“The Third Distress”

Part I: Secrets, Climatic Events and the Resurrection

We joined the Tabernacle of David Church, as teenagers. We have had many spiritual experiences since then. The one constant in our lives has been our belief in the commandments of God and the testimonies of Jesus Christ. We are eternally thankful for our relationship with the Wisdom of God, and understanding of the prophetic works of James T. Webb. In our study of the message of the covenant (the works of James T. Webb), we were never wise enough to see that which Mother Wisdom had plainly placed before our eyes concerning the “Book of Deliverance” and the “Book of Resurrection”. This because these were treasures hidden in the sand, only to be revealed by her to those whom she chooses; for she states in Proverbs 8:35 “Whosoever findeth me findeth life and shall obtain favor of the Lord.” Another secret we shall visit is the “Book of Resurrection” referencing Revelation 6:9-11: (v9) And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: (v10) And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? (v11) And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.” As we noticed, the saints who are already deceased had to wait for other saints who were slated to die as they had. They will all be resurrected together under the sixth seal. We need to understand that the death of both groups has already been recorded in the Book of Resurrection from the foundation of the world. The Book of Resurrection is a book within the Book of the Seven Seals, just as the Book of Daniel is a book within itself, inside of the books of the bible.

“The Third Distress” Part II: Resurrection of the Man-Child

The work of God came not to the Prophet himself, but to his mother. While James T. Webb was but five years old, she was given a night dream. She saw him playing in the yard and a bird followed him everywhere he went, singing these words over and over: “He is a proper child; he is a proper child.” Brother Webb’s parents knew that the Lord was with him. Though they did not fully understand, they protected him and allowed him to do the Lord’s work as the spirit moved him. Vision of Brother Webb – “When I was 17, I had my first vision of this work. It was a dark night. Three men were standing with me. I was the front man. In this darkness I only had a match, which I lit and it made a large circular light around my knees. Then as I looked to the heavens a star did the same thing. A circular light and then a burning lamp fell to the earth and soon as it came to the ground, the whole earth was in a light brighter than the sun. I saw a circle of booklets on the ground, which the star left and on the back of them was written in red letters as a fire saying, “You Get Ready!” We went every way delivering the books by which the earth was a light greater than the sun. Christ closed my book and took it with him.” After that a golden letter was given to me with raised letters that could be felt with the hand. I would read this when I finished my work.” Brother Webb will be resurrected at the appointed moment of the resurrection of Israel. He shall be sent to the church with a golden letter, which he shall read to the members himself. This is his final act in respect to the Tabernacle of David and the finishing of his work. This is why he always promised the church that he would meet us there!

“Didn’t I Tell You I’ll Meet You There? ...is this possible?”

1. Looking at history of the resurrection during Jesus’ time on earth, did the resurrection prevent interaction between those that came out of the grave, and those living during that time? Matthew 27:53

*Note: As we see in this scripture, there were many people also resurrected at the time of Christ’s resurrection and interacted with other people on earth as did Lazareth before them.
2. Describe the interaction that Christ had with his disciples after the resurrection. St. John 21:9-14
3. After Jesus had risen from the dead, were the disciples able to receive instruction from the Lord in his new resurrected form or body? St. John 21:15-17
4. Please pinpoint:
  - a) The most significant statement concerning the finishing of the works of Zerubbabel,
  - b) What will this do for us, and
  - c) What is the make-up of the plummet object as it relates to the golden letter. Zechariah 4:9 and 10
5. What further proof do we have that the resurrected saints will meet up with the saints who are alive and waiting for their deliverance? 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17

“The Third Distress” Part III: Deliverance

“And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.” Upon reading this, the question comes to mind: What book? Answer: The Book of Deliverance. Wisdom explains that from the foundation of the earth, The Book of Deliverance, as well as The Books of Resurrection, and Times, were all secrets hidden; only to be revealed by her at the proper time. Understand this fact: if you are slated for the Book of Deliverance, you will receive it, which is a change while standing on your feet. It does not matter when you were born (meaning at the time of the judgment, or afterwards); what is important is whether your name is on the Book of Deliverance. As for sin that has been repented for, well someone must pay for this. Satan and all of the evil forces will become scapegoats, with the sin being placed upon their heads. Now we can see why the attack on the church was so strong. They attempted to remove as many saints who were slated for deliverance as possible with the main attempt being to trap children too young to understand the fight that they were in. This was done in hope that they would never repent. However, we say that the word of God is much too powerful to be stopped by anything that the dragon throws at it!

“The Book of Mysteries and the Book of Deliverance”

1. In respect to the knowledge in “The Book of Mysteries”, what was told to Daniel? Daniel 12:4

3. As we have seen, knowledge of the Book of Mysteries could not be known because it was sealed; what is revealed to us concerning the book? Revelation 5:1-3
4. Why was the Prophet crying, and who did the elders say had the authorization to open the book? Revelation 5:4-5
5. Where did Christ get the book that was sealed with seven seals? Revelation 5:6-7
6. Where did Job say written proof could be found regarding the way he lived his life on earth? Job 16:19
7. Now that we fully understand that God keeps all things in a book, who shall receive deliverance at the standing up of Michael? Daniel 12:1
8. Knowing that the mysteries of God are hidden treasures, what will Wisdom do for her children? Proverbs 8:21

“The Third Distress” Part IV: No Obstacle in Death

“And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.” Here is the work of Samuel Webb, Prophet of the Most High God. We will go back to recall conversations with the Prophet James T. Webb in the mid-eighties. In speaking with the Prophet Webb concerning the death of his brother, Samuel, which occurred during this time, my motive was to offer the Prophet my condolences. Brother Webb began to speak very highly of Samuel and how he was a man of God. Brother Webb had informed the church earlier of the fact that Samuel was the Prophet under the second angel, as told to him by God. Considering his death, we wondered: Would this mean that someone else would take on his duties? Our minds were thinking that his death would prevent him from completing his works. However, Brother Webb went on to state that the Lord told him in a vision: “Your brother shall prophesy after you.” He further stated that he asked God, “Do you mean Samuel?” The answer was: “No other.” Now, we are able to understand that death is not an obstacle to God – only to man. Samuel had already completed his work, which was to call out the fall of Babylon all over the world. One point we will make here is the fact that he (Samuel) did not have to raise a church. Therefore, he did his work, and is now awaiting his reward: at the resurrection. There is a second part to this, assignment, however, as it is stated in verse four of Revelation 18th chapter. This will be done by a servant who God chooses that would have the foreknowledge of the histories of the nations, with complete understanding.
