party payment providers and is not stored by us.

6. Your Choices

You may request access to, correction of, or deletion of personal information we maintain about you where applicable by law. You may also unsubscribe from marketing emails at any time using the unsubscribe link or by contacting us at utahgirlinnash@gmail.com.

7. Changes to This Policy

This policy may be updated from time to time. The revised version will be posted on this page with an updated revision date.
