AN AMAZING HISTORICAL AND CULTURAL ACADIAN TOUR!

Take advantage of this incredible tour to visit and travel through time as you will be delighted by the fantastic landscapes, the cultures and the fascinating history of this vast region.

FIRST PART: CAPE BRETON Island (Île Royale)

- Visit the Acadian village of Pomquet on the way to Cape Breton from Halifax
- Stay in Chéticamp, exploring the area, including the church, Trois Pignons Museum, and Genealogy Centre, with a traditional Acadian supper and exciting kitchen party
- Tour the Cabot Trail with views of mountains and ocean
- Visit Fortress Louisbourg National Historic Site

SECOND PART: Dreaming of the ÎLES-DE-LA-MADELEINE

- Ferry from PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND to the Magdalen Islands
- Three full days exploring the islands' Acadian culture and beautiful scenery
- Villages include: Havre-Aubert, Fatima, Havre-aux-Maisons, Grande-Entrée, etc.
- Discover charming churches, quaint small museums, unique craft shops, and local products across the island

THIRD PART: SAINT-PIERRE-ET-MIQUELON, a few days in France

- Experience the unique French character of Saint-Pierre, located 25 km off the coast of Newfoundland, with its colorful houses and vibrant atmosphere
- Guided bus and walking tours of Saint-Pierre, highlighting landscapes, architecture, and Acadian & French history
- Take a full day trip to the Acadian Islands of Miquelon and Langlade via a 60-minute ferry, including guided tours and historical meetings.
- Indulge in French gastronomy with wine, cheese, baguette, foie gras, chocolates, pastries, and more. Then, fly from Saint-Pierre to Halifax.
