Dear Mr. and Mrs. Chopra,

I am honored to recognize you both as you mark the 11th anniversary of Global Seva Fund and take part in the celebration of America's 250th year.

Your many years of service reflect a deep and sustained commitment to helping others. Since launching Global Seva Fund in 2015, you have created opportunities for individuals and families to access education, health support, and essential assistance. Your work has touched lives in meaningful ways and continues to strengthen communities here and beyond.

This occasion is a fitting time to highlight the example you set through your dedication and leadership. The upcoming Gala Awards celebration brings together individuals who share a strong sense of responsibility to serve and to give back.

Please accept my congratulations on this milestone and my best wishes for a successful event. I hope the evening is a memorable one for all involved and that your efforts continue to make a lasting difference.

Sincerely,
