Slides on the "Ministry of Jesus"

We have entered this, another season of Lent. We approach the season when "Jesus set his face steadfastly toward Jerusalem." In order to catch the real significance of these last days we must follow Jesus and trace his foot steps. Foot steps that led him from the wilderness experience to the cross and eventually from a sealed tomb. In order that we may see this picture more vividly the pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical church will give an illustrated lecture on the "Ministry of Jesus" this coming Sunday evening at 8:00 P. M. We wish to extend to all our friends a cordial invitation to attend this service.

"The Thunder of the Sea"

at Center Lutheran Church

"The Thunder of the Sea," said to be the first documentary sound motion picture to be produced by any religious body in America, will be seen and heard in Center Church on Wednesday, March 16 at 7:30 o'clock. The occasion is the Congregational Birthday Assembly of Center Lutheran Congregation, Rev. A. W. Leibensperger, pastor.

The film, prepared by the Board of American Missions and presented by the United Lutheran Church in America to all its congregations in the United States and Canada, depicts the place of the Church in the modern world and shows how it extends its teachings to meet the requirements of growing populations. It has been acclaimed by critics as being a most dramatic and most unusual presentation.

POET'S CORNER

Lines for Lent

If Christ should come again today
And see us in our present plight,
Talking the tongue of hate and greed,
Thinking naught of the sick world's need,
What would He say—the Nazarene?

Would He bestow His smile of old,
And so erase the stain of gold?
Take us beside a rippled stream,
Speak to us on His age-old theme
Of brotherhood and peace to man?

Or would He bear the lash, rebuke,
And drive us from His temple, earth?
As in the distant years ago
He dealt the money-changers so.

Spirit of Christ, descend today,
Teach us above all else to pray,
Forgetful of self and empty gain,
False ambitions, paltry pride,
And Christ of pity who healeth pain,
Restore our bewildered souls again.

Farmer is Killed When Horses Run Away with Wagon

Henry F. Stoltzfus, forty-four, farmer of near Morgantown, was fatally injured Tuesday afternoon when thrown from a wagon to the highway in front of his barn. He died of a fractured skull in the Lancaster General hospital at 3:45 P. M. less than three hours after the accident.

Stoltzfus was driving a flat-bottomed wagon down a grade in Route 23, just west of Morgantown, when the team, a pair of nervous horses he had purchased less than a year, before became frightened at the rattling of the empty wagon behind them. The team gained speed as they approached the entrance to Stoltzfus' farm, and in making the turn the wagon struck a post.

The man was hurled to the macadam surface of the highway, and the wagon was wrecked, pinning one horse beneath. A passerby rushed Stoltzfus to the office of Dr. J. A. Zook in Morgantown, and the physician rendered first aid and sent him to the Lancaster hospital, where he was admitted at 1:30 P. M.

Dr. A. V. Walter, of Brownstown, county coroner, issued a verdict of accidental death from a fractured skull.

The victim is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Stoltzfus, his wife, three sons and two daughters, at home; two brothers, Stephen B. Stoltzfus of Kissel Hill,

Lesson for March 13

FEEDING THE HUNGRY

LESSON TEXT—Mark 6:30-44.

GOLDEN TEXT—Give ye them to eat.

Mark 6:37.

PRIMARY TOPIC—When Jesus Fed a Hungry Crowd.

JUNIOR TOPIC—A Boy's Part in a Great Miracle.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Sharing What We Have.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—
Providing for the Needs of All.

"My God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus" (Phil. 4:19). Such is the assurance of God's Word. Countless Christians have proved it to be true that they may trust God to supply every need—temporal or spiritual.

The lesson for today first presents the disciples as they had come back from their preaching expedition and presented to the Lord Jesus a report of their stewardship in ministering of the bread of life to the spiritually needy. He invites them to a place apart from the busy walks of daily life for a time of communion and rest. The multitude would not be denied, however, and follow our Lord to the desert place. Having taught them, Jesus has opportunity to instruct His disciples in the important ministry of supplying for those in need the bread for their bodies.

