ABOUT US

When you hear AC/DC or Def Leppard, you think powerful hard rock. Now put another band on that list. Blond Viper is the next incarnation of the genre and their music is keeping classic hard rock alive.

Driving guitars, shredding vocals, and killer harmonies are just a few ways to describe the band. Blond Viper's music is best summed up this way: "Music is emotion, and emotion can get your heart pumping. That's what we try to do, as well as relate to everyone listening." says Todd Magnuson, founder of the band and lead singer.
