Music Panel Volunteer

Role Description

Help us create a vibrant music programme for St Mary le Strand so that we can reach a wider range of audiences for our beautiful, historic building.

Description

St Mary le Strand church, located immediately outside KCL's main entrance on the Strand, is embarking on a major phase of renewal. We want to engage with a larger, more diverse range of people to visit and take inspiration from our unique space. As part of our 'Jewel in the Strand' project, we are now seeking student volunteers to shape our programme of musical events for the autumn term.

We'd love your help with:

- Co-ordinating our 'Music @ St Mary le Strand' programme, taking into account our Student Choir and Community Choir activities as well as the general worship requirements of the church;
- Marketing and promoting music events through the creation of printed materials for display in and around St Mary le Strand, and via social media (liaising with the Digital Student Panel);
- Hosting a series of Friday lunchtime concerts to take place during the autumn term and a jazz evening (or similar) to be hosted in October/November. Event management responsibilities will range from programming dates and recruiting performers to marketing to diverse audiences and stewarding events.

What we can offer you:

- The opportunity to meet new people and be part of a creative, student-led team;
- Personal and professional development in team working, event promotion & management;
- Support and advice from our Director of Music;
- The chance to feedback on your experiences and help shape St Mary's future plans.

What we're looking for:

- Energetic and organised people with an interest in music and/or event management;
- A sensitive, welcoming approach to working with others and with the public;
- An enthusiasm to share talents and skills, and to develop knowledge.

Time commitment:

Each Student Panel will meet once a week during the Autumn Term (except Reading week). Timings to be confirmed within the group. We anticipate the commitment to be an average of 2-3 hours per week.

How to register your interest and find out more:

Please register your name, contact details and your availability via this Google form:

Heritage Panel Volunteer

Role Description

Help us create an engaging heritage programme for St Mary le Strand so that we can reach a wider range of audiences for our beautiful, historic building.

Description

St Mary le Strand church, located immediately outside KCL's main entrance on the Strand, is embarking on a major phase of renewal. We want to engage with a larger, more diverse range of people to visit and take inspiration from our unique space. As part of our 'Jewel in the Strand' project, we are now seeking student volunteers to prepare and deliver heritage tours as part of a new visitor welcome programme during the autumn term.

We'd love your help with:

- Devising a general tour for visitors to St Mary's based on an historical/architectural overview of the site provided by St Mary's;
- Acting as visitor welcome/heritage guides to deliver the tour to visitors on four pre-agreed dates in November;
- Liaising with the Digital Student Panel to promote the tour sessions to target audiences and offering feedback to the St Mary's project team to inform future heritage guiding.

What we can offer you:

- The opportunity to meet new people and be part of a creative, student-led team;
- Personal and professional development: team working; heritage tour content development, promotion and hosting;
- Training in visitor engagement from local practitioners supported by Revd Peter Babington (Priest in Charge);
- Support and advice from our Peter Mapleston who has written the history of the church;
- New experiences and an opportunity to shape St Mary's future plans.

What we're looking for:

- Energetic and organised people with an interest in history, architecture and/or heritage guiding;
- A sensitive, welcoming approach to working with others and with the public;
