A. G. Oberholzer Heads Rod and Gun Club

Monday evening about 70 Sportsmen attended a meeting held in the Fire Hall in the interest of organizing a Rod and Gun Club.

Mr. J. Elmer Zimmerman of Blue Ball opened the meeting by stating the purpose for which it had been called and then he introduced Mr. Robert Hartzler, Secretary of the Eastern Rod and Gun Club who was present to help organize the Club. He thoroughly explained the advantage of an organized club and emphasized the influence and recognition the various clubs have upon the Game Commission when they approach them for fish and game for restocking purposes. A large membership was also stressed in order to obtain the best results. After Mr. Hartzler concluded with his suggestions and plans for the good of the Sportsmen in this locality, they took his advice and immediately organized. The following officers were elected to serve until the first meeting in October: President, A. G. Oberholzer; Vice President, George Leed; Secretary, J. Elmer Zimmerman; Financial Secretary, Robert Homan; Treasurer, Phares Martin.

The North Eastern Lancaster County Rod and Gun Club was the name chosen for this organization, with membership dues of 35c per year.

In order to have a large roster which undoubtedly will prove most effective in obtaining recognition from the Commission, the club plans to include a large territory surrounding Terre Hill in its drive for membership.

Districts will be outlined and a Director chosen who will represent the sportsmen in his District.

Another meeting is being planned for Monday evening, March 21st, 1938. Watch for further announcements in this column.

POET'S CORNER

To a Practical Person

You say you've never thrilled to see
The slow, shy, budding of a tree,
Nor felt the tears spring to your eyes,
Beholding silver-studded skies.

Your heart was never lifted up
At seeing wonder in a cup
Of brightest gold and emerald green,
Fashioned by Hands no eye hath seen.

Music has little charm you say,
For one who craves the everyday,
Your spirits' never known delight
In quiet thoughts, alone, at night.

You have your fortune, rank, and fame,
I but an humble and unknown name,
Yet, though my worldly goods be few,
Oh famished soul, I pity you!

Lesson for February 27

MEASURING A MAN'S WORTH

LESSON TEXT—Mark 8:1-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—How much then is a man of more value than a sheep?—Matthew 12:12.

PRIMARY TOPIC—A Man Who Went Home Well.

JUNIOR TOPIC—What Is a Man Worth?

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What Am I Worth?

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Putting People Before Profit.

Awful is the scene that meets us as we go with our Lord across the sea of Galilee and draw up to the shore of the country of the Gadarenes. Distressing beyond words is the plight of the man who is under the power of a legion of the demons of Satan; inspiring is the assurance that Christ is victor over the devil and his hosts; soul-searching is the disappointing picture of the men as they evaluate their brother's spiritual need over against personal gain.

The same mighty conflict between the two great spiritual kingdoms, of good and evil, God and Satan, goes on in our day. Jesus Christ is still "greater . . . than he that is in the world" (I John 4:4). Equally true is it that we must each one of us choose what is to be our attitude toward the conflict, and especially toward the Christ.

I. The Power of Satan (vv. 1-5).
Foolish men sometimes speak boldly about Satan as though he were only a weakling, or perchance but a creature of legend.

The devil, who is but one being, operates through many evil spirits, or demons. They are everywhere active, and it appears from Scripture that they seek a physical body through which they may function. Demon-possession, which was so common in our Lord's day, still exists, especially on the mission field. There are some who believe that the almost unbelievable cunning and brazen wickedness of modern gangsters is an expression of demoniac control.

The text graphically portrays what becomes of a poor soul who has gotten into the clutches of Satan. It is a dark and terrifying picture known to us even in this year of 1938. But, thank God, there is a way of deliverance.

II. The Victory of Christ (vv. 6-13).

The command of Jesus (v. 8) evidently preceded the cry of the demons (v. 7). Notice that the demons who hated our Lord had no doubts about His being the Son of God. They knew Him. How strange it is that many voices that deny His deity come from the pulpit, the professor's chair, or over the radio, in the name of Christianity!

The demons knew His power, also, for though they adured Him not to torment them, they realized that they must obey His command to "come out of the man." They asked permission to enter the swine.

III. The Perversity of Man (vv. 14-17).

The keepers of the swine fled to tell the owners. They and others came to see what had happened. They saw the demoniac seated, clothed and in his right mind, "and they greatly rejoiced and magnified the name of the Lord." Did they? No, indeed! "They were afraid" (v. 15), "and they began to pray him to depart" (v. 17).

Why were they afraid? Two reasons are suggested. In the first place they wanted no spiritual activity that would interfere with their business. Swine were of more value in their sight than the liberation of demon-possessed men. They have their successors in our day. Such are the men who rent their buildings for taverns and dance halls because they want money. Akin to them are those who counsel against the expenditure of money to keep the church open, the Sunday school operating, and for the sending of missionaries into fields white unto harvest.

A tract entitled "Suppose" asks the pertinent and searching question, "Suppose I were offered $10,000 for every soul I led to Christ; would that compel me to do more than I now do because of the constraining love of Christ?"

Another reason for their fear was that they did not want to be disturbed in their state of spiritual slumber. Someone has said that the reason the church of our day does not have a revival is because it doesn't want it. If revival fires began to burn crooked things would have to be made straight, worldliness would have to be put away, the pursuit of money would have to be set aside while men sought souls.
