The ten points of the code were given in the section of the judges' verdict entitled "Permissible Medical Experiments":[6]

- 1. The voluntary consent of the human subject is absolutely essential. This means that the person involved should have legal capacity to give consent; should be so situated as to be able to exercise free power of choice, without the intervention of any element of force, fraud, deceit, duress, overreaching, or other ulterior form of constraint or coercion; and should have sufficient knowledge and comprehension of the elements of the subject matter involved as to enable him to make an understanding and enlightened decision. This latter element requires that before the acceptance of an affirmative decision by the experimental subject there should be made known to him the nature, duration, and purpose of the experiment; the method and means by which it is to be conducted; all inconveniences and hazards reasonably to be expected; and the effects upon his health or person which may possibly come from his participation in the experiment. The duty and responsibility for ascertaining the quality of the consent rests upon each individual who initiates, directs, or engages in the experiment. It is a personal duty and responsibility which may not be delegated to another with impunity.
- 2. The experiment should be such as to yield fruitful results for the good of society, unprocurable by other methods or means of study, and not random and unnecessary in nature.
- 3. The experiment should be so designed and based on the results of animal experimentation and a knowledge of the natural history of the disease or other problem under study that the anticipated results will justify the performance of the experiment.
- 4. The experiment should be so conducted as to avoid all unnecessary physical and mental suffering and injury.

5. (No experiment should be conducted where there is an a priori reason to believe that death or disabling injury will occur; except, perhaps, in those experiments where the experimental physicians also serve as subjects.)
6. The degree of risk to be taken should never exceed that determined by the humanitarian importance of the problem to be solved by the experiment.
7. Proper preparations should be made and adequate facilities provided to protect the experimental subject against even remote possibilities of injury, disability, or death.
8. The experiment should be conducted only by scientifically qualified persons. The highest degree of skill and care should be required through all stages of the experiment of those who conduct or engage in the experiment.
9. During the course of the experiment the human subject should be at liberty to bring the experiment to an end if he has reached the physical or mental state where continuation of the experiment seems to him to be impossible.
10. During the course of the experiment the scientist in charge must be prepared to terminate the experiment at any stage, if he has probable cause to believe, in the exercise of the good faith, superior skill and careful judgment required of him that a continuation of the experiment is likely to result in injury, disability, or death to the experimental subject.

NUREMBERG PRINCIPLES

https://en.m.wikipedia.org/wiki/Nuremberg_principles

Principle I:

Any person who commits an act which constitutes a crime under international law is responsible therefor and liable to punishment.

Principle II:

The fact that internal law does not impose a penalty for an act which constitutes a crime under international law does not relieve the person who committed the act from responsibility under international law.

Principle III:

The fact that a person who committed an act which constitutes a crime under international law, acted as Head of State or responsible government official, does not relieve him from responsibility under international law.

PRINCIPLE IV:

Main article: Superior orders

The fact that a person acted pursuant to order of his Government or of a superior does not relieve him from responsibility under international law, provided a moral choice was in fact possible to him.

This principle could be paraphrased as follows: "It is not an acceptable excuse to say 'I was just following my superior's orders'".

Previous to the time of the Nuremberg Trials, this excuse was known in common parlance as "superior orders". After the prominent, high-profile event of the Nuremberg Trials, that excuse is now referred to by many as the "Nuremberg Defense". In recent times, a third term, "lawful orders" has become common parlance for some people. All three terms are in use today, and they all have slightly different nuances of meaning, depending on the context in which they are used.

Nuremberg Principle IV is legally supported by the jurisprudence found in certain articles in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights which deal indirectly with conscientious objection.

It is also supported by the principles found in paragraph 171 of the Handbook on Procedures and Criteria for Determining Refugee Status which was issued by the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR). Those principles deal with the conditions under which conscientious objectors can apply for refugee status in another country if they face persecution in their own country for refusing to participate in an illegal war.

PRINCIPLE V:

Any person charged with a crime under international law has the right to a fair trial on the facts and law.

PRINCIPLE VI:

The crimes hereinafter set out are punishable as crimes under international law:

(a) Crimes against peace:

- (i) Planning, preparation, initiation or waging of a war of aggression or a war in violation of international treaties, agreements or assurances;
- (ii) Participation in a common plan or conspiracy for the accomplishment of any of the acts mentioned under (i).

(b) War crimes:

Violations of the laws or customs of war which include, but are not limited to, murder, ill-treatment or deportation to slave labor or for any other purpose of civilian population of or in occupied territory; murder or ill-treatment of prisoners of war or persons on the Seas, killing of hostages, plunder of public or private property, wanton destruction of cities, towns, or villages, or devastation not justified by military necessity.

(c) Crimes against humanity:

Murder, extermination, enslavement, deportation and other inhumane acts done against any civilian population, or persecutions on political, racial, or religious grounds, when such acts are done or such persecutions are carried on in execution of or in connection with any crime against peace or any war crime.

Leaders, organizers, instigators and accomplices participating in the formulation or execution of a common plan or conspiracy to commit any of the foregoing crimes are responsible for all acts performed by any persons in execution of such plan.

PRINCIPLE VII:

Complicity in the commission of a crime against peace, a war crime, or a crime against humanity as set forth in Principle VI is a crime under international law.

What Is the Declaration of Helsinki?

By

Brandon Peters, MD

Updated on October 27, 2020

Fact checked by

Marley Hall

Medical research in humans depends on important ethical considerations to ensure the protection of the research subjects. One of the most important guiding statements is the Declaration of Helsinki. Learn about its origins and revisions, the principles outlined, and how human research is informed by it.

Introduction

The Declaration of Helsinki is a statement outlining the ethical principles for medical research involving human subjects that was initially adopted by the 18th Assembly of the World Medical Association in Helsinki, Finland in June 1964.¹ It was developed from 10 principles first stated in 1947 in the Nuremberg Code and further incorporated elements from the Declaration of Geneva (made in 1948), a statement of the ethical duties of physicians.

It has been subsequently amended by nine general assemblies of the association, at meetings extending from 1975 to 2013. Though addressed primarily to physicians, its principles provide an ethical foundation that is used by all involved in medical research involving human subjects.

General Guiding Principles

There are several general guiding principles that lay the foundation for the ethical standards further detailed in the statement. These guiding principles include:

Protecting Patient Health

In line with the Hippocratic Oath, espousing the belief to “First, do no harm” (Primum, non nocere), and the Declaration of Geneva that emphasizes “the health of my patient will be my first consideration,” the first priority is to act to promote the health and well-being of patients who are involved in medical research. The research must be designed to reduce potential harm so that it does not exceed the anticipated benefits and it may never supersede these protections.

Knowledge Cannot Trample Rights

The purpose of medical research is to generate new knowledge to better understand the causes, development, and effects of diseases as well as to improve both diagnosis and treatment. According to the Declaration of Helsinki, “This goal can never take precedence over the rights and interests of individual research subjects.” Physicians involved in medical research must protect:

- Life
- Health
- Dignity
- Integrity

- Right to self-determination (autonomy)
- Privacy
- Confidentiality of personal information¹

In order to achieve this, specific considerations must be taken into account.

Additional Considerations

Medical research involving humans should only be conducted by individuals with appropriate scientific and ethical education, training, and qualifications. In most cases, this should be supervised by a qualified physician or healthcare professional. When the research is conducted, it must also minimize potential harm to the environment. Underrepresented groups should be provided adequate access to the research opportunities. If harm occurs, appropriate compensation and treatment for subjects must be provided.

Following Local Regulatory Norms

Physician scientists must also take into account their local ethical, legal, and regulatory norms and standards for research involving human subjects. These requirements should not diminish the protections set forth in the Declaration of Helsinki, but additional protections may be afforded.

Specific Sections

There are 10 specific topic areas addressed within the Declaration of Helsinki as it presently exists, outlined as follows:

Risks, Burdens and Benefits

Medical research must only be conducted if the importance of the findings outweigh the risks and burdens to the research subjects. This involves reflecting on the impacts on the individual participating, as well as the potential benefits to them and others who may be similarly affected by the disease. Risks must be monitored, mitigated, and if beginning to outweigh the potential benefits, the study must be immediately modified or stopped.

Vulnerable Groups and Individuals

Special protections must be implemented to protect some individuals and groups who are particularly vulnerable with a higher likelihood of becoming wronged or incurring additional harm due to their status. These groups may include minor children, the imprisoned, those with intellectual or physical disabilities, as well as racial or ethnic minorities who may face systemic injustice.

Scientific Requirements and Research Protocols

The basis for medical research must rest in sound scientific inquiry. This requires thorough knowledge of the existing scientific literature, other relevant sources of information, and techniques of experimentation. The study design must be clearly described and justified in the research protocol. It is important to disclose information regarding funding, sponsors, institutional affiliations, potential conflicts of interest, incentives for subjects, and compensation for harm.¹

Research Ethics Committees

Prior to the start of the study, the research protocol must be submitted for review by an independent research ethics committee, often an assigned institutional review board. This committee usually consists of qualified experts who transparently provide comment, guidance, and approval of research. Monitoring information may be provided in an ongoing fashion to the committee, especially reporting of serious adverse events. The protocol may not be amended without the committee's knowledge and approval. At the study's conclusion, the researchers submit a final report to the committee that includes a summary of the findings and conclusions.

Privacy and Confidentiality

Personal information must be kept confidential and the privacy of participating research subjects must be protected.

Informed Consent

Participation in medical research must be voluntary and informed consent should be obtained in writing from those who are able to provide it. As part of the consent process, information must be provided about the following:

- Study aims
- Methods
- Funding sources

- Conflicts of interest
- Institutional affiliations
- Anticipated benefits
- Potential risks
- Study outcomes
- Post-study provisions

A potential research subject may initially refuse to participate and has the right to withdraw consent at any time without reprisal. Further considerations exist for those who are incapable of giving informed consent due to mental or physical incapacity, such as obtaining the consent from a legally authorized representative, and are outlined in the Declaration of Helsinki.

Use of Placebo

As a general rule, new interventions must be tested against the existing gold standard, the best proven treatment that presently exists. In rare cases, the new intervention may be compared to a placebo (no intervention) when no proven intervention exists or if there is a compelling reason to determine the efficacy or safety of the intervention and there is deemed to be no additional risk to abstaining from treatment.

Post-Trial Provisions

If an intervention is identified as beneficial within a trial, provision for post-trial access for all participants should be offered.

Research Registration and Publication and Dissemination of Results

All studies involving human subjects should be registered in a publicly accessible database. Upon completion of the trial, the researchers have an ethical obligation to disseminate the results. These reports must be complete and accurate. Negative or inconclusive results, as well as positive findings, must be disclosed.

Unproven Interventions in Clinical Practice

When a proven intervention does not exist, a physician may use an unproven intervention after appropriate considerations that incorporate professional judgment, expert advice and committee oversight, and informed consent. The research must be designed to evaluate its safety and efficacy with findings made publicly available.

A Word From Verywell

Research in human subjects requires careful ethical considerations. The Declaration of Helsinki is an important set of guidelines that inform these reflections. It is the foundation for scientific efforts the world over, protecting those who nobly participate in medical research to benefit not only the health of themselves but also others who may be similarly afflicted. These ethical principles and protections ensure research is done in a way that ensures the best possible outcomes for all.

In Australia, like all Commonwealth Countries, we are all innocent until proven guilty. Likewise, we are all healthy until proven unhealthy. A PCR platform cannot be forced and is not a platform to diagnose if a person is infectious. It is a simple test that gives a binary positive or negative result by amplifications or cycle thresholds of 35-45 times, making something from something inconsequential.

It is disingenuous to take such a test and use a binary result as means to lockdown people.

Governments within Australia are operating in excess of any power given them under OUR Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act . They have been doing this for decades. Australian's are not educated much on our Commonwealth Constitution and migrants are not taught at all. We have an ignorant citizenry because of Government Corruption who removed our Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act 1900 UK from our learning institutions from 1954 to 1973 when they finally phased it out altogether under Gough Whitlam & Bob Hawk. When we first held the Velvet Revolution March on July the 10th 2015 there were fewer than 1% of The People who were aware we even had a Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act 1900 UK

It was intentional so the Corrupt Corporate Government could continue to steal our Rights, Liberties & Freedoms, OUR savings, OUR land and OUR ASSETS, ANY LAW that is inconsistent with the Federal Constitution is a Nullity, and entitled to no obedience.

Every law in this country is subject to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia Act!

Section 109.

“When a law of a State is inconsistent with a law of the Commonwealth, the latter shall prevail, and the former shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, be invalid.”

Which is why DANIEL ANDREWS Bill stalled in Parliament under our Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act!

Prime Minister Scott Morrison AND ALL Premier’s and Ministers know this law (Section 109) and because they have been Complicit, Unrestricted, Irresponsible Omnipotence, having powers within our Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act they should have implemented Section 109 of our Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act to send Daniel Andrews Bill to its grave but instead they passed it, Therefore, We The People Of Australia have raised a force in Unison under A Velvet Revolution to take our Parliaments back,
Our Upper House and Lower House Seats and our Local Council Seats back from this Treasonous, Incompetent, Tyrannical Corrupt Government.

Our Unalienable Rights State:

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain Unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.—

That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men and Women deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed,

--That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is OUR right, it is OUR duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for OUR future security.-

-Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains us to alter our former Systems of Government. The history of the present and past governments of Australia is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Treasonous Tyranny over these States and Territories. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

Prime Minister Scott Morrison - Australia
Premier Daniel Andrews - Victoria
Premier Gladys Berejiklian - New South Wales
Premier Dominic Perrottet - New South Wales
Premier Annastacia Palaszczuk - Queensland
Premier Michael Gunner - Northern Territory
Premier Mark McGowan - Western Australia
Premier Steven Marshall - South Australia
Premier Peter Gutwein - Tasmania
Chief Minister Andrew Barr - ACT Parliament House

Any and all Prime Ministers, Premiers, Senators, Ministers and Councillors of so called Local Government, the Labor Party, the Liberal Party, the National Party, The Greens Party and the Democrats Party have refused to abolish Bills, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good..

- They have forbidden the Governor General to issue writs for new elections due to the fact that The Governor General is no longer the Queens Representative; ever since Bob Hawk committed Treason and introduced the Australia Act in 1986 in which they (ALL KNOWING Members of Parliament) removed the crown from Queen Elizabeth's Head. For Proof of this if you pull out an alleged Australian Currency $5 Note you will notice the image of the Queen wears NO CROWN and there are many other outstanding but so minor things that we simply didn't notice them. For instance the $50 Note with David Unaipon's image on it, to the right side of that image you will see the Unconstitutional Seal of Australia very lightly printed to the left of the Holograph, lift it up to the light and you can see it better. In Australia No Law is Law without referendum of The People and the Assent of our Monarch, Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of the United Kingdom and Northern Ireland, Empress of India, Defender Of The Faith and NO LAW IS LAW without the Assent and Great Seal of Britain, No Money is Money without the Assent of the Queen and the Seal of Great Britain and just so you are aware, our Australian currency is actually counterfeit. Does anyone know what our currency should be?

We actually should be trading in Pounds not counterfeit Australian Dollars and because every contract between you and your bank is in Australian Dollars those contracts are not worth the paper they are written on and you now own your house outright, your car, your business any contract is null and void because it never went to a referendum of The People to pass the Australian Dollar as currency. Until we can make this right we will need to deal in Australian Dollars but that will then be swapped over when we get our actual currency back into Australia.

