Movies on Wild Life Thrilled Sportsmen

Moving pictures on "Wild Life" were shown in the Terre Hill Fire Hall on Monday evening during the regular meeting of the North Eastern Lancaster County Rod and Gun Club before a crowded house, which met the approval of the large number of sportsmen in attendance.

The meeting opened with the President, A. G. Oberholzer in charge. He gave a few brief remarks concerning the activities of the club and also stated a large number of sportsmen having been enrolled during the recent membership drive.

Prominent members in the sporting world were present, many of them serving in official capacities in the various counties. Mr. Pile who is Fish Warden in three counties was present and when called upon gave a brief address. During his speech he lauded the efforts of those who brought about the organization of this club, and was pleased to see the keen interest shown. He believes that through organized clubs the sportsmen become better acquainted with game conservation and therefore regard violations a detriment to their own sport which undoubtedly results in better conditions.

Moving Pictures on "Wild Life" shown by Mr. Norman Wood featured the evenings activities. Unusual reels of hunting, fishing and wild life in general with intermittent lecturing by Mr. Wood as the various pictures flashed on the screen were greatly enjoyed by the sportsmen.

A special meeting of the club to transact important business will be held in Miller Richmonds Hall at Five-pointville next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

POET'S CORNER

Spring Memory

You slipped away
While things that you held dear
Were burgeoning once more
With brilliant bloom;
Arbutus, sweetening the woodland ways,
Forsythia's gold spray, white crocus flowers,
Daffodils and tulips all aflame.

And you loved music too;
The flutes of spring
Were piping soft and sweet,
When quite unknowingly you smiled,
Then turned at last to sleep.

You will not hear
The robin's lyric call,
Nor choruses
By night's lone singers sung.
The symphony of wind
In swaying trees;
No, none of these.

And yet, because you loved
This beauty so,
With spring's return
Your memory will glow.

of Chicago,

Lesson for March 27

CORRECTING WRONG IDEAS OF RELIGION

LESSON TEXT—Mark 7:1-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—This people honoreth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. Mark 7:6.
PRIMARY TOPIC—At Dinner-Time.
JUNIOR TOPIC—What Is Real Religion?
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—
What Counts with God?
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC— Responsible Responsibilities.

The never-ending struggle of Christianity is to keep the simple gospel of the grace of God in Christ Jesus free to operate in all its glory and power, unencumbered by the traditions and formulas of men. It has been my privilege to read a recent book by a brilliant young man who, while serving as a professor of philosophy in a large university, is also versed in the related fields of theology, psychology, psychiatry, and psychotherapy. He has had first-hand experience in dealing with the problems of men and women. With this background of both study and experience he gives us his absolute conviction that we must get "back to the original simplicity of the Christian gospel." He suggests that we need to "dust off the additions and superstructures" that have been added since Christ came to seek and to save the lost.

Our lesson for today finds Jesus meeting that very issue with the traditionalists of His day.

I. Washed Hands and Unwashed Hearts (vv. 1-6).

In the process of interpreting the law of Moses and applying it to the affairs of daily life the religious authorities of Israel had developed a mass of intricate and onerous rules which had literally buried the law itself and had substituted ritualistic formalism for spiritual life. So fond had the scribes and the Pharisees become of these traditions that they became bold enough to declare that they were far superior to the law itself.

Their attack on Jesus because His disciples ate with unwashed hands did not refer to the proper cleansing of one's hands before eating, but to the ceremonial washings which were said to be necessary if one had accidentally touched a Gentile, or something that a Gentile had touched in the market place.

Jesus skillfully and finally dispenses of that question by reminding the objectors that they were serving God with their lips only, but their hearts were far from Him. Washed hands are not a thing to be condemned, and Jesus says nothing about that point. When the washing of hands becomes of more importance than the cleansing of the heart, however, the soul is in real danger.

II. Traditions of Man Versus the Commandment of God (vv. 7-13).

Here is the heart of the entire matter, for while we may not always be aware of it the fact is that our anxiety to maintain human tradition which is contrary to the law and Spirit of God is fundamentally for the purpose of evading our God-given responsibility.

The Jew who was so avaricious that he did not wish to support his aged and needy parents could entirely evade that God-given responsibility by declaring that his property was "Corban," dedicated to God. Thereafter no matter how great was the need or his parents they could receive nothing. The execution of this oath was carried out to such a fine point that a son who had declared his property to be "Corban" could visit a sick father or mother for only a brief period lest he might stay long enough to perform some duties of a nurse and so contribute to his parents by saving them some expense.

Thus do men even in our day make "the word of God of none effect" (v. 13), through their traditions. No right minded person objects to the worthy traditions of worship and service which are such a precious heritage of the Christian church. Rightfully apprehended and properly used they are both desirable and helpful. But we must never permit the grace and power of God in Jesus Christ "to be brought under the trammels of human teachers or the arrangements of human office-bearers. The first movement toward the mastery of the soul by tradition is the movement of that soul away from immediate, direct, first-hand fellowship with God" (Morgan).

The crying need of our day, as it was of the time when Jesus was on earth, is that we should clear away hindering encumbrances.

ELECTRIC COOKERY SAVES OVEN WATCHING AND ASSURES PERFECT RESULTS—

With Automatic Cookery you can literally forget the meal and let it cook itself. In fact, you are asked to do just this with Electric Cookery!

