

SERMON NOTES

THE HARVEST VIEW VINE

Sunday January 12, 2025

Harvest View Church,

My heart lately has been on growth in Jesus. I often consider my journey as winding of a road as it has been. The growth has been nothing short of a miracle. People God uses to enlighten, teach, mentor, and encourage are often seen after they influence our lives. Frequently, the one who plants is not always the one who harvests the crop. John 4:35 teaches us the fields are white for harvest, and for me, that is a call for us to work towards helping people understand the personal side of Jesus.....his heart....his love....his forgiveness.

Discipleship is what we are called to take time and teach people the depth of Christ and teaching while mentoring them to raise up another group of people who are equipped and ready to go to the harvest to work.

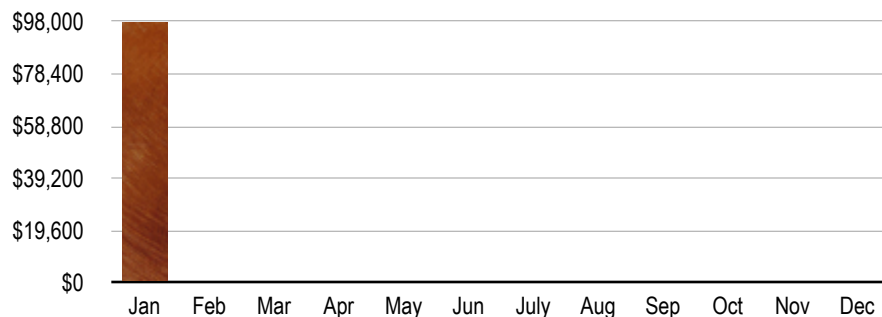

Love you guys,

Brent

SPiritual GRoWTH

They say the past is a foreign country, but sometimes it feels more like a crowded basement filled with old memories that no longer serve us. Think back to that embarrassing haircut from the '80s or that moment when you danced at a wedding as if you were auditioning for "Dancing with the Stars," only to find yourself in the hospital with a sprained ankle. Those are the moments that remind us of our human experience.

Yet, we often cling to these cringe-worthy experiences like trophies, holding on to them as if they define us. It's time to release that emotional baggage and send it on a one-way journey to the land of "Letting Go." Visualize your past as a sweater that once felt wonderful but has now become moth-eaten and two sizes too small.

This is the perfect time for a spiritual wardrobe refresh! Let's laugh and release, giving a heartfelt farewell to the past. Embrace the future with open arms—a future filled with growth, learning, and new possibilities, free from the constraints of old patterns. Let's step into the light, moving forward with grace and joy.

Leaving The Past Behind

2 Corinthians 5:17

Scripture: Philippians 3:13-14

Devotional Thought:

Sometimes, we hold on to regrets or failures that weigh us down. Philippians 3:13-14 encourages us to forget what is behind and focus on what is ahead. God calls us to press forward, keeping our eyes on Him. You can't change the past, but you can surrender it to God and trust Him to redeem it. Like a runner straining toward the finish line, pursue God's purpose with determination. Let go of guilt and shame, and receive His forgiveness. He is writing a new chapter for your life, one full of hope and promise. Trust Him with your future.

Action Item:

Identify one thing from your past that you need to let go of. Pray for strength to release it to God.
