Cory Williamson
PGA Golf Professional

Cory has been with University Park Country Club since February 2021. Cory is a graduate of Saginaw Valley State University and a proud Michigander. Before joining University Park Country Club he was at TPC Prestancia as well as the Head Golf Professional at Plantation Golf and Country Club. Cory has also held positions at Jacaranda West Country Club in Venice and La Paloma Country Club in Tucson. Cory is a Certified Club Fitter for TaylorMade, Callaway, and Titleist and Certified Master Fitter for Callaway and is the PGA North Florida Southwest Chapter Secretary for 2024-2025. Cory looks forward to seeing you out on the course!

Ashley Hayden
Head Golf Professional

Originally born in London, England, Ashley moved to the United States in 1984. Ashley began his work in the golf industry at The Meadows Country Club in 1987, then after graduating from the University of South Florida he joined University Park Country Club in October 1991. He became a PGA Class A member in 1996. Ashley is now a Certified PGA Professional in Golf Operations. Ashley is responsible for all aspects of our golf operation and is actively involved in The Golf Academy and golf instruction program. Ashley enjoys teaching all skill levels and believes that much can be gained from a small investment of time practicing on the range and even more so at the short game area. Ashley also loves to post videos in the Weekly Friday email and on his YouTube Channel which are both fun and educational. Visit and subscribe:
