DAY PORT

- 1 Anchorage, Alaska - Arrive at your downtown hotel and meet your Journey Host to learn about your upcoming adventure. Anchorage is a place where you can find a coffee shop (or espresso shack) anywhere. Locals enjoy skijoring, a winter sport where a person is pulled on skis by one or more dogs or sometimes a horse. While some cities have deer, Anchorage has lots of moose, known for being a bit rambunctious (and should be steered clear of if seen wandering down a street). There are also plenty of active things to do and attractions to hike, bike and see wildlife such as the Tony Knowles Coastal Trail or Flattop Mountain Trail inside Chugach State Park.
- 2-3 Denali National Park, Alaska – Board the luxurious domed rail cars of the McKinley Explorer to Denali for a two-night stay at this magnificent national treasure. The new Denali Square at the McKinley Chalet Resort is the ultimate base camp for adventures to Denali, followed by relaxing evenings. Enjoy soaring views across the Nenana River into Denali National Park from virtually anywhere on this amazing property, as well as great dining, quality entertainment, and unique local shopping opportunities. With more than six million acres of pristine Alaska Wilderness, Denali National Park with its abundant and easily viewable wildlife and North America’s tallest and most impressive peak will be sure to make your Land+Sea Journey experience one you’ve dreamed of.
- 4 Fairbanks, Alaska - Today you'll head to Fairbanks, Alaska's Golden Heart City. Much of Fairbanks today is an amalgam of modern shops and malls, its history is celebrated at the 44-acre Pioneer Park which includes a Gold Rush Town with 35 restored buildings. Fairbanks also preserved its City Hall, which now houses the Fairbanks Community Museum. The city’s location in Alaska’s interior makes it a gateway to the arctic, and in summer tourist boats run cruises along the Chena and Tanana rivers. For more insight into Fairbanks, the Morris Thompson Cultural & Visitors Center is a good place to start.
- 5-6 Dawson, Yukon - Old-time wooden boardwalks connect frontier-era buildings in the Yukon Territory’s original capital. Wander this subarctic hotspot, which has retained its 19th-century charm. Highlights include the Jack London Museum, Diamond Tooth Gerties Gambling Hall and the Sourdough Saloon.
- 7 Whitehorse, Yukon - Fly to Whitehorse and board the historic White Pass train to Skagway. A popular tourist stop for attractions like the Yukon Wildlife Preserve and the natural and cultural insights at the MacBride Museum.
- 7 Skagway, Alaska - Arrive in Skagway aboard the historic White Pass train. At every turn, you’ll find yourself immersed in gold rush lore, from the infamous Red Onion Saloon that still keeps a pistol that Wyatt Earp left behind en route to the Klondike, to the White Pass & Yukon Route Railroad, a classic narrow-gauge railway that traverses rugged mountains and passes cascading waterfalls and towering glaciers as it connects Skagway to Whitehorse deep in the Yukon. Much of the town has been preserved as part of the Klondike Gold Rush National Historical Park, where rangers offer free walking tours around the historic district. Here you’ll also find a vibrant local community, home to a rich collection of local galleries, curio shops and restaurants serving seafood plucked fresh from nearby waters. Bid your Journey Host farewell, and then embark your ship.
- 8 Glacier Bay - Cruise the ice-studded fjords of this national treasure. Frosted crags descend into mossy forests and a 1,500-foot-deep fjord at this World Heritage Site, which is also one of the planet’s largest biosphere reserves. Stone, ice and water continue to collide, sculpting a dramatic landscape that is the crown jewel of southeastern Alaska’s natural wonders. The formerly glacier-squashed land is rebounding now. A spruce-hemlock rain forest has sprouted near the mouth of Glacier Bay. Father north, the more recently exposed land shows sharper edges and thinner vegetation which is enough to encourage the return of wildlife, from bald eagles to bears, moose and humpback whales.
- 9 Ketchikan, Alaska – Explore this uniquely Alaskan port, famous for its rich native culture, salmon fishing, and scenic Misty Fjords.
- 10 Scenic Cruising the Inside Passage - Relax and enjoy a full day of scenic Inside Passage cruising and immerse yourself in Holland America Line elegance.
- 11 Vancouver, British Columbia
