- Reads the cuts and can get passes inside from perimeter top
- Blocking is a strong part of his defense

- Great IQ on help defense on getting the closest player to him, especially on shots. He is box out closest player
- Does look to pass ball forward on offense, looks for his ball handler to get ball into a play action.
- Has a true post IQ
- Has a good dribble pull up from the 3 pt line
- He is not as aggressive as he could be on rebounding and can be a little soft on perimeter defense, but he doesn't get beat much if defending on the perimeter due to size and wingspan.
