1

ST MARYS V CAMBRIDGE PARK

Mark down the Friday night start for this one, as the Anzac long weekend kicks off with a cracker between two sides eager to return to the winners' circle.

Expect the Saints to rebound after a disappointing loss to Brothers. Always in the mix, a desperate Cambo will be looking for a big scalp after falling short against St Clair.

2

WINDSOR V RIVERSTONE

In the only match on Saturday, Windsor will be gunning for back-to-back victories when they return home to host the winless Razorbacks.

In a big blow, the Wolves will take the field minus inspirational half Frank Toomalatai.

3

ST CLAIR V COLYTON

Do yourself a favour and get down to Peppertree for this one. With an abundance of attacking freaks on both sides, fans can expect plenty of points.

As the only unbeaten team, the Comets will start as favourites. However, if Colyton flicks the switch, an upset wouldn't be out of the question.

4

EMU PLAINS V BROTHERS

Just when it looked like the competition was taking shape, Brothers upset the applecart with a stunning performance to sink St Marys.

In a danger game, Emu will need to bring their A-game if they're to have any chance of securing a third straight win.
