THE HARVEST VIEW VINE

Sunday November 3, 2024

Harvest View Family,

As the upcoming election approaches and the holiday season draws near, it's easy for many of us to feel the weight of the times. Between the decisions that come with voting and the anticipation of holiday gatherings, this season can bring both excitement and stress. In moments like these, let's remember Christ's peace, a comforting and reassuring presence, and how we can share it with others.

The Bible calls us to be the hands and feet of God, serving and uplifting those around us. Let's come together to lighten the burdens of those in need, whether it's a simple act of kindness, lending a listening ear, or sharing a meal. As a church family, we can be a source of hope and comfort, reflecting God's love in every way possible.

As it says in Philippians 4:6-7 (NIV): "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

Let's make this season one of unity and purpose as we support each other and shine God's light in our community.

With love and blessings,

Harvest View

 Team

Whether you are joining us for the first time or have been a part of our congregation. Our church family is characterized by a warm and inclusive atmosphere where everyone is embraced and valued for who they are. We are eager for you to encounter the profound love of God and the sheer delight of worshipping alongside us. So, please step inside and partake in the joyous experience! As it says in Romans 15:7, 'Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God.'

If you are interested in learning more about how to become an active member of our dynamic community, please don't hesitate to contact us info@harvestviewtn.org We're here for you whenever you need guidance or assistance!

Welcome home!

Member Spotlight - Joann Smith

This week, we put the spotlight on our sister, Joann Smith. Joann is a treasured Harvest View Church member, bringing elegance, dedication, and warmth to our congregation. Born and raised in Murfreesboro, Joann has been a solid rock as part of Harvest View, faithfully attending services with her sister and cherished mother. Joann was drawn to Harvest View Church by her love of family and a sense of purpose and belonging.

Joann, a beacon of grace and dedication, also shines professionally. As the Executive Vice President at Cannon Marketing in Nashville, she has achieved remarkable success, a testament to her hard work and talent. Despite her role taking her around the country, her heart remains in Tennessee, and her commitment to Harvest View is unwavering, just as her devotion to our Lord. Her considerable time volunteering in our community outreach events reflects her caring spirit and a heart after the things of God, inspiring us all.

Joann dedicates herself as a hard-working volunteer and an invaluable leader. Her keen attention to detail and knack for organization make her an indispensable member of our church's leadership team. In every church discussion, she offers professional insight and compassionate service, inspiring others with her thoughtful approach while balancing her expertise with a deep love for Jesus and the Harvest View community.

Joann's vibrant sense of humor is a delightful part of her busy life. If you catch her at the local Mexican restaurant after church on Sunday, be prepared for a good laugh! Her quick wit and engaging stories could easily earn her a spot as a stand-up comic, entertaining everyone around her and fostering a sense of joy and connection in our community.

And she has one secret ambition: Joann would become a private detective, cracking cases like Sherlock Holmes himself if she could do anything! Her inquisitive spirit and love for a good mystery make her ideally suited for a life of sleuthing. Her passion for good mystery piques our curiosity and showcases her adventurous spirit.

Joann's presence at Harvest View enriches our church family. We're genuinely blessed by her dedication, humor, and unwavering commitment to making a difference at Harvest View with God's people.
