

GREETINGS SAINTS!

Date:

Chapter: Psalms 19:7-14

Scripture: Revelation 19:10

Memory Verse: Revelation 12:10

“I Guarantee” Part I

Since the beginning of our experience, the testimonies of God have been the focus of the attack of the seven-headed dragon and their evil host. As we know, the dragon kingdom is comprised of former angels of high order, and powers of great significance. These former angelic forces have seen and experienced the true might of God Most Holy. Although they now hate God, and their brains have been overcome by incomprehensible dark anti-matter, they still have enough instinct; to fear the awesome power of the seven spirits of God. As previously mentioned, the dragon truly fears the Book of Times. At the heavenly judgment, it was told to Satan, that because he brought the knowledge of sin to the earth, he would now become the scapegoat for all forgiven sins. When he went to judgment, he did not have knowledge of the contents of the Little Book of the Seven Seals. To his surprise, he found out why Christ took the body from earth, to heaven with him. There all the saints' sins would be forgiven with the blood of Jesus. This is the reason why the dragon will work fiercely against you. His hope is that you will become so downcast, that you will give up on the reality, or your repentance to God. He was fully aware, that God would redeem man, but he thought he would get to heaven by riding on his back, by causing him to sin. The Wisdom of God, tells you to repent, and forget about it; it is now on the head of him; who is truly responsible. It has been said “My sheep shall hear my voice.” From the Almighty Throne of God, Mother Wisdom, through the seven spirits; will influence us of the truth, remember: your battle is not of flesh and blood, but of evil spirit forces, and the battlefield is the mind.

“The Seven Spirits of God”

1. When one is not influenced by the law and the testimony, what is the nature of their conversation? Isaiah 8:20
2. What words spoken by the angel to the prophet John, lets us know that the testimonies work as a birthright; that connect all to the heavenly family? Revelation 19:10
3. What are the words of the saints spoken in prayer, concerning the testimonies? Psalms 119:88
4. As we continue our journey homeward, what advice is given to us; in respect to our relationship to the testimonies? II Timothy 1:8
5. What guarantee do we have, that the commandments and testimonies give us the right to receive salvation? Revelation 22:12-14

“A Guarantee”

“I guarantee that if you keep the commandments of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, you will receive salvation, I guarantee it.” – James T. Webb

GREETINGS SAINTS!

Date:

Chapter: Revelation 21:21-27

Scripture: Revelation 5:6

Memory Verse: Revelation 5:12

“I Guarantee” Part II

Brothers and Sisters in Christ, let's all pay close attention; for this greatly concerns us and our relationship with God. It is said that the Glory of the Lord shall be seen upon us. Christ having all glory is going to share this with us. He will elevate us to the level of divine beings. As we have studied earlier, the Lord's intention from the very beginning was to bring man into the heavenly family. This was agreed upon from the foundation of the world. He will do this by rebirthing us into a world of immense glory, which the human soul cannot perceive. With the power of his own body, the seven spirits of God will be shared with us. This is the same light that he used in creation. He will place this great light in us by feeding us with words sent down from the throne of God; by his angels. Let us pause for a second, and try to grasp what is being relayed to us. The knowledge that we are receiving, is the testimonies, and the instructions that will make us change the very way we think and react. This is the power force that we are speaking of, coming from the throne of God, condensed into words. The testimonies of Jesus, is the spirit that glorifies the angels; who view us as younger siblings. I hope that you can comprehend what God is trying to tell us all! It is time to come to the marriage of the king's son.

“Power and Glory”

1. What magnificent sight is to be seen upon the wave sheaf when the testimonies of Christ become ignited in you? Isaiah 60:1
2. Further speaking of the seven spirits of God; which is the light that shines within us, how does it compare to the spectacle seen upon all others throughout the world? Isaiah 60:2
3. What affect will this event have upon all saints, after the dark day? Isaiah 60:3
4. As we take into account all contents of the new covenant, what is the reason that God shared this light with us? Isaiah 60:21
5. What did John have to say, as he spoke of this light that came to us in word form? St. John 1:1-4

Bonus Question

6. Now as we compare Revelation 5:6 with all that we have learned in this lesson, briefly explain in your own words; what this means to you. Revelation 5:6

GREETINGS SAINTS!

Date:

Chapter: Haggai 2:20-23

Scripture: Revelation 1:1.

