Christ's Love

As we step into the fourth week of Advent, let's embrace the spirit of love that fills this season. It's a time to reflect on the incredible gift of Christ coming into our lives. I encourage you all to share that love abundantly—whether through a kind word, a helping hand, or simply by being present for one another. Let's make this week a beautiful preparation for Jesus' arrival, finding joy in the little things and extending warmth to those around us. May your hearts be filled with hope and love as we await our Savior's birth!

Much love, Pastor Brent

Harvest View Open House

Harvest View had a fantastic Open House this past weekend, bringing our community together in a spirit of joy and gratitude, much like the sense of warmth and connection we feel during the celebration of Jesus' birth. Families filled the church with laughter as kids eagerly lined up for pictures with Santa, their faces shining with excitement. The cheerful sounds of the holidays filled the air as everyone enjoyed games, crafts, and fun hayrides that entertained both young and old.

Our fantastic volunteers worked hard to ensure everything went smoothly. Their dedication and enthusiasm showed in every detail, from setting up decorations to making delicious treats. So many people helped create a warm and inviting atmosphere, making the day special for everyone, just as the shepherds and wise men gathered to celebrate that miraculous night.

The kids really got into the holiday spirit as they made decorations and participated in various games, filling the day with joy and laughter. It was heartwarming to see their creativity shine and the connections forming within our church family, reminding us of the love and community surrounding Jesus at His birth.

A big thank you to everyone who helped make this event a success. Whether you offered your time, skills, or resources, your kindness made a difference. Together, we built a stronger community and created memories we'll cherish for years.

At Harvest View Church, we believe in loving and supporting one another. This Open House was a great reminder of how our combined efforts create a beautiful sense of connection and joy, much like the spirit of togetherness that accompanied the birth of Christ. As we reflect on this special day, let's carry that spirit into the new year.

Thanks for being part of something so wonderful!