I. The Ministry of the Bread of Life.

Reports of accomplishments in the field of Christian work (although sometimes an earnest accounting of stewardship of service and money) are all too often prepared for the purpose of impressing men and seeking their financial assistance. The real report is the one which disciples make to their Lord. It concerns two vital points.

1. "What they had done" (v. 30). One of the temptations which face the preacher and teacher of Christian truth is to avoid unpleasant and difficult problems by simply proclaiming the truth and doing nothing about the outworking of that truth in daily living. It sounds very pious to say that we will present the Word and let it do its own work, but the Christian worker who craves his duty to deal at close grips with sin and disorder in the church and community has not discharged his responsibility to Christ.

2. "What they had taught" (v. 30). The second temptation of the preacher is to follow the specious reasoning of the modernist who says that it does not matter what a man believes, it is what he does that counts. The foundation of Christian character is Christian doctrine. Therefore the disciple of Christ must know what to teach, and give account to the Lord for his teaching. Teaching and doing the commandments of God go hand in hand.

II. The Ministry of Daily Bread.

Jesus found no rest, for the multitudes followed Him to the other side of the lake. Ere long the evening approaches, and the disciples begin to be concerned about how this great multitude is to be fed. They follow the inclinations of the flesh and decide to solve the problem by asking Jesus to

1. "Send them away" (v. 36). The church has followed their example in dealing with the social problems of the people grown through the years. The result is that being denied fellowship, comfort, and help by a church which was too busy building up a vast organization or a beautiful order of worship, the common people have responded to the appeal of political leaders who have provided a substitute for what the church should have given them.

Serious thoughts are these. It will not do for us to "send them away" from the church empty hearted and empty handed. Our Lord says—

2. "Give ye them to eat" (v. 37). Reckoning hastily on what a small boy had brought for his lunch (trust an alert boy to be ready!), the disciples soon demonstrate that it is impossible to feed this great throng. Logic is such a devastating thing when it operates apart from faith in God. They were absolutely right in their reasoning and in their calculations, but they had forgotten the one factor that really counted. Jesus was there, and Jesus is God, and God is omnipotent.

3. "He commanded . . . and they did all eat" (vv. 39, 42). When God speaks, all the limitations of the finite disappear, and the needs of men are fully met—with "twelve baskets full of fragments" left over!

Let those who labor in difficult places with limited resources take heart—and trust God.

Wisdom

Wisdom allows nothing to be good that will not be so forever; no man to be happy but he that needs no other happiness than what he has within himself; no man to be great or powerful that is not master of himself.—Seneca.

Longings

Every longing should become an active impulse in the soul. Our longing should lead us into all paths of Christly service and all heroic duty.

TEST, TEST AND TEST

AMERICAN industry, according to Consumers Information, surpasses that of any other country in its exact methods of testing products and so assuring maximum performance before passing them on to the user. One company reports, for instance, that 25% of its labor and cost of production goes into testing. Above are shown tests of two of the 600 different operations which go into the manufacture of their vacuum cleaners. The young lady is balancing the fan, an intricate job in which she puts tiny drops of solder on the light side until the balance is perfect. Inset, operator testing air passage, suction power and waiting, on a government test block.

$2,500,000 for 85 Per Cent of Tobacco Crop

Eighty-five per cent of the 1937
tobacco crop has passed into the hands of packers and brought upwards of $2,250,000 to $2,500,000 to Lancaster county farmers thus far, County Farm Agent Floyd S. Bucher estimated.

"The crop is moving," Bucher said,
"and the remaining fifteen per cent
will be cleaned up. Although the wet weather caused wildfire and irregularities, the top price—13 and 5, and 15 and 5—were as high as any in recent years."

Sections where the crop is intensively grown suffered the most because plant diseases could spread easily, he said, and some lots have been sold for a flat 8, 9, or 10, and in a few cases for 4 or 5, flat.

Mrs. Fair was stretching the line in the rear of her home, when the line

taining wall into an alley leading to the rear of the property. Dr. John F.
Mentzer, Ephrata, gave emergency treatment and ordered her removal to the hospital.
