New Orleans, Louisiana

New Orleans is a Louisiana city on the Mississippi River, near the Gulf of Mexico. Nicknamed the "Big Easy," it's known for its round-the-clock nightlife, vibrant live-music scene and spicy, singular cuisine reflecting its history as a melting pot of French, African and American cultures. Embodying its festive spirit is Mardi Gras, the late-winter carnival famed for raucous costumed parades and street parties.

Key West, Florida

Key West, a U.S. island city, is part of the Florida Keys archipelago. It's also Florida's southernmost point, lying roughly 90 miles north of Cuba. Famed for its pastel-hued, conch-style houses, it's a cruise-ship stop also accessible from the mainland via the Overseas Highway. It's known more for its coral reefs – destinations for diving and snorkeling – than for its beaches.

CocoCay, Bahamas

Our private island is a Bahamian paradise. CocoCay®— features all kinds of activities -- snorkeling, kayaking, boating, jet-ski rentals, an aqua park and more -- plus nature walks, beaches and plenty of spots to relax and recharge. New!! Enhanced South Beach with new amenities such as: complimentary shuttle transfer, lounge chairs, floating bar and cabanas.

Nassau, Bahamas

With dazzling beaches, turquoise waters, colorful past and vibrant Junkanoo culture, Nassau is a great place to sun and sightsee. The city is on New Providence Island; just offshore is Paradise Island, home to luxury hotels and resorts.
