The SHOWeD Discussion Guide

Move from "What the text says" to "How I will live."

S — What do you See in the passage? Observe the facts: Who is there? What is repeated? What specific instructions are given? [Write your response here. I notice:]

H — What is really Happening? Go beyond surface observation to draw out the context, conflict, and what is taking place beneath the surface. What does it mean? Why are these things happening in the text? [Write in your own words:]

O — How does this relate to Our lives? How do is this biblical situation reflect your current reality, struggles, or community? Personal Connection/Community Reality

W — Why does this Scripture matter to us? What are the spiritual roots? Why did God want this preserved for us today? Write your "Why":

e — Explain/Educate & Feel How would you explain this to a friend? What emotions (conviction, relief, awe) does it stir? Reflect on your Explanation/Emotion:

D — What will you Do this week to address the situation? [This is my specific "Action Step" for this week:
