5.4 Client must not and shall ensure that its employees, subcontractors, and representatives do not unlawfully discriminate against, harass, or victimise any Candidate.

6 Fees & Invoicing

- 6.1 Where Company is the effective cause of an Engagement under clause 3.3, Client shall pay an Introduction Fee to Company in respect of each Candidate who is Engaged within the Introduction Period, whether or not they are Engaged in the position for which they were Introduced.
- 6.2 The Introduction Fee shall be a sum equivalent to a percentage of the Remuneration, rounded up to the nearest pound and calculated in accordance with the Fee Scale specified in the Commercial Terms Schedule.
- 6.3 Company shall issue an invoice for the Introduction Fee on the first day of the Engagement or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. VAT shall be charged at the standard rate.
- 6.4 Client shall settle Company's invoices within the Payment Terms.
- 6.5 Client must not deduct or set off against any sum due to Company under these Terms, any sum which is owed or which Client alleges to be owed by Company to Client, whether under these Terms or under any other agreement between Company and Client unless otherwise agreed in writing by Company.
- 6.6 If Client does not pay Company's invoice within the Payment Terms, Company may (i) charge interest at the rate of 8% per annum above the base rate of the Bank of England from the due date until the date of payment together with statutory compensation under the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 (ii) issue a further invoice under clause 6.7, where applicable and (iii) refer the collection of such payment to a collection agency or legal representatives and, in such circumstances, Client shall be liable for all costs, fees (including legal fees), charges and disbursements incurred by Company in recovering payment from Client.
- 6.7 Any discount or reduction in the Introduction Fee which is agreed between the parties is conditional upon Client (i) complying with clause 4.3 in all respects and (ii) paying Company's invoice within the Payment Terms.
- 6.8 If the precise Remuneration is not known, if Client fails to provide details of the Remuneration to Company or if it is impracticable to calculate the Remuneration, Company will calculate the Introduction Fee using the Remuneration which, in Company's reasonable opinion, is the market rate for the Engagement.
- 6.9 If the Candidate's Remuneration is not paid in Pounds Sterling, Company shall convert the Remuneration to Pounds Sterling using the exchange rate published by the Bank of England on the invoice date and shall submit the invoice in Pounds Sterling. Client shall bear any bank charges and currency exchange costs when paying Company's invoice.
- 6.10 Where, prior to commencement of the Engagement, Client notifies Company that the Candidate shall be engaged on a fixed term contract of less than 12 months (Fixed Term Contract), the Introduction Fee shall be charged on a pro-rata basis of 1/12 of the full Introduction Fee for each full or partial month of the Fixed Term Contract, subject to a minimum fee one quarter of a full Introduction Fee. If the Fixed Term Contract is extended or if the Candidate is Engaged again on any basis within 12 months of the Fixed Term Contract ending, Client shall pay to Company an additional pro-rata fee or the balance of the full Introduction Fee as applicable each time. For the avoidance of doubt, the aggregate Introduction Fee payable by Client under this clause for a series of Fixed Terms Contracts shall not exceed the Introduction Fee that Client would have been liable to pay for a permanent Engagement.
- 6.11 If Client withdraws an accepted offer of Engagement for any reason other than the Candidate's suitability for the position, Client shall be liable to pay a Cancellation Fee equivalent to 25% of the Introduction Fee. The Cancellation Fee shall be payable by Client within the Payment Terms.
- 6.12 If Client makes a Third-Party Introduction which results in a Third-Party Engagement within the Introduction Period, Client shall be liable to pay an Introduction Fee which shall be calculated in accordance with clause 6.2. Client shall not be entitled to a Rebate if the Third-Party Engagement terminates for any reason.
- 6.13 If Client Engages any Employee within six months of such Employee leaving Company's employment, Client shall pay a fee to Company, which shall be a sum equivalent to 25% of the gross annualised remuneration which had been payable by Company to the Employee. Such fee shall be payable by Client within the Payment Terms.

7 Rebate Guarantee

- 7.1 If the Engagement terminates within the Rebate Period, the Client shall be entitled to a free replacement. Should a free replacement not be found by the Company then the Client shall be entitled to a Rebate. The Client is entitled to the free replacement or the Rebate provided that (i) Client paid the Introduction Fee within the Payment Terms (ii) Client strictly complied with clause 4.3 (iii) Client notified Company in writing within five Business Days of the termination of the Engagement, giving the reasons for such termination and, if requested by Company, reasonable evidence that the Engagement has terminated (iv) the Candidate's position was not redundant or otherwise no longer required due to any internal reorganisation, restructure or change in strategy (v) the Candidate was not dismissed for reasons which were automatically unfair and (vi) Company had not previously supplied the Candidate to Client as a temporary worker for a period of more than one month.
- 7.2 Subject to the conditions in clause 7.1, Company shall give a Rebate to Client in accordance with the Rebate Scale specified in the Commercial Terms Schedule.
- 7.3 For the purposes of calculating the Rebate, the date of termination of the Engagement shall be the last day of the Candidate's contractual notice period, irrespective of whether the Candidate is paid in lieu of notice or agrees to shorten their notice.
- 7.4 If Client receives a Rebate and subsequently Engages the same Candidate again within 12 months of the original Engagement terminating, Client must repay the Rebate to Company without delay. Client shall have no further right to a Rebate if this subsequent Engagement then terminates for any reason.

8 Termination

- 8.1 Either party may terminate the Recruitment Services by Company at any time by notifying the other party in writing.
- 8.2 Any provision of these Terms that expressly or by implication is intended to continue in force on or after termination of the Recruitment Services shall remain in full force and effect including, without limitation, the validity of any Introduction which was made by Company prior to such termination and Company's right to charge an Introduction Fee in respect of any Engagement of a Candidate within the Introduction Period.

- 9.6 Any claim which Client may bring against Company in connection with these Terms must be commenced within 12 months of the date on which Client becomes aware or should reasonably have become aware of such claim.
- 9.7 Client shall indemnify Company against all losses, costs, expenses and fees (including legal fees) suffered or incurred as a result of any claim (actual or threatened) made against Company to the extent that such claim has arisen from any breach of contract, negligence or breach of statutory duty by Client.
