“The God of Vengeance Has Come” Part I

Trouble and tribulation; let's go to Webster on these two words, before we begin our lesson. Trouble-that which causes annoyances and distress, a state of mental distress. The definition of tribulation is: great misery or distress. Luke 21:25 “distress of nations” The prophet Webb was given three points of distress. The first distress is the weather condition, which would curse the earth worldwide. Let us notice a few current events; the state of Louisiana was almost destroyed by water; under hurricane Katrina. Texas, Florida, and South Carolina also received their share of devastation in the same storm. The entire state of Kentucky, was hit with an ice storm, a million people were without power and heat. On the other side of the world; Australia was on fire, eleven hundred square miles were destroyed. This was done by the four divisions of angels who control the elements, namely water, heat, cold, and wind. There is also an angel who is commanded to wreck the business world; he is under the spirit of the black horse. The spirit of deal has been withdrawn and man is left alone, without the ability to manage his problems; confronting the world. There will be a pause in this judgment; man will invest the remainder of all of his resources into the economic market. Then God will signal to the angel; and devastation will hit the economy; causing economic doom forever. At this point, the third distress will go into activation, a dark day will kick it off, with the voice of God behind the clouds, to well for some, to woe for others.

“The God of Vengeance Has Come” Part II

There are four divisions of angels mentioned in both the revelations and by Ezekiel. These angels make up the wheel or the throne of God, as seen in Ezekiel’s vision. They control the weather conditions, and give guidance to man. Christ is being celebrated in six universes outside of ours. Ezekiel 28:14, last part, “Thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.” The stones of fire here are universes created by Christ and ruled by his brothers, God’s other sons, who are kings over these universes, yet Christ is king of kings. This is a gigantic celebration of exultation. Why are they celebrating? Because he has finished the atonement work, and taken the Little Book of the Seven Seals out of the hands of his father. He is passing through other universes, on his way to redeem man. The book of times has been opened, and the appointed time has come. The Ancient of Days, has said to Christ our God, “GO.” Psalms 110:1-2 please notice the word until. Webster: up to the time of, as until your departure, also before a time specified. Remember, there is a time and season for everything. Thus Christ at this moment, is passing through these universes in a parade of righteousness, alongside him will be all of his brothers, who are kings of these universes. Close to him will be his brother Melchisedec, who is king of righteousness, and who also took part in the redemption of man. These are the same who were invited to come to the earth to celebrate Christ’s birth two thousand years ago. As he approaches the earth, the planet itself, responds to the creative forces of its originality. It shakes and quakes, as the Lord draws near.

“Lift Up Your Heads Oh Ye Gates”

1. What is the history of Melchisedec; and where is his kingdom? Hebrews 7:1-2
2. What statement do we have on his origins? Hebrews 7:3
*Note: Yes, this is a fact, God has other sons. Melchisedec brought the priesthood to earth, Christ’s work on the cross, and in heaven elevated him King of Kings.
3. What other statement do we have; on God’s other sons? Job 1:7 Ref. Job 2:1
4. Was there a host to witness Christ’s arrival on his first visit to mankind? Luke 2:12-14
*Note: No one was aware of why Christ came to earth. This knowledge was hidden in the “Little Book of the Seven Seals” not to be opened until after Christ cleansed the records; with his blood in heaven.
5. What is heard coming from the throne of Christ; as he passed through the universes in heaven? Psalms 24:7
6. What verse is sung in harmony; back and forth between the throne of Christ, and the occupants in each universe? Psalms 24:8-10

“The God of Vengeance Has Come” Part III

The world’s refusal to keep the commandments and the testimonies has forever terminated the relationship between God and man in this world. Be not deceived; regardless of how many faiths, religions, churches and beliefs there are on the earth, there is but one that God will accept and acknowledge, and that is the Commandments of God and the Testimonies of Jesus Christ. This is the only doctrine on earth that Satan does not control. Revelation 12:9. Notice the phrase “which deceiveth the whole world.” Also notice Deuteronomy 31:26 mentions “that it may be there for a witness against thee.” God shall reveal unto the world; his measuring sticks for salvation, for in the ark lies the commandments and testimonies. He will show the whole world why he is come, and by what doctrine they shall be judged. This word is sent out as a lifeline to all who love God, as a last minute outreach; to come to terms with his word. Worship God for the hour of his judgment has come. “To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame and am set down with my father in his throne.” Revelation 3:21