Memory Verse: Zechariah 4:9

“I Guarantee” Part III

Why did God surname Brother Webb, Zerubbabel? Let's take a look at history to get the answer. Zerubbabel was the governor of Judah, to whom the king had given written orders, which allowed him to go and rebuild The Household of Israel, after they had returned from exile in Babylon. They received opposition from surrounding nations, and Zerubbabel was charged to deal with the judgment of those who opposed. As Haggai mentioned, he was given a signet which in ancient times, was either a scroll, the king's ring, or some other significant item that let everyone know that whatever he was doing; was sanctioned by the king. Though others may disagree with what he was doing, they dared not go against the orders of the king. Now, in relationship to Brother Webb, he too had been given orders by the King of Kings. His orders were to rebuild the Tabernacle of David; which had fallen down. As Zerubbabel did long ago, he set up this project, delegated the proper people in positions best suited for the tasks at hand, initiated it, and history shows no more significant interaction from Zerubbabel. Yet, he was credited with being the architect of this project. This selfsame spirit is transferred to Brother Webb. In his work, he would deal with both judgment and salvation, which is under the color code of red and green. He would also set up the Household of Israel, Tabernacle of David, but would not be the overseer of day to day operations, just like Zerubbabel of old.

“The Spirit of Zerubbabel”

1. As for the spirit of Zerubbabel, which deals with both judgment and rebuilding, what is his job as it relates to the rebuilding of Israel? Zechariah 4:9
2. By what means will God have Zerubbabel do his work? Zechariah 4:6
3. What promise was made to Zerubbabel that gives him the authority to carry out God's work? Haggai 2:23
4. As mentioned before, the Prophet Webb's work consisted of both red and green, what are the words of the angels that worked with him? Revelation 14:6-7

“A Guarantee”

“I guarantee” that if you keep the commandments of God and the testimonies of Jesus Christ, you will receive salvation, I guarantee it.” - James T. Webb

GREETINGS SAINTS!

Date:

Chapter: Romans 8:28-39

Scripture: Revelation 14:6-7

Memory Verse: Revelation 10:11

“I Guarantee” Part IV

It was well understood in Israel, that God would use his spirit for particular operations from person to person. He transferred the spirit of Elijah, to Elisha. In the last days, we will witness the spirits of Elijah, Moses, and others. *Notice: Malachi 4:5 “Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord:” The prophecy of Malachi came almost five hundred years after the time of Elijah. During the time of Christ, they were looking for someone who would have this spirit. Some even thought this applied to Christ, that maybe he was Elijah; the same was said of John the Baptist. The key point would be before the great and dreadful day of the Lord. This day did not occur under the old covenant or under the gospel, but this prophecy would correlate directly under the time of James T. Webb’s work. Let’s establish a point here with all prophets; they must accept the assignment from God first, because he does not force you to do his will. We all remember the story of Jonah, also Apostle Paul had a similar case, and they accepted God’s assignment. The assignment that Brother Webb accepted was to rebuild the Household of Israel. Once he accepted, he was assured that his family would be under the shadow of the Almighty. Brother Webb utilized his family, (wife and children) to set up the “Little Church.” They had already been groomed under the direction of the Wisdom of God. The church was set up, with a foundation of twelve elders, who were to make decisions concerning the day to day operations, and not one man. Even the prophet himself, was careful not to exceed his authority, but he stayed humble, and allowed people to do the jobs that they were appointed to do.

“The Spirit of Elijah; Within the Tabernacle of David”

1. What does the prophet say about Elijah; that lets us know that he was speaking of his spirit? Malachi 4:5-6
*Note: Elijah the prophet was taken up approximately 900 B.C. Malachi’s prophecy came some 400 years later.
2. Further speaking on the spirit of Elijah, name the event that gives proof that both Elijah and Elisha had knowledge of the transferring of spirits? II Kings 2:6-15
3. What was told to John the Baptist’s father; concerning his son and the spirit of Elijah? Luke 1:16-17
4. After hearing of all the great things; about the works of Jesus, what did King Herrod have to say?
Mark 6:14-15
5. As Jesus was praying, what question did he ask the disciples; and what was their response?
Luke 9:18-19

“A Guarantee”

“I guarantee” that if you keep the commandments of God and the testimonies of Jesus Christ, you will receive salvation, I guarantee it.” - James T. Webb