The purpose of the Murray-Calloway County Community Foundation is to improve the quality of life in Murray and Calloway County, both today and in the future.

The Murray-Calloway County Community Foundation works with donors to create and grow endowment funds that provide a source of funds for our community for generations to come.

The Weaver Challenge for Charities is instrumental in helping build non-profit endowment funds. Because of the Weavers' vision and their family's continued commitment, the Murray-Calloway County Community Foundation will match donations raised by each organization up to $5,000. The match will be placed in an endowment for that non-profit.

- This partnership between the Murray and Calloway County non-profits and the Community Foundation is one of cooperation and is purposely designed to build endowments so their good work will be available well into the future.
- As a donor, 100% of your donation goes to the non-profit you designate.

Weaver Legacy

In 1985, Drs. Dick and Jan Weaver moved to Murray. Jan had accepted the position of Dean of Education at Murray State University and Dick would continue his consultant business out of Murray. They became involved with Murray State University and the community of Murray immediately. Each one made major contributions to MSU and our community and will continue to do so through their financial endowments that will continue in perpetuity.