Gold and Silver is the only form of accepted currency in Australia.

- The Treason has been before our eyes for decades but we did not know what we were looking at due to OUR Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act being hidden from our Education Systems; something we intend to rectify very shortly.
- In addition, OUR Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act states at Section 68. that “The Command in Chief of the Navy and Military Forces of the Commonwealth is vested in the Governor General as the Queens Representative”, but ever since the Australia Act 1986 every Governor General has been a Secretary at the Prime Ministers mercy. When a government commits Treason and makes OUR watchman (The Governor General) to be paid by the current sitting Parliament he will hardly bite the hand that feeds him, in other words our Governor General has committed Treason himself and herself to gain favour with the corrupt corporate government.
- Laws of immediate and pressing importance have been suspended in their operation and do not follow the Rule Of Law pertaining to OUR Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act.
- They have called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with their measures.
- They have removed and separated Ministers from their parliament in order to win votes by deception for passing of certain bills.
- They have dissolved representative’s rights to attend parliament to vote for opposing with firmness; their invasions on the rights of The People.
- They have endeavoured to prevent the population of these States and Territories of Australia to attend work without being Mandatorily Vaccinated, to persist with Vaccine Passports with the cliché “No Jab - No Job” and for that purpose obstructing the Laws that give

The Right to Due Process of Law; with Notice and Opportunity to Defend.

- They have denied The Right to earn a Living Income by being compensated with Wages or a Salary in a Fair Exchange for Ones Work.
- They have obstructed the administration of Justice by a Jury of Ones Peers found only in the High Courts of Australia.
- They have made judges dependent on their will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.
- They have raised a multitude of New Police Officers who are not knowledgeable in the “Rule Of Law or OUR Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act 1900 UK” and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people and enforce Mandatory Vaccines, Vaccine Passports and No Jab - No Job which is against the Human Rights of our people.
- They have kept among us, in times of peace standing Armies without the Consent of our legislatures.
- They have affected to render the Military Independent of and Superior to the Civil power despite OUR Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act stating The People Rule Supreme.
- They have combined with other Foreign Powers to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to OUR Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act and under Section 44i have committed High Treason in doing so unacknowledged by our laws; giving their Corporate Assent under the Queen of Australia to their Acts of pretend Legislation.
- For quartering large bodies of armed troops and police among us and firing on Protesters with Pepper Spray and Rubber Bullets. Our Unalienable Rights include the right to Protest and make Grievances known to those who govern us and for this we have been assaulted and fired upon with many succumbing to grievous bodily harm.
- For Protecting known Paedophiles’ who were in a place of leadership and placing Gag Orders on Victims while Court Files are sealed for up to more than a century, allowing perpetrators to flee from punishment for any Rapes, Injuries, Maiming or Murders which Perpetrators should be made accountable for through our States and Territories Justice System.
- For cutting off Trade with other States and Territories of Australia, making workers who live on borders miss out on work until they are Mandatorily Double Vaccinated (AGAINST The Nuremberg Code)
- For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent.
- For depriving us in millions of cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury.
- For abolishing the FREE System of OUR Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act; Common Laws establishing therein an Arbitrary Corporate Government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies; unrestrained and autocratic in the use of authority, taking no account of other people's wishes or opinions, totally domineering to the point of Communism.

