Eryc Taylor Dance (ETD) announces their 10th Anniversary New Choreographer Grant Concert on March 22, 2024, at 5:30 PM at The Martha Graham Studio Theater, NYC (55 Bethune Street, New York, NY 10014, 11th Floor, Studio 1). Doors open 30 minutes before showtime for general admission.

RECIPIENTS

Chloe Crenshaw

Sunhi Keller

Kayla Laufer

Olivia Passarelli

Rosa Wolff

The 2024 ETD New Choreographer Grant Concert will present live dance performances from five emerging choreographers, followed by a Q&A with the audience and choreographers moderated by Artistic Director Eryc Taylor.

Eryc Taylor Dance provides grants to aspiring choreographers to enable them to produce an original 15-20 minute piece. Eryc Taylor Dance reviews applications and selects grant recipients based on merit, dance experience, passion for choreography, and production innovation.

The ETD New Choreographer Grant is made possible by the Marta Heflin Foundation and the New York State Council on the Arts (NYSCA) with the support of the Office of the Governor and the New York State Legislature.

Tickets can be purchased online or at the door, and space is limited to 100 seats on a first-come, first-served basis.

$20 Student/Artist Ticket

$30 General Admission Ticket

Eryc Taylor Dance

Eryc Taylor Dance (ETD), established in 2006, is a New York-based nonprofit dance company that tours globally. The Company has performed at Lincoln Center Out-of-Doors, Joyce Soho, Joe's Pub at The Public Theater (NYC), New York Live Arts, Teatro Armando Manzanero, and Teatro José Peón Contreras (Merida, Mexico), Martha Graham Studio Theater, Bryant Park Theater, Guild Hall (East Hampton, NY), Busan Cultural Center (Busan, South Korea), and Provincetown Amphitheater (Cape Cod, MA). ETD is a recipient of funding from LMCC and NYSCA, made possible with grant funding from The Office of The Governor of NYS. ETD is the Dance/NYC's Coronavirus Dance Relief Fund recipient and receives generous support from The Marta Heflin Foundation.

For more information, visit <https://etd.nyc/>.

Eryc Taylor (Artistic Director) is the Artistic Director of the internationally recognized nonprofit dance company Eryc Taylor Dance and its social impact division, ETD Outreach. He is a performer, speaker, writer, choreographer, director, producer, inventor, board member, and curator. Taylor holds an MFA in Dance from NYU Tisch. Taylor curates 20+ therapeutic movement workshops throughout NYC weekly for ETD Outreach. He has received grants, awards, and City and State funding from NYSCA, The Office of Kathy Hochul, LMCC, SVOG, and the Dance/NYC Coronavirus Relief Fund. Taylor has directed tours in Merida, Mexico, at BIDS in Busan, South Korea. Taylor's 2019 project EARTH involved past recipients of ETD's New Choreographer's Grant and was featured on PBS ALL ARTS in a series titled "Climate Artists." Taylor is the Founder and Inventor of BurnBarre, LLC, the world's first truly portable ballet barre.