The automatic controls in the electric range are so accurate and exact that even a child can cook a perfect meal every time.

But even more important to every housewife is the economy of electric cookery . . . there is less food shrinkage; consequently you have more food for your money and, since there is less shrinkage and less loss of juices and valuable mineral salt salts and vitamins, even the cheaper cuts of meat may be cooked to the same flavorful tastiness that you now expect only from the more expensive cuts with your present cooking methods.

Stop in . . . see the beautiful new ranges now on display . . . let us show you how simple and inexpensive they are to operate.

Gog and Magog
Gog is a hostile power that, according to Ezekiel 28 and Book of Revelations 20, is to manifest itself in the world immediately after the end of things. Magog, who is joined with Gog in the passage from Revelations, is the name of Gog's origin in the passage from Ezekiel.
There are two giant effigies of Gog and Magog in Guildhall, London, the legends attached to which are of unknown date. The effigies date from 1708 and replace those destroyed by the "great fire." According to some tales, Gog and Magog were the survivors of a race of giants descended from the 33 wicked daughters of Diocletian. After their brethren had been slain by Brutus and his companions, Gog and Ma-gog were brought to London and compelled, as the story goes, to carriage as porters at the gate of the royal palace. Effigies similar to the present ones existed in London as early as the time of Henry V.

POET'S CORNER

Contentment

Contentment is in stars at night,
In March rains tapping at the pane;
A bed of hyacinths, pale white,
Can soothe the troubled heart again.

Real peace is not in hidden things,
Wrapped deep in folds of mystery;
It smiles from every bird that sings,
Embraces every friendly tree.

Contentment is in common life,
The smallest parts of daily life;
Sustaining hope from day to day,
It locks the door on inner strife.

—LYNDON HESS

Celebrate with us — the 300th Anniversary of the Founding of Pennsylvania

Authorized by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth, the Governor has issued a proclamation declaring April 8, 1938, a Legal Holiday in Pennsylvania, in order to celebrate—with thanksgiving—300 years of "Godly Civilization". It will be called "Forefathers' Day" as part of a three-day celebration—April 7th, 8th and 9th—throughout the State.

Three hundred years ago, on April 8th, 1638, a hardy band of pioneers, led by Peter Minuit aboard the good ship Kalmars Nyckel, four months out of Gothenberg, Sweden, landed on these shores. They called their colony New Sweden. This was the foundation of Pennsylvania civilization.

Towns and cities throughout the State will hold school exercises, parades, air shows, "Forefathers' Day" luncheons and dinners. We cordially invite our friends from other States throughout the Nation to participate. In Philadelphia there will be a giant three-day celebration, climaxing on Saturday, April 9th, at 9:00 A.M. with a monster parade of Federal, Military and Naval forces; the entire Penna. National Guard under General Shannon; Police and Firemen; Patriotic, Civic and Fraternal organizations and School groups; all to be reviewed by Governor Earle and the 300th Anniversary Commission. Following will be a thrilling aircraft demonstration by National Guard, State, Army and Navy planes.

Plan right now to help Pennsylvania do honor to the noble band of Swedes who founded it. Either join with your local community or plan a trip for this great Anniversary. Thirty thousand miles of glorious, modern highways, throughout scenic and historic Pennsylvania stretch out before you. Come by Motor, by Train, by Bus. An old-fashioned welcome awaits you.

Third Wedding Anniversary

On Sunday, March 20 a group of relatives and friends assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Styer in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Styer's third wedding anniversary. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Buzzard Glory Orchestra of near Churchtown, composed of Mr. Adam Styer and sons, Norman, Robert, Horace and Harold. A delicious dinner and supper was served to the guests at which time a beautiful wedding cake adorned the large table. Mr. and Mrs. Styer received numerous gifts in keeping with the third anniversary legend—leather. At a late hour the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Styer many more happy years together.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weaver, East Earl; Mr. and Mrs. Adam Styer and sons, Horace, Jacob and Harold of near Churchtown; Mr. Robert Styer and friend, Miss Mary Beachley, Reading; Mr. Clarence Arnold and friend Miss Kay Miller, Mohnton; Miss Helen Lopinski, Warwick; Miss Marie Care, Pottstown; Mr. Wildfield Miller, Pine Swamp; Mr. Miller is the proprietor of "Sunny View Mouse Ranch"; Mr. and Mrs. Morris Care of Warwick; Mrs. Goldie Gelger, Mrs. Elizabeth Care, Warwick; Mr. Lee Miller, Beckersville and the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Norman Styer.

Driving "Clinic" Opened in State

A "clinic" for novice drivers—first of a series to be established throughout the state—was put in operation last week under supervision of the Pennsylvania Motor Police at the State Farm Show Building.

When full equipment is received, said Commissioner P. W. Foote, the beginner motorists will receive driving instructions in a specially constructed dual-control car. "We're going to make it possible for people all over the state who don't know how to drive automobiles, to learn from expert instructors, and with no expense to themselves," the Commissioner asserted.

The driver clinics, conducted cooperatively with the WPA, the Governor's Safety Council, the Department of Agriculture and local motor clubs throughout the state, are one phase of a campaign to reduce traffic accidents in Pennsylvania.