- For changing OUR Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act without referendum of The People and Non-Disclosure of referendum results of our most valuable Laws, and in doing so altering fundamentally the tiers of our Governments.
- For suspending our own legislatures and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for The People in all cases whatsoever.
- The past and current corporate governments of Australia have since 1973 been working on abdicating our Monarch here in Australia by implementing "The Australia Act 1986" and assenting to Laws, Legislation and Acts under a fallacy Queen of Australia which we DO NOT have, The People never went to a referendum on this matter and by doing this they in essence declared us out of our Monarchy's Protection and are Waging War Against US The People of Australia.
- They have initiated Mandatory Vaccinations, Mandatory Vaccine Passports, No Jab - No Job, and destroyed the lives of many of our people through Vaccine Injuries, Maiming, Deaths and Suicides, refusing to see the path of destruction they are leaving in their wake and not abiding by the Nuremberg Code, Nuremberg Principles or the HELINSKI Code.
- They are at this time transporting Army forces into different states and territories of Australia and transporting our people and First Nations people to "Vaccination Camps" as they did in Germany during the Holocaust for processing.
- They have constrained our fellow Citizens and Beared Arms against The People of Australia. They have become the Judge, Jury and Executioner of their friends, family and Brethren, or have left them without hope to fall themselves by their own Hand.
- These COVID-19 vaccines are an experimental drug concoction that many Doctors and Scientists believe are Bioweapons and it STOPS TODAY!

In every stage of these Oppressions we have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. Our so called Prime Minister, Governor General, Governor's, Premiers, Senators and Ministers whose character is thus marked by every act which may be define as High Treason and Tyranny of The People are therefore unfit to be the rulers of FREE PEOPLE.

We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us.

We have implored them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our close connections and correspondence; they too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of the Law In Common.

We, therefore, the Representatives of The People of Australia and The People as a whole Assembled here today under A VELVET REVOLUTION, hereby take back our Parliaments, Establishments, Offices, Buildings, Motorways and Infrastructures paid for by way of revenues paid by The Tax Payers of this Country “Commonwealth of Australia” which consists of 5 States and 2 Territories and we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our Sacred Honour.

at work in every well-ordered society, which prevents the sovereign power from being exercised with unrestricted, reckless, and irresponsible omnipotence, and which tend to chasten and temper, if not curtail, the exercise of supreme authority, whether it be vested in an absolute monarch, or in a king or in parliament, or in a complex body such as a three-fourth majority of the Legislatures of the United States. Among those influences some are internal, to be found in the character, organization, and historical antecedents of the sovereign person or body; but the most powerful are the external surroundings and circumstances which guide and direct the mode of calling into action the sovereign will, such as the right of petition for redress of grievances; the right of public criticism; the right of the public to combine and remonstrate against oppression and wrong-doing, and above all the knowledge possessed by sovereign rulers that if they persist, for any protracted period, in attempting to govern contrary to reason and justice, and contrary to the wishes, interests, and instincts of the bulk of their people, they will lose popular support, encounter popular resistance, and run the risk of rebellion and revolution; as actually happened in England during the reign of James II.

ANY LAW that is inconsistent with the Federal Constitution is a nullity and entitled to no obedience.

- The State does not have any legislative powers to lockdown anyone or any business.
- Freedom of assembly is a protected right.
- Legislative powers regarding quarantine was transferred from the colonies to the Federal Parliament upon federation. The annotations of quarantine refer to animals and plants and their diseases NOT humans.
- Moreover, the Boundaries Act 1895 became void upon federation except for the federal boundary off the coast of Australia; all State hard borders are unlawful. What legislative power gives any State government authority to overturn the constitution? None. Simply because a state of emergency has been declared (which is not proven to exist) does not remove or alter or amend or over turn the Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act 1900.
- The ONLY way to remove the Constitution is by a referendum of The People under s128. We the People already said “NO” in 1999 when asked to become a Republic rather than remain a Constitutional Monarchy and yet the corrupt government still spent $60,000,000.00 to create a Republic Constitution.
- Additionally, in 1974 and 1988, we the people said NO to the establishment of a tier of local government, yet ALL State Governments have placed them in their Constitutions. Local Governments do NOT have any right to exist or demand Council Rates on land in fee simple. Your land is alienated from the Crown and a Corporation also has no authority to tax your property.

LAND TAX WAS ABOLISHED IN 1953

Once a tax has been removed they cannot reinstate it, not even under another name!

ALL of these laws and many more are deeply entrenched in OUR Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act which is Indissoluble.

