

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Who may nominate a candidate?

A. Anyone may nominate a worthy candidate that they believe meets the minimum criteria and has significant achievements and/or contributions in the sport of military rodeo.

Q. What do I do with all my pictures and news articles I have?

A. Send copies of them to our Historian at militaryrodeohistory@gmail.com

Q. Can those items and others be used for nomination purposes?

A. Certainly, in fact they will be used as supporting evidence and reviewed by the selection committee; however they will not replace the actual nomination form.

Q. How do I make a nomination?

A. Download the Nominating Form. Complete it, save it and submit it along with any supporting information to militaryrodeohistory@gmail.com

Q. When is the form due?

A. Nomination packages are accepted any time prior to June 1st of each year.

Q. What happens next?

A. Nominations are reviewed by the designee of the Board of Directors to ensure a nomination is complete, accurate and contains information showing that the nominee meets the minimum qualifications of having been a member of the United States Armed Forces as active duty, retired, active/inactive reserve or Guard component and held membership in the Military Rodeo Association (MRA), Military Rodeo Cowboys Association (MRCA), Military Bullriders Association (MBR), European Military Rodeo Cowboys Association (ERCA) or competed in military rodeos prior to 1983 and the formation of formal sanctioning bodies. Stock Contractors, Contract Acts, Rodeo Committees and Rodeo Promoters do not have to meet these requirements; however they must have made significant contributions to military rodeos to be considered. Members of the Armed Forces with less than an Honorable discharge are ineligible for consideration. All approved nominations are sent to the selection committee for consideration.

Q. When will the induction take place?

A. The date and location for the Induction Ceremony will be announced at the completion of each nomination cycle.

Q. Is the Induction Ceremony open to the public?

A. Yes of course. And family and friends are encouraged to attend this historic event in support of the Honoree and military rodeo.
