Dear Credit Bureau:

After looking at my credit report, I noticed errors with my personal information. Listed below are the problems with my personal data.

Reason: Instruction:

I know that you want proof of my personal information that is listed above, so I decided to include this information in the letter to make it easy for you to delete the inaccurate personal information. Please go ahead and fix this inaccurate information and get back with me as soon as possible. 30 days should be enough time to fix this problem. If you can update me sooner, that would be better.

Thanks in advance and don't work too hard.