Not the Government and Not even the Queen can dissolve OUR Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act or the Embedded Rights within it, these RIGHTS, LIBERTIES, FREEDOMS & RESPONSIBILITIES were given to us by Almighty GOD as a Christian Nation, Our Framers of OUR Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act, and OUR Forefathers and Foremothers fought many wars in our past to ensure our Rights, Liberties & Freedoms remained in tact which is why we celebrate ANZAC DAY every year; to Remember and to Honour our Hero's of our Fallen and of our Living Souls... "WE WILL REMEMBER THEM"! Our Forefathers would be turning over in their graves!

Our Constitution holds that;

1. "The People Rule Supreme"
2. Our Constitution gives US "The People" the POWER to Govern; it DOES NOT give this Corrupt Private Corporate Government Registered as a PRIVATE COMPANY; as "COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA" in capital letters which is registered in the United States the POWER to Govern.

3. Politicians are paid out of our Taxes, they work for us!

4. "COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA Private Companies Listed":
COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA under Dun-and-Bradstreet
ALL of this has been done without a "Referendum of The People of the actual Commonwealth of Australia" without Authority or Consent and without Assent from Queen Elizabeth the Second, The Queen of the United Kingdom and Northern Ireland, Empress of India, Defender of the Faith and who is still our Monarch and our Lawful Head of State!
Therefore, these Laws, Legislations, Acts and Rules are UNCONSTITUTIONAL AND UNLAWFUL (unlawful means without Law) and therefore without power as the corrupt corporate government have passed all these laws, legislation, acts, and rules under The Australia Act 1986 with the Queen of Australia as a fictitious identity.

QUOTE

By Quick & Garran

Section 33: “And All Laws”

No difficulty is suggested by the words, “and all laws made by the Parliament of the Commonwealth under the Constitution.” The words “under the Constitution“ are words of limitation and qualification. They are equivalent to the words in the corresponding section of the Constitution of the United States "in pursuance thereof." Supra. Not all enactments purporting to be laws made by the Parliament are binding; but laws made under, in pursuance of, and within the authority conferred by the Constitution, and those only, are binding on the courts, judges, and people. A law in excess of the authority conferred by the Constitution is no law; it is wholly void and inoperative; it confers no rights, it imposes no duties; it affords no protection. "A Law in excess of the authority conferred by the Constitution is NO LAW; it is wholly void and inoperative; it confers no rights, it imposes no duties; it affords no protection".

“The Supreme Absolute and Uncontrollable Authority Remains With The People”

This I believe may justly be termed the sovereign power; for, from that gentleman's (Mr. Findlay's) account of the matter it cannot be sovereign unless it is supreme; for, say's he, a subordinate sovereignty is no sovereignty at all. I had the honour of observing that if the question was asked where the supreme power resided, different answers would be given by different writers. I mentioned that Blackstone would tell you that in Britain it is lodged in the British Parliament; and I believe there is no writer on this subject on the other side of the Atlantic but supposed it to be vested in that body. I stated further that if the question was asked of some politician who had not considered the subject with sufficient accuracy, where the supreme power resided in our Government, he would answer that it was vested in the State Constitutions. This opinion approaches near the truth, but does not reach it, for the truth is the supreme absolute and uncontrollable authority remains with the people.

"Its Interpretation"

Interpretations. — The interpretation of a written document is the process of ascertaining the meaning and intention expressed in it. Sometimes "interpretation," as contrasted with "construction," is used in a narrower sense, to signify - the process of explaining particular provisions in which there is some ambiguity; whilst "construction" is used to signify the process of comparing different parts of the document, and gathering the intent from a survey of the whole. In other words, "interpretation" is thus used in an analytic, and "construction" in a synthetic sense. (See Story, Comm. § 397, et seqq.)

The word "interpretation" is clearly used here in the most general sense, as including both the analytic and the synthetic processes.

