

Liberty Equestrian Center Summer Camps 2023

Planned for new and experienced riders alike, Liberty Equestrian Center Summer Camp provides children age 7 and older an immersion into the world of horse riding and management, as well as other fun activities (grain bag couture fashion show, perhaps?).

Our camp is designed to expose campers to the full experience of horse management, from the fun (riding, grooming, bathing) to the not-so-fun-but-still-important (shoveling manure, mucking stalls, caring for tack). In addition to learning to ride and care for horses, campers will also get to do crafts, tie-dye, and other fun activities to round out their days.

Our top priorities are safety, fun, and good horsemanship!

Camp includes:

- Twice-daily lessons - including grooming, riding, tacking, groundwork, horse care
- Horse safety
- Craft projects
- Games and activities
- Camp t-shirt tie-dye

What to wear and bring:

- Jeans (they will get dirty)
- T-shirt (it will get dirty)
- Boots with a 0.25-0.5 inch heel
- Helmet
- Water bottle
- Lunch that does not require refrigeration

Camper expectations:

- Respect the directions and decisions of the counselors
- Respect the other campers
- Respect the horses
- Respect the facilities and equipment

Please complete the attached camp registration form and pay the full camp fee via PayPal!

If your child has not ridden with us before, please also complete the attached liability waiver.
