

TIMELINE

History

Specialty Records / WEA Mfg / Cinram Mfg / Technicolor

1946

SPECIALTY RECORDS
210 N VALLEY AVE

The Marquardt family forms Specialty Records and opens the Olyphant facility

Warner Communications announces it will acquire Specialty Records and construct a new production facility

1978

ACQUIRED BY WARNER COMMUNICATIONS

1979

1400 E LACKAWANNA AVE

Officials break ground for the new facility in the Mid Valley Industrial Park

Specialty Records renamed its facility to WEA Manufacturing (Warner-Electra-Atlantic)

1996

WEA MANUFACTURING

2003

CINRAM MANUFACTURING

WEA Manufacturing was sold to Cinram International, a Canadian company

Cinram Manufacturing was sold to Technicolor, a French company

2015

TECHNICOLOR

2018

BUILDING CLOSED

Technicolor closed its doors for good

The old building was demolished to make way for the new Canpack facility

2020

BUILDING DEMOLISHED