This sub-section empowers the Federal Parliament to give the High Court original jurisdiction in any matter arising under this Constitution, or involving its interpretation. But apart altogether from this sub-section, both State and Federal Courts have the duty of interpreting the Constitution, which is the supreme law of the Commonwealth, in every case in which they have jurisdiction and in which rights or obligations arising under the Constitution are involved; and the High Court, as the general appellate tribunal, has the duty of reviewing the interpretations of State Courts. It is necessary to discuss the questions

(1) who are the interpreters of the Constitution?

[2) what are the leading principles on which its interpretation should be based?

The Interpretations of the Constitution. — The Constitution, like every other law, is directly binding on every individual and every governmental agency within the Commonwealth. Every person, every officer, every political organ, has the duty of complying with its provisions, and must in the exercise of that duty interpret its provisions, in the first instance, to the best of his ability and on his own responsibility.

Every citizen is entitled to the protection of the Constitution and is bound not to infringe it; every officer and department of every Government— State or Federal — has similar rights and obligations; and the Federal Parliament and the State Parliaments alike are bound not to exceed the authority conferred or reserved by the Constitution. But the provisions of the Constitution may, wittingly or unwittingly, be transgressed; rights arising under it may be denied; obligations may be evaded. Every person under these circumstances has recourse to the appropriate courts to defend his own rights and to enforce the obligations of others; and thus, without any express provision, the courts of the States, and the Federal Courts, whenever they have jurisdiction over a case, have the duty of interpreting the Constitution so far as it affects the rights of the parties. From the Supreme Courts of the States, as well as from inferior federal courts, an appeal lies to the High Court, whose decisions are " final and conclusive," unless special leave to appeal to the Privy Council is obtained either from the Privy Council or from the High Court itself, as the case may be. It may therefore be said that every court of competent jurisdiction is an interpreter of the Constitution; and that the High Court — subject to exceptional review by the Privy Council — is the authoritative and final interpreter of the Constitution.

In the exercise of the duty of interpretation and adjudication not only the High Court, but every court of competent jurisdiction, has the right to declare that a law of the Commonwealth or of a State is void by reason of transgressing the Constitution.

This is a duty cast upon the courts the very nature of the judicial function. The Federal Parliament and the State Parliaments are not sovereign bodies; they are legislatures with limited powers, and any law which they attempt to pass in excess of those powers is no law at all it is simply a nullity, entitled to no obedience.

Crimes Act 1914 which is now called Crimes Act 1995 is UNLAWFUL.

Notice how the Original Crimes Act 1914 has numbers 3 & 3 A. However, in the new Crimes Act 1995 you will notice they now have numbers 3 & 3A but it goes right up to number 3ZZIB.

- These are all the new terrorist laws that alleged Prime Minister Scott Morrison has just placed the unvaccinated people under and NO POLICE OFFICER in Australia knows any of them, which means they can arrest you and spend a day searching through which law will cover the crime they want to charge you with.

It is imperative that you ask the officer “What am I being charged with?” If no crime has been established then no crime has been committed. Shut your mouth and get a solicitor and if they don’t understand OUR Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act then you’ve got the wrong solicitor!

Even Senior Sergeant of police Nick Walters in QLD tried telling me that the Crimes Act originated in 1995 and HE IS a Senior Sergeant of Police for crying out loud, this just goes to show that the Police do not know the laws they are employed to invoke.

A motion of no confidence, vote of no confidence, or no confidence is a statement or vote about whether a person in a position of responsibility (government, management, etc.) is still deemed fit to hold that position, such as because they are inadequate in some aspect, fail to carry out their obligations, or make decisions that other members or The People feel as being detrimental.

The People and the parliamentary motion demonstrates to the head of state that the elected Parliament no longer has confidence in one or more members of the appointed government. In some countries such as Australia - a no confidence motion being passed against an individual minister requires the minister to resign. In most cases, if the minister in question is the premier, all other ministers must also resign.

Therefore let it be witnessed that we The People of the Commonwealth Of Australia hereby pass A motion of No Confidence in all parliament members listed above and local council members, under OUR Constitution Of The Australian Commonwealth Act.
